Italians in Wales and their Cultural Representations, 1920s-2010s Bruna Chezzi, 2015-11-25 Italian immigrants began to settle in Wales at the turn of the 19th century opening hundreds of coffee shops particularly in the South Wales Valleys Despite this such immigrants remain a largely unexplored case study in the history of Italian immigration to the UK This book uses a variety of unexplored sources and engages with the broader academic debate on migration identity and the trans generational transmission of memory to describe the emergence of Welsh Italian narratives and the formation of a distinctive yet complex Welsh Italian identity It follows a chronological journey moving from the interwar period a time in which Italians in Wales were generally regarded as fully established and integrated through to the Second World War a time when Italian identity became problematic and resulted in nearly seventy years of silencing up until the first decade of the 21st century where a mixture of commemorative events and cultural initiatives prompted the emergence of Welsh Italian narratives The book begins by studying photographic representations of Italians in Wales during the interwar period using photographs available in local history books private collections and history books The analysis of the photographic material draws from the work of scholars such as Sontag Noble Hirsh and Bate on photo textual analysis to show how photographs can reveal understudied yet important aspects of Italian migrant identity and of the relationship with the host community in the period that preceded the Second World War The book then examines how the events of the Second World War destabilised the images of family sociability and integration suggested by these photographs and how such events aggravated tensions between host and migrant cultures It continues by investigating recent Welsh Italian texts where in revisiting the past and the experience of their ancestors the authors bring different circumstances and personal factors into play determining the degree to which they reconcile their dual identity It concludes with a comparison between these narratives of belonging and the representation of the Italian migrant experience in Anglo Welsh literature

Italians in Wales and Their Cultural Representations, 1920s-2010s Bruna Chezzi, 2015 Italian immigrants began to settle in Wales at the turn of the 19th century opening hundreds of coffee shops particularly in the South Wales Valleys Despite this such immigrants remain a largely unexplored case study in the history of Italian immigration to the UK This book uses a variety of unexplored sources and engages with the broader academic debate on migration identity and the trans generational transmission of memory to describe the emergence of Welsh Italian narratives and the formation of a distinctive yet complex Welsh Italian identity It follows a chronological journey moving from the interwar period a time in which Italians in Wales were generally regarded as fully established and integrated through to the Second World War a time when Italian identity became problematic and resulted in nearly seventy years of silencing TM up until the first decade of the 21st century where a mixture of commemorative events and cultural initiatives prompted the emergence of Welsh Italian narratives The book begins by studying photographic representations of Italians in Wales during the interwar period using photographs available in local history books private collections and history books The analysis of the photographic material draws from the work of scholars such as Sontag Noble Hirsh and Bate on photo textual analysis to show how photographs can reveal understudied yet important aspects of Italian migrant identity and of the relationship with the host community in the period that preceded the Second World War The book then examines how the events of the Second World War destabilised the images of family sociability and integration suggested by these photographs and how such events aggravated tensions between host and migrant cultures It continues by investigating recent Welsh Italian texts where in revisiting the past and the experience of their ancestors the authors bring different circumstances and personal factors into play determining the degree to which they reconcile their dual identity It concludes with a comparison between these narratives of belonging TM and the representation of the Italian migrant experience in Anglo Welsh literature

Literary Voices of the Italian Diaspora in Britain Manuela D'Amore, 2023-09-27 This volume studies the literary voices of the Italian diaspora in Britain including 21 authors and 34 pieces of prose verse and drama This book shows how authors both recount the history of the migrant community in the period 1880 1980 while creatively experimenting with hybrid forms of expression and blending words with visuals Literary Voices of the Italian Diaspora in Britain discusses topical issues like migration and social integration cultures and foods in transition as well as plurilingualism The book pays special attention to discussions of the horrors of the Second World War especially on the tragedy of the Arandora Star 2nd July 1940 to show this literary community's political commitments More importantly it will begin to fill the void left by a critical tradition which has only appreciated the northern American and Australian branches of Italian writing

Successful Enquiry Answering Every Time, 7th edition Tim Buckley Owen, 2017-04-11 Successful Enquiry Answering Every Time is designed to guide information professionals through all the stages of research from finding out what the enquirer really wants to providing a polished value added answer When people want to satisfy their immediate curiosity they're much more likely to use a search engine on their mobile device than ask their local library But while the days of personal intervention in this kind of enquiry are inevitably numbered the professional skills that underpin them are not This book uses technology as the enabler of the thought processes that information professionals need to engage in when answering enquiries and makes the case that new technology far from making them irrelevant raises the skill stakes for all Now in its 7th edition this book is fully updated to cover new skills such as employing critical thinking to manipulate categorise and prioritise raw search results using strategic reading and abstracting techniques to identify and summarise the essential information the enquirer needs from the retrieved documents drawing on established story telling practice to present research results effectively whether orally or in writing working to the POWER model plan organise write edit review This book is ideal for anyone who has to answer enquiries from users in any information role those working in contact centres who are dealing with information enquiries processing transactions or trouble shooting technical issues and information professionals working on enquiry desks in large or small academic public school or special libraries

