Houses Of Sand Memories Of Saudi Arabia:

Houses built on sand Simon Mabon, 2020-02-28 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The events of the Arab Uprisings posed an existential challenge to sovereign power across the Middle East Whilst popular movements resulted in the toppling of authoritarian rule in Tunisia Egypt and Yemen other regimes were able to withstand these pressures This book questions why some regimes fell whilst others were able to survive Drawing on the work of political theorists such as Agamben and Arendt Mabon explores the ways in which sovereign power is contested resulting in the fragmentation of political projects across the region Combining an innovative theoretical approach with interviews with people across the region and beyond Mabon paints a picture of Middle Eastern politics dominated by elites seeking to maintain power and wealth seemingly at whatever cost This for Mabon is a consequence of the emergence and development of particular visions of political projects that harness or marginalise identities communities ideologies and faiths as mechanisms designed to ensure their survival This book is essential reading for those interested in understanding why the uprisings took place their geopolitical consequences and why they are likely to happen again

Houses of Sand Judy MacDonnell, 2011 Judy MacDonnell spent six and a half years in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia during the 1990 s In this book she recounts her experiences working as a Physical Therapist in a medical facility for the largest oil company in the world Prepare to walk down the dusty streets of Al Khobar Hold your breath as Judy is kidnapped on her first shopping trip in Dammam chuckle at the confusion created using the English language and be amazed at the thrilling story of Abdul Aziz the first King Back cover Rituals of Memory in Contemporary Arab Women's Writing Brinda Mehta, 2007-04-26 This volume carefully assesses fixed notions of Arab womanhood by exploring the complexities of Arab women's lives as portrayed in literature Encompassing women writers and critics from Arab French and English traditions it forges a transnational Arab feminist consciousness Brinda Mehta examines the significance of memory rituals in women's writings such as the importance of water and purification rites in Islam and how these play out in the women's space of the hammam Turkish bath Mehta shows how sensory experiences connect Arab women to their past Specific chapters raise awareness of the experiences of Palestinian women in exile and under occupation Bedouin and desert rituals and women's views on conflict in Iraq and Lebanon and the compatibility between Islam and feminism At once provocative and enlightening this work is a groundbreaking addition to the timely field of modern Arab women's writing and criticism and Arab literary studies

