Iznik: The Pottery of Ottoman Turkey by Raby and Atasoy.

[Review]. Oliver Watson, Iznik Walter B. Denny, 2015 In this beautifully illustrated book Walter Denny presents a new vision of one of the most internationally renowned Islamic artforms Iznik ceramics Covering both Iznik pi ces de forme and the famous Iznik tiles that decorate Ottoman imperial monuments Iznik integrates the entire spectrum of Iznik production both tiles and wares and the broader artistic tradition in which it originated Denny begins with a description of the particular nature of Islamic art under the Ottoman empire as well as the methods of the craftsmen who worked under the imperial auspices He then examines the links between the court style of Istanbul and the ceramic ateliers in Iznik itself and the crucial role of the dominant styles of the golden age of Iznik ceramics and their most famous creators Shah Kulu and Kara Memi The book showcases the array of motifs floral vegetal and figurative used on Iznik wares looks at the relationship between non Muslim communities and the Ottoman empire and closes with an examination of the rich stylistic heritage that Iznik ceramics have given to Western art Gloriously illustrated in full colour throughout this is a panoramic overview of a spectacular and refined artform Early Ottoman Art: The Legacy of the Emirates Gönül Öney, Lale Bulut, Şakir Çakmak, Ertan Daş, Aydoğan

Czech Identity, 1453-1683 Laura Lisy-Wagner, 2016-05-06 Unlike many narratives about the Czech lands which place them on the periphery of their own history this study considers Czechs as central characters looking both east and west to find their place in the early modern world Islam Christianity and the Making of Czech Identity 1453 1683 works through the descriptive and ethnographic texts produced by Czech speakers about Islam and the Ottoman Empire to show how they used this discourse to create Czech identities Rather than simply constructing identity in opposition to the Islamic Other Laura Lisy Wagner shows how these authors played the Holy Roman and Ottoman Empires off each other creating an autonomous space for themselves in between Lisy Wagner introduces sources that are new to English language historiography and uses them in a way that is new to Czech historiography as well The chapters are organized based on different categories of agents travelers ethnographers religious leaders artists and political revolutionaries whose voices cast ideas of Europe and Czech identity in the early modern period in a new and different light A Cultural History of the Ottomans Suraiya

Farooqi, 2016-05-24 Far from simply being a centre of military and economic activity the Ottoman Empire represented a vivid and flourishing cultural realm The artefacts and objects that remain from all corners of this vast empire illustrate the real and everyday concerns of its subjects and elites and with this in mind Suraiya Farooqi one of the most distinguished Ottomanists of her generation has selected 40 of the most revealing surprising and striking Each image reproduced in full colour is deftly linked to the latest historiography and the social political and economic implications of her selections are never forgotten In Farooqi's hands the objects become ways to learn more about trade gender and socio political status and open an enticing window onto the variety and colour of everyday life from the Sultan's court to the peasantry and slavery Amongst its faïences and etchings and its sofras and carpets A Cultural History of the Ottomans is essential reading for all those interested in the Ottoman Empire and its material culture Farooqi here provides the definitive insight into the luxuriant and varied artefacts of Ottoman world A History of the Jewish Community in Istanbul Minna Rozen, 2010-10-15 This volume presents the transformation of the Greek speaking Jewish community of Byzantine Constantinople into an Ottoman ethnically diversified immigrant community As the Ottomans influenced its cultural and social values the community strived to preserve its boundaries with the surrounding society Los Inicios del Arte Otomano. The Routledge Handbook of Global Historical Archaeology Charles E. Orser, Jr., Andres Zarankin, Pedro Funari, Susan Lawrence, James Symonds, 2020-07-26 The Routledge Handbook of Global Historical Archaeology is a multi authored compendium of articles on specific topics of interest to today s historical archaeologists offering perspectives on the current state of research and collectively outlining future directions for the field The broad range of topics covered in this volume allows for specificity within individual chapters while building to a cumulative overview of the field of historical archaeology as it stands and where it could go next Archaeological research is discussed in the context of current sociological concerns different approaches and techniques are assessed and potential advances are posited This is a comprehensive treatment of the sub discipline engaging key contemporary debates and providing a series of specially commissioned geographical overviews to complement the more theoretical explorations This book is designed to offer a starting point for students who may wish to pursue particular topics in more depth as well as for non archaeologists who have an interest in historical archaeology Archaeologists historians preservationists and all scholars interested in the role historical archaeology plays in illuminating daily life during the past five centuries will find this volume engaging and enlightening

