,1911 The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Mun-Oddfellows ,1911 The last great work of the age of reason the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view Unabashed optimism and unabashed racism pervades many entries in the 11th and provide its defining characteristics Despite its occasional ugliness the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained with its volumes It is especially strong in its biographical entries These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten except by the historians scholars The Guardian <https://www.theguardian.com/books/booksblog/2012/apr/10/encyclopedia-britannica-11th-edition> The Encyclopedia Britannica ,1911 The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1911

The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1911 The Encyclopaedia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1911 This eleventh edition was developed during the encyclopaedia's transition from a British to an American publication Some of its articles were written by the best known scholars of the time and it is considered to be a landmark encyclopaedia for scholarship and literary style The Encyclopaedia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1911 The Encyclopædia Britannica: Mun-Oddfellows ,1911 Announcement of the Departments of Classical Philology and Indo-Iranian Languages Harvard University,1904 Education Outlook ,1910 Empires of Antiquities Billie Melman,2020-03-31 Empires of Antiquities is a history of the rediscovery of civilizations of the ancient Near East in the imperial order that evolved between the outbreak of the First World War and the 1950s It explores the ways in which Near Eastern antiquity was redefined and experienced becoming the subject of new regulation new modes of knowledge and international and local politics A series of globally publicized spectacular archaeological discoveries in Iraq Egypt and Palestine which the book follows made antiquity visible palpable and accessible as never before The new uses of antiquity and its relations to modernity were inseparable from the emergence of the post war world order imperial collaboration and collisions and national aspirations Empires of Antiquities uniquely combines a history of the internationalization of a new regime of archaeology under the oversight of the League of Nations and its web of institutions a history of British passions for Near Eastern antiquity on the ground colonial mechanisms and nationalist claims on the past It points to the centrality of the mandate system particularly mandates classified A in Mesopotamia Iraq Palestine and Transjordan formerly governed by the Ottoman Empire and of Egypt in a new culture of antiquity Drawing on an unusually wide range of archives in several countries as well as on visual and material evidence the book weaves together imperial international and local histories of institutions people ideas and objects and offers an entirely new interpretation of the history of archaeological discovery and its connections to empires and modernity

Classical Weekly ,1923 Iranian Classical Music Laudan Nooshin,2017-03-02 Questions of creativity and particularly the processes which underlie creative performance or improvisation form some of the central areas of interest in current musicology Yet the predominant discourses on which musicological thought in this area are based have rarely been challenged In this book Laudan Nooshin interrogates musicological discourses of creativity from the perspective of critical theory and postcolonial studies examining their ideological underpinnings the relationships of alterity which they sustain and the profound implications for our understanding of creative processes in music The repertoire which forms the book's main focus is Iranian classical music a tradition in which the performer plays a central creative role Addressing a number of issues regarding the nature of musical creativity the author explores both the discourses through which ideas about creativity are constructed exchanged and negotiated within this tradition and the practice by which new music comes into being For the latter she compares a number of performances by musicians playing a range of instruments and spanning a period of more than 30 years focusing on one particular section of repertoire dastgāh Segāh and providing transcriptions of the performances as the basis for analytical exploration of the music's underlying compositional principles This book is about understanding musical creativity as a meaningful social practice It is the first to examine the ways in which ideas about tradition authenticity innovation and modernity in Iranian classical music form part of a wider social discourse on creativity and in particular how they inform debates regarding national and cultural identity

The Classical Weekly, 1928     The Classical World, 1907     Historical Development of English Learning Motivation Research Tae-Young Kim, 2021-09-07 This book clarifies the fundamental difference between North America based instrumental motivation and Korea and East Asia specific competitive motivation by which the EFL learners' excessive competition to be admitted to famous universities and to be hired at a large scale conglomerate is the main source of L2 motivation It enables readers to understand that EFL learning motivation reflects unique sociohistorical contexts grounded in a specific region or country This book in turn necessitates the need to develop EFL motivation theory and research tradition which are firmly based on East Asian values and culture
