Italy Today The Sick Man Of Europe:

Italy Today Giuseppe A. Veltri, 2010 A comprehensive analyses of contemporary Italy this book is a provocative and innovative collection of essays that highlights the current crisis of the country

Transnational Neofascism in France and Italy Andrea Mammone, 2019-02-21 This book describes the establishment evolution and international links of the extreme right in one of the main Western European areas Andrea Mammone details the long journey in the development of right wing extremism in France and Italy emphasizing the transfer exchange and borrowing of ideals personnel and strategies and the similarities among neofascist movements activists and thinkers across national boundaries from 1945 to the present day including the Cold War years the election of the European Parliament in 1979 and the 2014 EU elections Mammone analyzes the adaptation of neofascism in society and politics the building of international associations and pan national networks and the right leaning responses to the defeat of fascism European integration decolonization the events of 1968 immigration and the recent EU led austerity politics As a book implicitly on space borders and belonging it shows how some nationalisms may embody a transnational dimension and at times even pan European stances

The Oxford Handbook of Migration Crises Dr. Cecilia Menjívar, Dr. Marie Ruiz, Dr. Immanuel Ness, 2019-01-16 The objective of The Oxford Handbook of Migration Crises is to deconstruct question and redefine through a critical lens what is commonly understood as migration crises The volume covers a wide range of historical economic social political and environmental conditions that generate migration crises around the globe At the same time it illuminates how the media and public officials play a major role in framing migratory flows as crises The volume brings together an exceptional group of scholars from around the world to critically examine migration crises and to revisit the notion of crisis through the context in which permanent and non permanent migration flows occur The Oxford Handbook of Migration Crises offers an understanding of individuals in societies socio economic structures and group processes Focusing on migrants departures and arrivals in all continents this comprehensive handbook explores the social dynamics of migration crises with an emphasis on factors that propel these flows as well as the actors that play a role in classifying them and in addressing them The volume is organized into nine sections The first section provides a historical overview of the link between migration and crises The second looks at how migration crises are constructed while the third section contextualizes the causes and effects of protracted conflicts in producing crises The fourth focuses on the role of climate and the environment in generating migration crises while the fifth section examines these migratory flows in migration corridors and transit countries The sixth section looks at policy responses to migratory flows The last three sections look at the role media and visual culture gender and immigrant incorporation play in migration crises

Fear and Anxiety in the 21st Century: The European Context and Beyond, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 This inter disciplinary volume is centred upon the complex and ever changing issues entailed by fears and anxieties in contemporary Europe and thence the whole world

Indeed the fate of Europe mirrors the fate of the world itself events are no longer localized but as soon as they have occurred they have become part and parcel of our experience as a genuinely cosmopolitan species Some of these fears and anxieties are nurtured by real events whilst others are rooted in imaginary phenomena The experts who have contributed to this exciting work come from different fields of study from history to economics and from anthropology to linguistics yet what they have in common is a genuine commitment to the integrity of inter disciplinary research which teaches mutual respect and scientific curiosity

The Other Population Crisis Steven Philip Kramer,2020-03-03 In many developed countries population decline poses economic and social strains and may even threaten national security Through historical political case studies of Sweden France Italy Japan and Singapore The Other Population Crisis explores the motivations politics programming and consequences of national efforts to promote births Steven Philip Kramer finds a significant government role in stopping declines in birth rates Sweden s and France s pro natalist programs which have succeeded share the characteristics of being universal not means tested and based on gender equality and making it easy for women to balance work and family The programs in Italy Japan and Singapore which have failed so far have not devoted sufficient resources consistently enough to make a difference and do not support gender equality and women s work family balance Kramer finds

Motorsport and Fascism Paul Baxa,2022-04-28 This book is the first English language study of motorsport and Italian Fascism arguing that a synergy existed between motor racing and Fascism that did not exist with other sports Motorsport was able to bring together the two dominant and often opposed cultural roots of Fascism the Futurism of F T Marinetti and the Decadence associated with Gabriele D Annunzio The book traces this cultural convergence through a topical study of motorsport in the 1920s and 1930s placing it in the context of the history of sport under Mussolini s regime Chapters discuss the centrality of speed and death in Fascist culture the attempt to transform Rome into a motorsport capital the architectural and ideological function of the Monza and Tripoli and autodromes and two chapters on the importance of the Mille Miglia a genuine Fascist artefact that became one of the most legendary motor races of all time

