Review Supplement ,1975 Woman of a Thousand Secrets Barbara Wood,2024-06-04 The Bestselling Author of The Blessing Stone and Daughter of the Sun She came to them from the sea and to the sea they returned her A story of sacrifice and survival in the New World Tonina lives an idyllic life on a small island in the Caribbean hundreds of years before Europeans discovered it But she has always been an outsider among her people Unlike them Tonina is tall and lean and light skinned and her origins remain a mystery Her adoptive parents had found her floating in a basket in the sea a sacrifice A shipwreck No one knows When Tonina turns nineteen her parents know she must return to the sea so that the gods don't become angry with the village for keeping something that is not theirs Under the guise of finding a medicinal plant they send Tonina to the mainland a terrifying place she can't even imagine They know however that they will never see her again And here is where her adventure begins It is a tale of survival and sacrifice of luck magic intrigue and danger romance and betrayal an epic filled with ancient lore tales of bearded white men who sailed to this shore in giant ships and discoveries of medicinal miracles in faraway places But most of all it's the story of one woman's quest to discover where and to whom she really belongs This sweeping story of the undiscovered world before the time of Columbus is Barbara Wood at her very best

Treasures of the Earth Saleem H. Ali,2009-01-01 Would the world be a better place if human societies were somehow able to curb their desires for material goods Saleem Ali's pioneering book links human wants and needs by providing a natural history of consumption and materialism with scientific detail and humanistic nuance It argues that simply disavowing consumption of materials is not likely to help in planning for a resource scarce future given global inequality development imperatives and our goals for a democratic global society Rather than suppress the creativity and desire to discover that is often embedded in the exploration and production of material goods which he calls the treasure impulse Ali proposes a new environmental paradigm one that accepts our need to consume treasure for cultural and developmental reasons but warns of our concomitant need to conserve In evaluating the impact of treasure consumption on resource rich countries he argues that there is a way to consume responsibly and alleviate global poverty All She Dreads (A Jade Savage FBI Suspense