The Jews of Wales Cai Parry-Jones, 2017-06-01 This study considers Welsh Jewry as a geographical whole and is the first to draw extensively on oral history sources giving a voice back to the history of Welsh Jewry which has long been a formal history of synagogue functionaries and institutions The author considers the impact of the Second World War on Wales's Jewish population as well as the importance of the Welsh context in shaping the Welsh Jewish experience The study offers a detailed examination of the numerical decline of Wales's Jewish communities throughout the twentieth century and is also the first to consider the situation of Wales's Jewish communities in the early twenty first arguing that these communities may be significantly fewer in number and smaller than in the past but they are ever evolving

A Transdisciplinary Study of Global Mobilities Eduardo Tasis Moratinos, Ti-han Chang, Alicia Moreno Giménez, 2024-12-31 Identities on the Move interrogates the categories given and adopted by people on the move through a transdisciplinary and global approach that includes social and political sciences and the arts It brings together experiences of displacement from a variety of cultural and national backgrounds including Brazilians Chinese Koreans South Italians Africans Muslims Arabophobe migrants Iranians Pakistanis Bosnians Latin Americans and Eastern Europeans It looks at their identity negotiating processes in different geographies across the globe namely Japan UK Palestine Italy Australia Europe and North America This multi geographical and multi disciplinary approach allows us to decentralise previous narratives of migration by reformulating them against coloniality and invisibility and presenting them within a richer and changing contemporary map of dynamic identities The global scale of the case studies included in this volume also allows for a wider exploration of thematic concepts within the trans formation of displaced identities such as assimilation versus alienation memory and trauma stigmatisation enculturation acculturation and deculturation In a nutshell this volume highlights current complexities of identity formation in a global scene that is moving away from homogenous nations by presenting a multi layered and multi spatial notion of belonging

Importing Fascism Remigio Petrocelli, 2024-12-31 Importing Fascism analyses the mechanisms of the Italian fascist regime in incorporating the Italian Scottish diaspora into their nation and fascism building project via its transnational efforts between the rise of fascism in 1922 and Italy's declaration of war on Britain in June 1940 Drawing extensively on a range of unpublished Italian and British sources from local and national archives as well as original contemporary press the book reconstructs minutely the activities of the fasci in Scotland and demonstrates the impact fascism had on forging Italians community and national identity Moreover by shedding light on this largely neglected chapter of the history of fascism and Scotland's Italian diaspora the monograph offers new points of reflection on long standing issues of cultural political and propaganda activity under the regime This volume is ideal for postgraduate students and scholars of fascism modern Italian and British history and diaspora studies

Migrant Britain Jennifer Craig-Norton, Christhard Hoffmann, Tony Kushner, 2018-08-14 Britain has largely been in denial of its migrant past it is often suggested that the arrivals after 1945 represent a new phenomenon and not the continuation of a much longer and deeper trend There is also an assumption that Britain is a tolerant country towards minorities that distinguishes itself from the rest of Europe and beyond The historian who was the first and most important to challenge this dominant view is Colin Holmes who from the early 1970s onwards provided a framework for a different interpretation based on extensive research This challenge came not only through his own work but also that of a new school of students who studied under him and the creation of the journal Immigrants and Minorities in 1982 This volume not only celebrates this remarkable achievement but also explores the state of migrant historiography including responses to migrants in the twenty first century The Migration Conference 2021 Book of Abstracts TMC 2021 Team,2021-07-06 This is a compilation of the abstracts of papers presented at the Migration Conference 2021 Please visit migrationconference.net for more details Cultural

Representations of Italians in Wales (1920s-2010s). Bruna Chezzi,2013 This thesis aims to enrich academic scholarship by investigating cultural narratives of Italians in Wales from 1920s 2010s It will make use of sources that have been understudied such as the photographs of Italians in Wales during the interwar period and local newspapers reporting on the incident of the Arandora Star sinking during the Second World War It also provides an original contribution to debates on migration memory and identity drawing on recently emerged sources such as the accounts generated by second and third generations of Italian migrants about the traumatic experience of the Second World War and the published works by Welsh Italian authors such as Servini Pelosi Spinetti Emanuelli and Arcari Finally this thesis also provides an original approach by comparing these narratives of belonging with the representation of the Italian migrant experience in Anglo Welsh literature

