Japhet, Barry Dov Walfish, 2017-06-12 This extraordinary commentary by a late twelfth century anonymous northern French exegete interprets the Song of Songs solely according to its plain meaning as a story of two young lovers and their developing relationship. The exegete pays attention to every detail of the text offering many enlightening insights into its meaning all the while expanding upon the way of lovers the ways that young people in love go about their lovemaking. The French background of the exegete is made clear by numerous references to knights coats of arms weapons chivalry and of course wine drinking. The edition is accompanied by an English translation and extensive introduction which analyzes the various linguistic literary and exegetical features of the text.