Much Ado About Nothing? Elisabetta Gualmini,Eleonora Pasotti,2011-12 The year 2010 marked the halfway point for Silvio Berlusconi s fourth government with the solidity of its electoral mandate threatened on a number of occasions by strong clashes with the opposition ultimately leading to a divorce from Gianfranco Fini The upheaval that followed this rift dominated the second half of the year This volume examines not only this rift but also the important political and social events of a period full of polemics and tensions from the regional elections and the debate on fiscal federalism to the state of the opposition parties The political agenda was consumed by everyday matters such as the scandals surrounding the Civil Protection Service and the confrontations with the magistracy over phone tapping and appeared to lack any strategic planning for the longer term The reform of the university system was approved by a slim margin and still saw violent protests from its opponents Then all of the government s actions were restricted by a return to austerity policies Through the confidence vote of 14 December the government retained its tenuous hold on power and left a sense of much ado about nothing The crisis was averted but possibly only postponed and now there remains the unresolved increasingly chronic problems of a country that is limping along without growth more and more divided according to geographical areas social and professional categories and above all torn between generations Asian Migrants and Religious Experience Bernardo Brown, Brenda Yeoh, 2025-10-01

Typically scholars approach migrants religions as a safeguard of cultural identity something that connects migrants to their communities of origin This ethnographic anthology challenges that position by reframing the religious experiences of migrants as a transformative force capable of refashioning narratives of displacement into journeys of spiritual awakening and missionary calling These essays explore migrants motivations in support of an argument that to travel inspires a search for new meaning in religion Global Islamophobia George Morgan, 2016-04-22 The decade since 9 11 has seen a decline in liberal tolerance in the West as Muslims have endured increasing levels of repression This book presents a series of case studies from Western Europe Australia and North America demonstrating the transnational character of Islamophobia The authors explore contemporary intercultural conflicts using the concept of moral panic revitalised for the era of globalisation Exploring various sites of conflict Global Islamophobia considers the role played by moral entrepreneurs in orchestrating popular xenophobia and in agitating for greater surveillance policing and cultural regulation of those deemed a threat to the nation s security or imagined community This timely collection examines the interpenetration of the global and the local in the West s cultural politics towards Islam highlighting parallels in the responses of governments and in the worrying reversion to a politics of coercion and assimilation As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology and politics with interests in race and ethnicity citizenship and assimilation political communication securitisation and The War on Terror and moral panics Right-Wing Populism in Europe Ruth Wodak, Brigitte Mral, Majid KhosraviNik, 2013-05-23 This volume offers a comparative survey of Far Right parties across Europe examining in particular their changing political rhetoric The contributors look at the development of two distinct forms of party development and discourse The Haiderization and The Berlusconi model Coalition Government and Party Mandate Catherine Moury, 2013-05-02 Which kind of decisions are passed by Cabinet in coalition governments What motivates ministerial action How much leeway do coalition parties give their governmental representatives This book focuses on a comparative study of ministerial behaviour in Germany Belgium Italy and the Netherlands It discredits the assumption that ministers are policy dictators in their spheres of competence and demonstrates that ministers are consistently and extensively constrained when deciding on policies The first book in a new series at the forefront of research on social and political elites this is an invaluable insight into the capacity and power of coalition government across Europe Looking at policy formation through coalition agreements and the effectiveness of such agreements Coalition Government and Party Mandate will be of interest to students and scholars of comparative politics governance and European politics Silences and Divided Memories Katja Hrobert