Aesthetic Modernism and Masculinity in Fascist Italy John Champagne,2013 Aesthetic Modernism and Masculinity in Fascist Italy is an interdisciplinary historical re reading of a series of representative texts that complicate our current understanding of the portrayal of masculinity in the Italian fascist era Champagne seeks to evaluate how the aesthetic analysis of the artifacts explored offer a more sophisticated and nuanced understanding of what world politics is what is at stake when something like masculinity is rendered as being an element of world politics and how such an understanding differs from more orthodox cultural analyses common to international relations Gender, Companionship, and Travel

Floris Meens,Tom Sintobin,2018-12-07 Over the last couple of decades there has been a strong academic interest in how individuals interact with each other while en route Yet even if various studies have informed us about present day realities of travel companionships we know little about the influence of gender both on these realities as well as on the discourse in which these are being narrated This book aims to establish an agenda for the study of companionship in travel writing by offering a collection of new essays which study texts that belong to the broad category of pre modern and modern travel literature Chapters explore the differences and similarities in the ways that women and men in the past chose to describe their experiences with and or their ideas about companionship and specifically reveals the influence of gender norms conventions restrictions and stereotypes This is the first book which looks at the long term interdisciplinary and genuinely international history of gendered discourses on companionship in travel writing It will be of interest to scholars and students from a wide variety of disciplines including cultural and social history as well as cultural literary gender travel and tourism studies

Modern Murders Lee Michael-Berger,2023-05-03 Modern Murders is the first comprehensive study of murder representations during the turn of the century drawing on previously neglected archival material to explore the intellectual cultural and artistic contexts of the period Most studies view the abundance of murder representations throughout the nineteenth century as an indicator of a supposedly typical Victorian appetite for sensation and melodrama Modern Murders however demonstrates the turn of the century s backlash against melodramatic and sensational representations of murder and reads them as an important component in the struggles for better aesthetic standards in art and entertainment and as a dominant feature in the debates on mass culture Through a plethora of visual and written texts representations of fictional and actual real life murders and high and popular forms of writing the volume considers the importance of murder in the elite claim to cultural authority versus its perception of plebian taste in the context of the democratization of culture This book will be of value to scholars and graduate students in a variety of research areas as well as general readers interested in the role of murder as a central trope in modern art and culture

Negotiation, Collaboration and Conflict in Ancient and Medieval Communities Christian Krötzel,Katariina Mustakallio,Miikka Tamminen,2022-03-27 Focusing on forms of interaction and methods of negotiation in multicultural multi ethnic and multilingual contexts during Antiquity and the Middle Ages this volume examines questions of social and cultural interaction within and between diverse ethnic communities Toleration and coexistence were essential in all late antique and medieval societies and their communities However power struggles and prejudices could give rise to suspicion conflict and violence All of these had a central influence on social dynamics negotiations of collective or individual identity definitions of ethnicity and the shaping of legal rules What was the function of multicultural and multilingual interaction did it create and increase conflicts or was it rather a prerequisite for survival and prosperity The focus of this book is society and the history of everyday life examining gender status and ethnicity and the various forms of interaction and negotiation

Art in England Sara N. James,2016-10-31 Art in England fills a void in the scholarship of both English and medieval art by offering the first single volume overview of artistic movements in Medieval and Early Renaissance England Grounded in history and using the chronology of the reign of monarchs as a structure it is contextual and comprehensive revealing unobserved threads of continuity patterns of intention and unique qualities that run through English art of the medieval millennium By placing the English movement in a European context this book brings to light many ingenious innovations that focused studies tend not to recognize and offers a fresh look at the movement as a whole The media studied include architecture and related sculpture both ecclesiastical and secular tomb monuments murals panel paintings altarpieces and portraits manuscript illuminations textiles and art by English artists and by foreign artists commissioned by English patrons

Towards Effective Place Brand Management Gregory

Ashworth, Mihalis Kavaratzis, 2010-01-01 Many facets of place branding such as identities image promotion or sense of place have been around for a long time However the need to analyse their nature in the context of branding and to examine their relationships in detail has grown rapidly in the last decade or so as places all over the world have put branding activities higher than ever in their agenda This important new book examines and clarifies key aspects of the recently popularised concept of place branding expounding many controversies confusions and discords in the field The expert contributors clarify several unresolved issues surrounding the application of place branding in particular its multiple goals They provide a detailed analysis of the role of local communities in place branding strategies and illustrate not only how but also why brand management should be implemented Case studies from a range of jurisdictions and cultural and political viewpoints are drawn upon each illustrating an array of issues or techniques in specific economic cultural and geographical contexts This book provides a theoretically informed but practically oriented overview and discussion of the increasingly popular field of place branding as an instrument of place management As such it will strongly appeal to both academics and practitioners in the fields of place marketing place branding local development tourism planning and development tourism marketing cultural geography urban and regional planning Consultants in local authorities national and regional tourism boards will also find this to be a fascinating read
