Coetzee and the Archive* Marc Farrant, Kai Easton, Hermann Wittenberg, 2021-03-25 Making extensive use of the rich archival material contained within the Coetzee collections in Texas and South Africa from the earliest drafts and notebooks to the research notes and digital records that document his later career as both writer and academic this volume investigates the historical cultural and aesthetic contexts of Coetzee s oeuvre Cutting edge and interdisciplinary in approach the book looks both at the prolific archival traces of Coetzee s early and middle work as well as examines his more recent work which has yet to be archived and a wide range of materials beyond the manuscripts including family albums school notebooks and correspondence Navigating Coetzee s interests in areas as diverse as literature photography autobiography philosophy animals and embodied life this is also an exploration of the archive as both theory and practice It raises questions about the tensions contradictions and discoveries of archival research and suggests that a literary engagement with the past is crucial to a recovery of culture in the present      The Bloomsbury Handbook to J. M. Coetzee Lucy Valerie Graham, Andrew van der Vlies, 2023-08-24 J M Coetzee novelist essayist public intellectual and Nobel Laureate in Literature 2003 is widely recognized as one of the towering literary figures of the last half century With chapters written by leading and emerging scholars from across the world The Bloomsbury Handbook to J M Coetzee offers the most comprehensive available exploration of the variety range and significance of his work The volume covers a wealth of topics including The full span of Coetzee s work from his poetry to his essays and major fiction including Waiting for the Barbarians Disgrace and the Jesus novels Biographical details and archival approaches Coetzee s sources and influences including engagements with Modernism South African Australian Russian and Latin American literatures Interdisciplinary perspectives including on visual cultures music philosophy computational systems and translation The Bloomsbury Handbook to J M Coetzee provides indispensable scholarly perspectives covers emerging debates and maps the future direction of Coetzee studies      Discrepant Solace David James, 2019 Consolation has always played an uncomfortable part in the literary history of loss But in recent decades its affective meanings and ethical implications have been recast by narratives that appear at first sight to foil solace altogether Illuminating this striking archive Discrepant Solace considers writers who engage with consolation not as an aesthetic salve but as an enduring problematic one that unravels at the centre of emotionally challenging works of late twentieth and twenty first century fiction and life writing The book understands solace as a generative yet conflicted aspect of style where microelements of diction rhythm and syntax capture consolation s alternating desirability and contestation With a wide angle lens on the contemporary scene David James examines writers who are rarely considered in conversation including Sonali

Deraniyagala Colson Whitehead Cormac McCarthy W G Sebald Doris Lessing Joan Didion J M Coetzee Marilynne Robinson Julian Barnes Helen Macdonald Ian McEwan Colm Toibin Kazuo Ishiguro Denise Riley and David Grossman These figures overturn critical suppositions about consolation s kinship with ideological complaisance superficial mitigation or dubious distraction producing unsettling perceptions of solace that shape the formal and political contours of their writing Through intimate readings of novels and memoirs that explore seemingly indescribable experiences of grief trauma remorse and dread James demonstrates how they turn consolation into a condition of expressional possibility without ever promising us relief He also supplies vital traction to current conversations about the stakes of thinking with contemporary writing to scrutinize affirmative structures of feeling revealing unexpected common ground between the operations of literary consolation and the urgencies of cultural critique Discrepant Solace makes the close reading of emotion crucial to understanding the work literature does in our precarious present J.M. Coetzee and Neoliberal Culture Andrew Gibson,2022-08-11 This book presents J M Coetzee s work as a complex nuanced counterblast to contemporary global neoliberal economics and its societies Not surprisingly given his many years in South Africa and Australia Coetzee writes from a global Southern perspective Drawing on a wealth of literature philosophy and theory the book reads Coetzee s writings as a discreet oblique but devastating engagement with neoliberal presumptions It identifies and focuses on various key features of neoliberal culture its obsession with self enrichment mastery growth its belief in plenitude endless resources its hubris and obsession with self promotion its desire for ease and easiness well being euphoria its fetishization of managerial reason and the culture of security its unrelenting positivity its belief in illusory goods and trivial progressivisms By contrast Coetzee s writings explore the virtues of irony and self reduction He commits himself to difficulty discomfort patient and austere if bleak inquiry rigorous questioning and radical doubt Destitution and failure come to look like a serious dignified form of life and thought The very tones of Coetzee s books run counter to those of our neoliberal democracies They point in a different direction to an age that has gone astray Universal Localities Galin Tihanov,2022-07-02 The volume features the work of leading scholars from the US UK Germany China Spain and Russia and presents an important contribution to current debates on world literature The contributions discuss various facets of the historically changing role and status of language in the construction of notions of universality and locality of difference foreignness and openness they explore the relationship between world literature and bilingualism supranational languages dialects and linguistic inbetweenness They also examine the larger social and political stakes behind both foundational and more recent attempts to articulate ideas of world literature Mapping the space between philology anthropology and ecohumanities the essays in this volume approach world literature with sophisticated methodological toolkits and open up new opportunities for engaging with this important discursive framework Creaturely Forms in Contemporary Literature Dominic O'Key,2022-01-13 We are living through a period of planetary crisis a time in which the mass production and consumption of some animals is made possible by the mass extinction of many others What is the role of literature in responding to this war against animals How might literary criticism read for animals In Creaturely Forms in Contemporary Literature Dominic O Key develops the bold argument that deep attention to literary form enables us to rethink human animal relations Through chapters on W G Sebald J M Coetzee and Mahasweta Devi as well as close readings of works by Arundhati Roy and Richard Powers O Key reveals how literary forms can unsettle the fictions of human supremacy and craft alternative creaturely forms of relation An intervention into both the humanism of literary theory and the representational focus of animal studies this provocative work makes the case for a new formalism in light of our obligation to fellow creatures