Virloget,2023-08-11 The Istrian Peninsula which is made up of modern day Croatia Slovenia and Italy suffered from the so called Istrian exodus after the Second World War This book looks at this difficult silenced past and shifts the usual focus from migrants to those who stayed behind and to the new immigrants who came to the emptied towns The research based on individual memories deals with silences and competing national discourses reasons to stay and leave hybrid border ethnic identities and the renewal of Istrian society and its new social relations It is a self critical reflection on an ignored chapter of national history which with an empathetic approach allows the silence to speak Mapping the Extreme Right in Contemporary Europe Andrea Mammone,Emmanuel Godin,Brian Jenkins,2012-05-16 In recent years the revival of the far right and anti Semitic racist and fascist organizations has posed a significant threat throughout Europe Mapping the Extreme Right in Contemporary Europe provides a broad geographical overview of the dominant strands within the contemporary radical right in both Western and Eastern Europe After providing some local and regional perspectives the book has a series of national case studies of particular countries and regions including Austria Belgium Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia Eastern Europe France Germany Greece Italy Malta Portugal Romania Scandinavia Serbia Spain Switzerland Turkey Ukraine and the United Kingdom A series of thematic chapters examine transnational phenomena such as the use of the Internet the racist music scene cultural transfers and interaction between different groups Drawing together a wide range of contributors this is essential reading for all those with an interest in contemporary extremism fascism and comparative party politics

Goodbye to All That? Dan Stone,2014 Shows how the anti fascist consensus prevalent throughout Europe following World War II has been crumbling since the 1970s and how globalization deregulation the erosion of social democratic welfare capitalism in the West and the collapse of the Communist alternative in the East are leading to a social divisive politically dangerous rise of fascism that could threaten the peace of Europe European Culture Wars and the Italian Case Luca Ozzano,Alberta Giorgi,2015-09-16 This book aims to understand the European political debate about contentious issues framed in terms of religious values by religious and or secular actors in 21st century It specifically focuses on the Italian case which due to its peculiar history and contemporary political landscape is a paradigmatic case for the study of the relationships between religion and politics In recent years a number of controversies related to religious issues have characterised the European public debate at both the EU and the national level The affaire du foulard in France the referendum on abortion in Portugal the recognition of same sex marriages in many Western European States the debate over bioethics and the regulation of euthanasia are only a few examples of contentious issues involving religion This book aims to shed light on the interrelation between these different debates as well as their broader meaning through the analysis of the paradigmatic case of Italy Italy summarizes and sometimes exasperates wider European trends both because of the peculiar role traditionally played by the Vatican in Italian politics and for the rise since the 1990s of new political entrepreneurs eager to exploit ethical and civilizational issues This work will be of great interest to scholars and students of a number of fields within the disciplines of political science sociology and law and will be useful for courses on religion and politics political parties social movements and civil society

Social Identity and Working Class Support for the Populist Radical Right Eric G. Castater, Kyung Joon Han, 2025-02-04 Why are blue collar workers increasingly supporting the populist radical right in Western Europe Previous explanations for this phenomenon suggest that it is the result of their economic and cultural grievances and their general discontent towards the political system Social Identity and Working Class Support for the Populist Radical Right argues that these explanations are unable to account for why the working class despite their deteriorating economic position in recent decades would prefer to vote for a party family that they agree with more on cultural issues the populist radical right than economic issues the populist radical or mainstream left To explain this puzzle the book develops a theory utilizing the literature on social identity It argues and empirically finds that political and economic conditions relatively unfavourable to the working class increase blue collar worker support for the populist radical right in Western Europe by strengthening these workers national identity and thus also the salience they place on cultural issues Castater and Han's analysis suggests that if governing parties desire to reduce support for the populist radical right they should incorporate labour organizations into the welfare state reform process enact economic policies that improve the well being of a broad swath of the working class and reduce the types of economic inequality that most affect blue collar workers