On History and Memory in Arab Literature and Western Poetics

Bootheina Majoul, Yosra Amraoui, 2020-10-06 Texts act like receptacles for an ever-present remembered past or what the French philosopher Paul Ricœur calls the present representation of an absent thing They might embody an efficient remedy to forgetting but could also become a vivid testimony for exorcised traumas This volume focuses on Ricœur's phenomenology of memory epistemology of history and hermeneutics of forgetting A special emphasis is laid on the dissension between individual and collective institutional memory The Fall of the House of Wilde Emer O'Sullivan, 2016-10-04 The first biography of Oscar Wilde that places him within the context of his family and social and historical milieu a compelling volume that finally tells the whole story It's widely known that Oscar Wilde was precociously intellectual flamboyant and hedonistic but lesser so that he owed these characteristics to his parents Oscar's mother Lady Jane Wilde rose to prominence as a political journalist advocating a rebellion against colonialism in 1848 Proud involved and challenging she opened a salon and was known as the most scintillating hostess of her day She passed on her infectious delight in the art of living to Oscar who drank it in greedily His father Sir William Wilde was acutely conscious of injustices of the social order He laid the foundations for the Celtic cultural renaissance in the belief that culture would establish a common ground between the privileged and the poor Protestant and Catholic But Sir William was also a philanderer and when he stood accused of sexually assaulting a young female patient the scandal and trial sent shockwaves through Dublin society After his death the Wildes decamped to London where Oscar burst irrepressibly upon the scene The one role that didn't suit him was that of Victorian husband as his wife Constance was to discover For beneath his swelling head was a self-destructive itch a lifelong devourer of attention Oscar was unable to recognize when the party was over Ultimately his trial for indecency heralded the death of decadence and his own In a major repositioning of our first modern celebrity The Fall of the House of Wilde identifies Oscar Wilde as a member of one of the most dazzling Irish American families of Victorian times and places him in the broader social political and religious context It is a fresh and perceptive account of one of the most prominent characters of the late nineteenth century Memory, Voice, and Identity Feroza Jussawalla, Doaa Omran, 2021-03-31 Muslim women have been stereotyped by Western academia as oppressed and voiceless This volume problematizes this Western academic representation Muslim Women Writers from the Middle East from Out al Kouloub al Dimerdashiyyah 1899 1968 and Latifa al Zayat 1923 1996 from Egypt to current diasporic writers such as Tamara Chalabi from Iraq Mohja Kahf from Syria and even trendy writers such as Alexandra Chreiteh challenge the received notion of Middle Eastern women as subjugated and secluded The younger largely Muslim women scholars collected in this book present cutting edge theoretical perspectives on these Muslim women writers This book includes essays from the conflict ridden countries such as Iran Iraq Palestine Syria and the resultant diaspora The strengths of Muslim women writers are captured by the scholars included herein The approach is feminist post colonial and disruptive of Western stereotypical academic tropes Contemporary Arab-American Literature Carol Fadda-Conrey, 2014-05-30 The last couple of decades have witnessed a flourishing of Arab American literature across multiple genres Yet increased interest in this literature is ironically paralleled by a prevalent bias against Arabs and Muslims that portrays their long presence in the US as a recent and unwelcome phenomenon Spanning the 1990s to the present Carol Fadda Conrey takes in the sweep of literary and cultural texts by Arab American writers in order to understand the ways in which their depictions of Arab homelands whether actual or imagined play a crucial role in shaping cultural articulations of US citizenship and belonging By asserting themselves within a US framework while maintaining connections to their homelands Arab Americans contest the blanket representations of themselves as dictated by the US nation state Deploying a multidisciplinary framework at the intersection of Middle Eastern studies US ethnic studies and diaspora studies Fadda Conrey argues for a transnational discourse that overturns the often rigid affiliations embedded in ethnic labels Tracing the shifts in transnational perspectives from the founders of Arab American literature like Gibran Kahlil Gibran and Ameen Rihani to modern writers such as Naomi Shihab Nye Joseph Geha Randa Jarrar and Suheir Hammad Fadda Conrey finds that contemporary Arab American writers depict strong yet complex attachments to the US landscape She explores how the idea of home is negotiated between immigrant parents and subsequent generations alongside analyses of texts that work toward fostering more nuanced understandings of Arab and Muslim identities in the wake of post 9 11 anti Arab sentiments The Ladies' Home Journal , 1897 Counterterrorism in Saudi Arabia Rachael M. Rudolph, 2017-11-17 As jihadist extremism and its manifestation as Al Qaeda began to spread even in the years before 9 11 Saudi Arabia became a principal target Jihadists identified the country as the first state against which they could mount a concerted effort to destabilise undermine and subvert the authority of its central government and its ruling elites This prompted the Saudis to take defensive initiatives which were to become widely recognised as an effective way to deal with extremism The key element of the Saudi approach was to lace their hard confrontation of the extremists with subtle soft mechanisms to undermine the will of actual and potential terrorists The efforts ranged from interdiction of funding terrorist groups to the deployment of social and psychological pressures aimed at steering extremists away from their cause This included welfare inducements whereby perpetrators were persuaded by material benefits state support to families and individuals housing allowances educational opportunities to abandon their political goals in favour of a return to family and society This book charts the course of the Saudi terrorist rehabilitation programme and makes vital reading for all who either directly or indirectly have an interest in following the emergence of international terrorism Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine ,1881 Includes music Al-Ayyam Al-jamilah Arabian American Oil Company,1962 Wood's Bible Animals John George Wood,1875 The End of Empire in the Gulf Tancred Bradshaw,2019-10-31 With the end of the British Raj in 1947 the Foreign Office replaced the Government of India as the department responsible for the Persian Gulf and would proceed to manage relations with the Trucial States now the United Arab Emirates UAE until British withdrawal in 1971 This work is a comprehensive history of British policy in the region during that period situated for the first time in its broad historical and political context Tancred Bradshaw an academic historian with extensive experience in the region sheds light onto the discovery of oil in Abu Dhabi in the 1950s Foreign Office attempts to instigate a long term development policy in the region the slow end of the British Empire the origins of the UAE and most importantly the British legacy in this geopolitically crucial region today The book relies on 40 000 pages of archival material much of it previously unused and will be of interest to Imperial historians as well as anyone working on the history and politics of the Middle East and the Persian Gulf Proceedings of the American Association for the Advancement of Science American Association for the Advancement of Science,1891 Canadian Journal of Science, Literature, and History ,1854 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1993 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Doctor Mary in Arabia Mary Bruins Allison,2010-06-04 Until fairly recently Arab women rarely received professional health care since few women doctors had ever practiced in Arabia and their culture forbade them from consulting male doctors Not surprisingly Dr Mary Bruins Allison faced an overwhelming demand when she arrived in Kuwait in 1934 as a medical missionary of the Reformed Church of America Over the next forty years Dr Mary treated thousands of women and children faithfully performing the duties that seemed required of her as a Christian to heal the sick and seek converts These memoirs record a fascinating life Dr Allison briefly describes her upbringing and her professional training at Women s Medical College of Pennsylvania She then focuses on her experiences in Kuwait where women of all classes including royalty flocked to her care In addition to describing many of her cases Dr Allison paints a richly detailed picture of life in Kuwait both before and after the discovery of oil transformed the country Her recollections include invaluable details of women's lives in the Middle East during the early and mid twentieth century. They add a valuable chapter to the story of modern medicine to the largely unsuccessful efforts of the Christian church to win converts in the Middle East and to the opportunities and limitations that faced American women of the period. Dr Allison also worked briefly in Bahrain, Qatar, Oman, and India, and she includes material on each country. The introduction situates her experiences in the context of Middle Eastern and medical developments of the period.