Metafiction and the Postwar Novel

Andrew Dean,2021-04-01 Metafiction and the Postwar Novel is a full length reassessment of one of the definitive literary forms of the postwar period sometimes known as postmodern metafiction In the place of large scale theorizing this book centres on the intimacies of writing situations metafiction as it responds to readers literary reception and earlier works in a career The emergence of archival materials and posthumously published works helps to bring into view the stakes of different moments of writing It develops new terms for discussing literary self reflexivity derived from a reading of Don Quixote and its reception by J L Borges the self of writing and the public author as signature Across three comprehensive chapters Metafiction and Postwar Fiction shows how some of the most highly regarded postwar writers were motivated to incorporate reflexive elements into their writing and to what ends The first chapter on South African novelist J M Coetzee shows with a new clarity how his fictions drew from and relativized academic literary theory and the conditions of writing in apartheid South Africa The second chapter on New Zealand writer Janet Frame draws widely from her fictions autobiographies and posthumously published materials It demonstrates the terms in which her writing addresses a readership seemingly convinced that her work expressed the interior experience of madness The final chapter on American writer Philip Roth shows how his early reception led to his later and often explosive reconsiderations of identity and literary value in postwar America

Literary Cynics

Arthur Rose,2017-04-06 Focusing on work by Jorge Luis Borges Samuel Beckett and J M Coetzee Literary Cynics explores the relationship between literature and cynicism to consider what happens when authors write themselves into their art against the rhetoric of authority Rose takes as his starting point three moments of aesthetic crisis in the careers of these literary cynics Borges s parables of the 1950s Beckett s plays of the 1980s and Coetzee s pedagogic novels of the 2000s In their transition to late style the works reflect their writers abiding concern with particular conceptions of rhetoric and aesthetic form Literary Cynics combines accounts of these late works with classic lesser known and archival texts by the three writers from Coetzee s Disgrace to Beckett s letters as well as detailed analysis of cynicism both ancient and modern as a philosophical and political movement

Reading Coetzee's Women Sue Kossew,Melinda

Harvey,2019-07-24 This is the first book to focus entirely on the under researched but crucial topic of women in the work of J M Coetzee generally regarded as one of the world s most significant living writers The fourteen essays in this collection raise the central issue of how Coetzee's texts address the woman question. There is a focus on Coetzee's representation of women, engagement with women writers, and the ethics of what has been termed his ventriloquism of women's voices in his fiction and autobiographical writings right up to his most recent novel The Schooldays of Jesus. As such, this collection makes important links between the disciplines of literary and gender studies. It includes essays by well-known Coetzee scholars as well as by emerging scholars from around the world, providing fascinating and timely global insights into how his works are read from differing cultural and scholarly perspectives.