Appraisal, Sentiment and Emotion Analysis in Political Discourse Claudia Roberta Combei, Valeria Reggi, 2023-11-16 This book adopts a multi method multimodal approach to the study of online political communication applying it to case studies from the United Kingdom France and Italy towards offering a portrait of the rapid ideological shifts in contemporary Western democracies The volume introduces an integrated framework combining Sentiment and Emotion Analysis rooted in lexical semantics and the qualitative dimensions of Appraisal Theory applying it to large corpora of online political communication from the United Kingdom France and Italy Combei and Reggi highlight their combined potential in analysing the multimodal resources in such discourses and in turn revealing fresh insights into layers of subtext and the ways in which parties and movements frame their political programmes and values The authors also take into account culture and language specific variables across the three countries in shaping such discourses The volume makes the case for an integrated methodological framework that can be uniquely applied to better understand the multimodal communicative landscape of divisiveness in today's rapidly shifting political climate and other forms of online communication more broadly This book will be of interest to students and scholars in digital communication political communication multimodality and qualitative and quantitative discourse analysis especially those interested in corpus assisted approaches

Marvelous Bodies Vetri Nathan, 2017-08-15 Historically a source of emigrants to Northern Europe and the New World Italy has rapidly become a preferred destination for immigrants from the global South Life in the land of la dolce vita has not seemed so sweet recently as Italy struggles with the cultural challenges caused by this surge in immigration Marvelous

Bodies by Vetri Nathan explores thirteen key full length Italian films released between 1990 and 2010 that treat this remarkable moment of cultural role reversal through a plurality of styles In it Nathan argues that Italy sees itself as the quintessential internal Other of Western Europe and that this subalternity directly influences its cinematic response to immigrants Europe s external Others In framing his case to understand Italy s cinematic response to immigrants Nathan first explores some basic questions Who exactly is the Other in Italy Does Italy s own past partial alterity affect its present response to its newest subalterns Drawing on Homi Bhabha s writings and Italian cinematic history Nathan then posits the existence of marvelous bodies that are momentarily neither completely Italian nor completely immigrant This ambivalence of forms extends to the films themselves which tend to be generic hybrids The persistent curious presence of marvelous bodies and a pervasive generic hybridity enact Italy s own chronic ambivalence that results from its presence at the cultural crossroads of the Mediterranean

Shelved Sue Matthews Petrovski,2017-11-15 Sue Petrovski has always been capable thoughtful and productive After retiring from a long and successful career in education she published two books ran an antiques business and volunteered in her community When her mother was diagnosed with Alzheimer s disease and until her death eight years later Petrovski served as her primary caregiver She even cared for her husband when he also succumbed to dementia However when Petrovski s husband fell ill with sepsis at the age of 82 it threw everything into question Would he survive And if so would she be able to care for him and manage the family home where they had lived for 47 years More importantly how long would she be able to do so After making the decision to sell their house and move into a senior living community Petrovski found herself thrust into the corporate care model of elder services available in the United States In Shelved A Memoir of Aging in America she reflects on the move and the benefits and deficits of American for profit elder care Petrovski draws on extensive research that demonstrates the cultural value of our elders and their potential for leading vital creative lives especially when given opportunities to do so offering a cogent well informed critique of elder care options in this country Shelved provides readers with a personal account of what it is like to leave a family home and enter a new world where everyone is old and where decisions like where to sit in the dining room fall to low level corporate managers Showcasing the benefits of communal living as well as the frustrations of having decisions about meals public spaces and governance driven by the bottom line Petrovski delivers compelling suggestions for the transformation of an elder care system that more often than not condescends to older adults into one that puts people first a change that would benefit us all whether we are 40 60 80 or beyond

Generation Europe Sandro Gozi,2018-01-23 The decision of the British people to leave the EU was a political earthquake A seemingly never ending round of challenges from the migration crisis to continuing terror threats and the euro s woes has left the EU in a crisis of confidence The consequent rise in nationalism and populism has too often seemed to leave the continent s existing generation of leaders floundering But there is hope A new generation of European leaders is rising to political seniority Behind them is a new generation of European voters less beholden to the past They are Generation Europe Shaped in an age of smartphones low cost travel and cross country initiatives like the Erasmus programme they share a different perspective In a passionately argued mix of personal story and policy prescriptions one of the leading members of Generation Europe Italy s centre left Europe minister Sandro Gozi takes us on a journey through the challenges his continent faces Exploring causes and solutions he reflects on his cohort s commitment to building cross border policies that will address common problems and start to give Europe brighter prospects
