Haunted Houses and Family Ghosts of Kentucky William Lynwood Montell, 2001-09-21 A Kentucky native and folk studies scholar presents a collection of haunting legends and stories of spirits from across the Bluegrass State William Lynwood Montell has spent years documenting Kentucky's rich legacy of ghostly visitations Many of the stories were collected from elders by younger generations and are recounted here exactly as they were gathered This volume introduces spirits such as the Tan Man of Pike County who trudges invisibly through a house accompanied by the smell of roses and the famed Gray Lady of Liberty Hall in Frankfort a houseguest who never left Montell tells the story of the ghost of Daniel Boone calling upon the statesman Henry Clay shortly before his death He also recounts the tale of ghouls that haunt the rehearsal house of the band The Kentucky Headhunters Readers will find accounts of haunted libraries mansions log cabins bathrooms furniture hotels and distilleries as well as reports of eerie visitations from passed on grandmothers husbands daughters uncles cousins babies slaves Civil War soldiers dogs sheep and even wildcats Almost every county in Kentucky is represented Though the book emphasizes the stories themselves Montell offers an introduction discussing how local history and local character are communicated across the generations in these colorful stories

Haunted E. Jay Gilbert, 2024-09-12 We all know the same ghosts it's simply a question of how doggedly they haunt us Part chilling tale part memoir part cultural exploration Haunted Ghost Stories and Their Afterlives takes us through some of the most chilling and enduring ghost stories and discusses what they reveal about the listener the teller and the times we live in E Jay Gilbert has been collecting tales of the supernatural from her local area a small village outside of Newcastle for years and what surprised her most is how universal those are not only in terms of recurring spectres that haunt us the world over I'm looking at you White Ladies but also how similar our experience of ghost telling is wherever we grew up The result is a book which explores more widely the ghosts of the British Isles and how they have endured and changed through the ages how they reflect the communities in which they originate and how they are similar to and different from similar stories from across the world Haunted doesn't just thrill with the tales of the inexplicable but also asks why are we so fascinated by ghost stories and what do they tell us about the community and people who cultivate them Why are some tropes universal while others are very much unique to the place they haunt Do we actually care about the identity of the ghost Or are we more concerned about how the alleged sighting made us feel Aimed at both believers and sceptics it's not only for those who are looking to be frightened a little but also for those interested in the psychology and history of the long tradition of supernatural storytelling Absolutely irresistible a fascinating account of the stories we tell ourselves and the ghosts we keep close

The Comforts of Home Ralph Bergengren, 2022-09-16 Ralph Bergengren's The Comforts of Home is a poignant exploration of the intricate emotions tied to domestic life deftly weaving personal anecdotes with broader societal reflections

Bergengren employs a lyrical yet conversational prose style inviting readers into intimate vignettes that reveal the profound significance of home as a sanctuary a source of nostalgia and a catalyst for self discovery The book situates itself firmly within the early 20th century literary context echoing themes present in contemporaneous works that ponder the human experience such as those by Virginia Woolf and Henry James while distinctly carving out its own perspective on comfort and belonging Bergengren an American author known for his insightful observations of everyday life draws upon his experiences as a writer and social commentator to craft this reflective narrative His keen understanding of the human psyche and the cultural zeitgeist of his era informs the richness of his prose By juxtaposing his personal reflections with universal truths Bergengren creates a relatable yet profound understanding of the varying meanings of home throughout life s transitions For readers seeking a deep dive into the emotional landscapes of home and identity The Comforts of Home is an essential read It offers a nuanced understanding of what it means to find solace in familiar spaces making it a timeless exploration of the human condition that resonates across generations

Haunted Houses Peter Underwood, 1994 The eerie quiet and disorientating darkness of the night have long been associated with the terror of the unknown In the cold light of day it is all too easy for sceptics to dismiss apparently inexplicable events but in the dead of night when faced with the evidence of their senses and those of other perfectly rational people it is far more difficult to ignore the facts however disturbing they may be Peter Underwood is Britain's leading ghost hunter For over thirty years in his position as President and Chief Investigator of the Ghost Club of Great Britain he was actively involved in undertaking night vigils and carrying out research into ghosts and paranormal activity in controlled scientific conditions In this unique volume of largely unpublished accounts of nocturnal investigations he guides son a chilling tour of the most haunted houses in Great Britain Among others we encounter the headless Blue Lady and disturbing inexplicable odour of lavender of Bovey House in Devon the happy spirits monk of Bromfield Manor Shropshire who chuckles with delight when noticed and the strange disembodied voices footsteps and unnatural coldness of Newark Park Gloucestershire In Nights in Haunted Houses Peter Underwood vividly records terrifying accounts of ghostly encounters in locations as diverse as a farmhouse a church a castle and a council house and builds a convincing catalogue of evidence for the existence of ghosts