The Science and Archaeology of Materials Julian Henderson, 2013-04-15 The Science and Archaeology of Materials is set to become the definitive work in the archaeology of materials Henderson s highly illustrated work is an accessible and fascinating textbook which will be essential reading for all practical archaeologists With clear sections on a wide range of materials including ceramics glass metals and stone this work examines the very foundations of archaeological study Anyone interested in ancient technologies especially those involving high temperatures kilns and furnaces will be able to follow in each chapter how raw materials are refined transformed and shaped into objects This description is then followed by appropriate case studies which provide a new chronological and geographical example of how scientific and archaeological aspects can and do interact They include Roman pale green and highly decorated glass 17th Century glass in Britain and Europe the effect of the introduction of the wheel on pottery technology the technology of Celadon ceramics early copper metallurgy in the Middle East chemical analysis and lead isotope analysis of British Bronzes early copper alloy metallurgy in Thailand the chemical analysis of obsidian and its distribution the origins of the Stonehenge bluestones This book shows how archaeology and science intersect and feed off each other Modern scientific techniques have provided data which when set within a fully integrated archaeological context have the potential of contributing to mainstream archaeology This holistic approach generates a range of connections which benefits both areas and will enrich archaeological study in the future

Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization

The Art and Architecture of Islam 1250-1800 Sheila S. Blair, Jonathan M. Bloom, 1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and motifs played a dominant role in the artistic life of most of the Muslim world the one exception was the Maghrib an area protected from the full brunt of the Mongol invasions where traditional models continued to inspire artists and patrons By the sixteenth century say the authors the eastern Mediterranean under the Ottomans and the area of northern India under the Mughals had become more powerful and the Iranian models of early Ottoman and Mughal art gradually gave way to distinct regional and imperial styles

Making Modernity in the Islamic Mediterranean Margaret S. Graves, Alex Dika Seggerman, 2022-04-19 The Islamic world's artistic traditions experienced profound transformation in the 19th century as rapidly developing technologies and globalizing markets ushered in drastic changes in technique style and content Despite the importance and ingenuity of these developments the 19th century remains a gap in the history of Islamic art To fill this opening in art historical scholarship Making Modernity in the Islamic Mediterranean charts transformations in image making architecture and craft production in the Islamic world from Fez to Istanbul Contributors focus on the shifting methods of production reproduction circulation and exchange artists faced as they worked in fields such as photography weaving design metalwork ceramics and even transportation Covering a range of media and a wide geographical spread Making Modernity in the Islamic Mediterranean reveals how 19th century artists in the Middle East and North Africa reckoned with new tools materials and tastes from local perspectives

Forensic Geoscience Kenneth Pye, Debra J. Croft, 2004 Forensic geoscience is an increasingly important sub discipline within geoscience and forensic science Although minerals soils dusts and rock fragments have been used as only begun to be recognized in the last ten years or so The police and other investigative bodies are keen to encourage such developments in the fight against crime particularly since many criminals show a high level of forensic awareness with regard to evidence such as fingerprints blood and other body fluids The papers in this volume illustrate some of the main principles techniques and applications in current forensic geoscience covering research and casework in the UK and internationally The techniques described range from macro scale field geophysical investigations to micro scale laboratory studies of the chemical and textural properties of individual particles In addition to forensic applications many of these techniques have broad utility in geological geomorphological soil science and archaeological research

Antique Dealing and Creative Reuse in Cairo and Damascus 1850-1890 Mercedes Volait, 2021-05-25 The commodification of Islamic antiques intensified in the late Ottoman Empire an age of domestic reform and increased European interference following the Tanzimat reorganisation of 1839 Mercedes Volait examines the social life of typical objects moving from Cairo and Damascus to Paris London and beyond uncovers the range of agencies and subjectivities involved in the trade of architectural salvage and historic handicraft and traces impacts on private interiors through creative reuse and Revival design in Egypt Europe and America By devoting attention to both local and global engagements with Middle Eastern tangible heritage the present volume invites to look anew at Orientalism in art and interior design the canon of Islamic architecture and the translocation of historic works of art

Claude Jutra Jim Leach, 1999 Claude Jutra best known as the director of Mon oncle Antoine has been widely acclaimed as one of Canada's premier filmmakers Despite this there has been surprisingly little critical writing about his work and the context in which it was created and viewed Jutra was a Quebec nationalist and both he and his films were shaped by the changes in Quebec society during the Quiet Revolution and by the political tensions of the sixties and seventies Though he died in 1986 his films still have much to tell us about Canadian cinema and the ongoing debates on Canadian and Quebec nationhood Book jacket
