History Alive The Ancient World Teachers Guide:

World History - Teacher Guide James P. Stobaugh, 2012-03-01 This convenient teacher's guide is all a parent or teacher needs to easily grade the 12th grade student assignments for World History Observations Assessments from Creation to Today. Assignments with answers, learning objectives, grading criteria, and short essay questions are included. This course is designed for a student to practice independent learning. The guide will assist teachers by offering 34 chapters for 34 weeks of study. Chapters include 5 lessons taking approximately 30 minutes each. The final lesson of the week is an exam covering the week's instruction. Student questions are organized in the back for easy use in testing and review. Teachers, parents, or students can grade assignments daily or weekly. As the teacher, you will enjoy partnering with your student as he or she processes world history while developing or strengthening a Christian world view. Teacher's Guide for World History

Societies of the Past Linda McDowell, Marilyn MacKay, 2005 World History Teacher's Guide is a comprehensive resource filled with fun, captivating, and thought-provoking hands-on activities. In each chapter, you will find practical hands-on activating and acquiring activities, useful teacher reference notes, and organizational techniques, vocabulary building exercises, assessment ideas, and activities review activities, fun puzzles, engaging word games, and easy-to-prepare games. Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places Lynne Dixon, Alison Hales, 2013-12-04 A much-needed and delightful book. It shows how history can be taught with the meaningful experiences of each child at its centre, making connections between the child, the locality, and community, the national and global past, and concepts of time. Throughout, the authors empower teachers to adopt their philosophy by showing them how to plan, select resources, and strategies, and reflect on ideas and case studies. Hilary Cooper, Emeritus professor of history and pedagogy, The University of Cumbria, UK. Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places puts the local environment and community at the heart of history, showing how it can be used as the context for successful history teaching across the primary age range It considers how to develop children s concepts and skills through local history how to link local national and global aspects of history and helps you develop your own historical knowledge understanding and confidence in teaching the subject Practical topics explored include Investigating children s cultural and geographical roots through fieldwork Finding and visiting local museums archives and heritage sights Choosing and using resources Using significant people events and buildings to link with national history Environmental education and sustainable development through local history Understanding the links between history and everyday life Planning and assessing history Based on the latest research and practice in the field Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places offers an exciting template of creative ideas and activities to show teachers how they can make history relevant to all children