Modernist Crisis and the Pedagogy of Form Matthew Cheney, 2020-01-23. What is the role of the author in times of crisis? Modernist Crisis and the Pedagogy of Form examines how Virginia Woolf, Samuel R. Delany, and J. M. Coetzee developed literary strategies in common to cope with crisis periods they were anticipating, living through, or looking back on. Matthew Cheney outlines how the three writers shaped their art to create an author-audience relationship congruent with the goals of critical pedagogy espoused by such thinkers as Paulo Freire and bell hooks. Seeking to stimulate ethical thought, Woolf, Delany, and Coetzee required their readers to be active interpreters of their texts, forms, contents, and contexts. By pushing against fiction's fictionality, these writers of very different backgrounds, geographies, privileges, situations, tastes, and styles discovered complex ways to address the world wars in England, the AIDS crisis in New York, and apartheid in South Africa, going so far as to question the value of fiction itself.

In the Middle of Nowhere Jonathan Crewe, 2015-12-01. Relying on the author's personal recollections as well as on J. M. Coetzee's autobiographical and fictional works, this book deals with Coetzee's formation as a writer of international prominence whose life and writing career began in South Africa. Drawing on Coetzee's South African writings from Dusklands through Disgrace, the book considers Coetzee's initial positioning in provincial South African political and literary culture, as well as his drastic reframing of South African letters and his breakout into a global career culminating in the award of the Nobel Prize in 2003. The book considers Coetzee almost exclusively in relation to the South Africa from which he emigrated in 1999, but also emphasizes his momentous revision and undoing of the marginalized genre of South African Literature in the service of global authorship. Written in the conviction that Coetzee's South African works remain his most impassioned and momentous ones, this book seeks to come to terms with their conditions of possibility and distinctive achievement.

Present Imperfect Andrew Van der Vlies, 2017. This book asks how a selection of South African writers have responded to the period since the end of apartheid.

Post-imperial Literature Vladimir Biti, 2021-11-08. This book proposes a new departure point for the investigation of transnational literary alliances: the traumatic constellation of translatio imperii which followed the dissolution of the East-Central European empires in the 1920s and the crumbling of the West-European colonial empires in the 1950s. To prevent their breakdown, the former transitioned from a sovereign to a disciplinary mode of administration of their peripheries; the latter from the merciless assimilation of their colonial constituencies to their affirmative regeneration. This book treats Franz Kafka as the writer of the first transition, prefiguring J. M. Coetzee as the writer of the second. In a series of close readings it investigates the particular ways in which the restructuring of power relations between the agencies in their fictions is a response to the delineated post imperial reconfiguration of the new countries governmental techniques By displacing their narrative authority beyond the reach of their readers they laid bare the sudden withdrawal of transcendental guarantees from the world of human commonality This entailed an unstable and elusive configuration of their fictional worlds as a key feature of post imperial literature

Mobility and Corporeality in Nineteenth- to Twenty-First-Century Anglophone Literature Jaine Chemmachery, Bhawana Jain, 2021-05-19 Mobility and Corporeality in 19th and 21st Century

Anglophone Literature Bodies in Motion aims at exploring the intersection of literary mobility and body studies in Anglophone literature from the 19th century to the 21st century Corporeal mobility includes a variety of mobile bodies that have long been othered and marginalised due to issues pertaining to gender disability race and class Yet there is a relative lack of academic work on it despite the fact that Anglophone literature has increasingly portrayed the circulation of characters objects and information since the 19th century echoing the many types of mobility that have occurred through processes of colonisation decolonisation and globalisation This book therefore discusses the ways in which literatures produced in the English speaking world challenge normative depictions of bodies on the move and reconceptualise them by making corporeality an essential feature of movement across the world

From Shakespeare to Autofiction Martin Procházka ,2024-04-23 From Shakespeare to Autofiction focuses on salient features of authorship throughout modernity ranging from transformations of oral tradition and the roles of empirical authors through collaborative authorship and authorship as cultural capital to the shifting roles of authors in recent autofiction and biofiction In response to Roland Barthes removal of the Author and its substitution by Michel Foucault s author function different historical forms of modern authorship are approached as multiplicities integrated by agency performativity and intensity in the theories of Pierre Bourdieu Wolfgang Iser Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari The book also reassesses recent debates of authorship in European and Latin American literatures It demonstrates that the outcomes of these debates need wider theoretical and methodological reflection that takes into account the historical development of authorship and changing understandings of fiction performativity and new media Individual chapters trace significant moments in the history of authorship from the early modernity to the present from Shakespeare s First Folio to Latin American experimental autofiction and discuss the methodologies reinstating the author and authorship as the irreducible aspects of literary process Praise for From Shakespeare to Autofiction In this collection a multicultural group of literary scholars analyse a rich array of authorship types and models across four centuries After decades of liquid poststructuralist concepts it is refreshing and inspiring to think through such diversity of authorship strategies from oral culture through sociological constructs to self referential and autobiographical ontological games that writers play with us their readers Pavel Dr bek University of Hull Literary Connections Between South Africa and the Lusophone World Ludmylla Lima, John T. Maddox IV, Anita De Melo, 2022-10-12

Literary Connections between South Africa and the Lusophone World connects literatures and cultures of South Africa and the Portuguese speaking nations of Africa and beyond and is set within literary and cultural studies The chapters gathered in this volume reinforce the critical and ongoing conversations in comparative and world literature from perspectives of the South It outlines some possible theoretical and methodological starting points for a comparative framework that targets transnationally literatures from the South This volume is an additional step to renew the critical potentialities of comparative literary studies Spivak 2009 as well as of humanistic criticism itself Said 2004 as South Africa and the Lusophone world except its former colonizer Portugal are outside the spatial and cultural dimension usually defined as European and or North American In this sense and due to the evident geographical and socio historical links between these regions critical scholarship on their literary connections can contribute to unprecedented perspectives of representational practices within a broader contextual dimension and in so doing provides the emergence of what Boaventura de Sousa Santos called epistemologies of the South Santos 2016 as it considers cultural exchanges in the space of so called overlapping territories and intertwined histories Said 1993

Troubling Late Modernism Doug Battersby, 2022-09-29 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries modernist writers developed new techniques for depicting characters thoughts feelings and desires that revolutionized the novel form a revolution novelists and critics are still reckoning with today Troubling Late Modernism tracks how those techniques have been perversely reinvented by some of the most influential and innovative writers of the postwar period Chapters on Vladimir Nabokov Samuel Beckett Toni Morrison John Banville J M Coetzee and Eimear McBride reveal how these writers at once exploit and extend modernist forms of narration to cultivate disquieting affective attachments to protagonists compelled by violent or exploitative sexual desires By interrogating the expressive power and ethical liabilities of modes of writing that give us intimate access to characters inner lives late modernism poses fundamental philosophical questions about emotion and its inseparability from knowledge and ethical deliberation Whilst other historians of the novel have characterized late modernism s formal innovations as ethically and politically edifying Troubling Late Modernism highlights their more disquieting potential for lending sympathy and profundity to sentiments deemed inadmissible in our everyday lives Charting late modernism s characteristic fusion of aesthetic difficulty with emotional and ethical provocation demands an approach attuned to the experience of reading these disturbingly erotic narratives In dialogue with recent debates about critical method Troubling Late Modernism presents a new way of closely reading prose fiction that brings together the lessons of formalism and affect theory

Beyond the Ancient Quarrel Patrick Hayes, Jan Wilm, 2017-12-08 In Plato s Republic Socrates spoke of an ancient quarrel between literature and philosophy which he offered to resolve once and for all by banning the poets from his ideal city Few philosophers have taken Socrates at his word and out of the ancient quarrel there has emerged a long tradition that has sought to value literature chiefly as a useful supplement to philosophical reasoning The fiction of J M Coetzee makes a striking challenge to this tradition While his writing has frequently engaged philosophical subjects in explicit ways it has done so with an emphasis on the dissonance between literary expression and philosophical reasoning And while Coetzee has often overtly engaged with academic literary theory his fiction has done so in a way that has tended to disorient rather than affirm those same theories wrong footing the normal processes of literary interpretation This volume brings together philosophers and literary theorists to reflect upon the challenge Coetzee has made to their respective disciplines and to the disciplinary distinctions at stake in the ancient quarrel The essays use his fiction to explore questions about the boundaries between literature philosophy and literary criticism the relationship between literature theology and post secularism the particular ways in which literature engages reality how literature interacts with the philosophies of language action subjectivity and ethics and the institutions that govern the distinctions between literature and philosophy It will be of importance not only to readers of Coetzee but to anyone interested in the ancient quarrel itself
