How Literature Saved My Life:

How Literature Saved My Life David Shields, 2013-02-05 Reading How Literature Saved My Life is like getting to listen in on a really great smart provocative conversation. The book is not straightforward it resists any single interpretation and it seems to me to constitute nothing less than a new form Whitney Otto In this wonderfully intelligent stunningly honest painfully funny book acclaimed writer David Shields uses himself as a representative for all readers and writers who seek to find salvation in literature Blending confessional criticism and anthropological autobiography Shields explores the power of literature from Blaise Pascal s Pens es to Maggie Nelson s Bluets Renata Adler s Speedboat to Proust s Remembrance of Things Past to make life survivable maybe even endurable Shields evokes his deeply divided personality his ridiculous ambivalence his character flaws his woes his serious despairs Books are his life raft but when they come to feel un lifelike and archaic he revels in a new kind of art that is based heavily on quotation and consciousness And he shares with us a final irony he wants literature to assuage human loneliness but nothing can assuage human loneliness Literature doesn t lie about this which is what makes it essential A captivating thought provoking utterly original way of thinking about the essential acts of reading and writing Collage in Twenty-First-Century Literature in English Wojciech Drag, 2019-11-12 Collage in Twenty First Century Literature in English Art of Crisis considers the phenomenon of the continued relevance of collage a form established over a hundred years ago to contemporary literature It argues that collage is a perfect artistic vehicle to represent the crisis ridden reality of the twenty first century Being a mixture of fragmentary incompatible voices collage embodies the chaos of the media dominated world Examining the artistic sociopolitical and personal crises addressed in contemporary collage literature the book argues that the 21st Century has brought a revival of collage like novels and essays

I Think You're Totally Wrong David Shields, Caleb Powell, 2015-09-01 Caleb Powell always wanted to become an artist but he overcommitted to life his former professor David Shields always wanted to become a human being but he overcommitted to art The stay at home dad three young girls and the workaholic writer eighteen books head to the woods to spend four days together in a cabin arguing life vs art I Think You re Totally Wrong is an impassioned funny probing fiercely inconclusive nearly to the death debate Shields and Powell talk about everything marriage family sports sex happiness drugs death betrayal and of course writers and writing in the name of exploring and debating their central question the lived life versus the examined life There are no teachers or students here no interviewers or interviewees no masters of the universe only a chasm of uncertainty in a dialogue that remains dazzlingly provocative and entertaining from start to finish James Franco s film adaptation of I Think You re Totally Wrong starring the authors premiered in 2015 Literature and Transformation Thor Magnus Tangerås, 2020-02-19 This book develops a method called intimate reading to investigate how ordinary readers are deeply moved by what they read and the transformative impact such experiences have on their sense of self The book presents unique narratives of such experiences and suggests a theory of transformative affective patterns that may form the basis of an affective literary theory Life Is Short? Art Is Shorter David Shields, Elizabeth Cooperman, 2015-04-20 Life Is Short Art Is Shorter is not just the first anthology to gather both mini essays and short short stories readers writers and teachers will get will get an anthology a course s worth of writing exercises a rally for compression concision and velocity in an increasingly digital post religious age and a meditation on the brevity of human existence 1 We are mortal beings 2 There is no god 3 We live in a digital culture 4 Art is related to the body and to the culture 5 Art should reflect these things 6 Brevity rules The book s 40 contributors include Donald Barthelme Kate Chopin Lydia Davis Annie Dillard Jonathan Safran Foer Barry Hannah Amy Hempel Jamaica Kincaid Wayne Koestenbaum Anne Lamott Daphne Merkin Rick Moody Dinty W Moore George Orwell Jayne Anne Phillips George Saunders Lauren Slater James Tate and Paul Theroux The Book of (More) Delights Ross Gay, 2023-09-19 From bestselling author of The Book of Delights and award winning poet a book of lyrical mini essays celebrating the everyday that will inspire readers to rediscover the joys in the world around us In Ross Gay's new collection of small daily wonders again written over the course of a year one of America's most original voices continues his ongoing investigation of delight For Gay what delights us is what connects us what gives us meaning from the joy of hearing a nostalgic song blasting from a passing car to the pleasure of refusing the nefarious scannable QR code menus from the tiny dog he fell hard for to his mother baking a dozen kinds of cookies for her grandchildren As always Gay revels in the natural world sweet potatoes being harvested a hummingbird carousing in the beebalm a sunflower growing out of a wall around the cemetery the shared bounty from a neighbor s fig tree and the trillion mysterious ways this glorious earth delights us The Book of More Delights is a volume to savor and share Books Miro Roman, Alice ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science Evocative Autoethnography Arthur Bochner, Carolyn Ellis, 2016-03-21 This comprehensive text is the first to introduce evocative autoethnography as a methodology and a way of life in the human sciences Using numerous examples from their work and others world renowned scholars Arthur Bochner and Carolyn Ellis originators of the method emphasize how to connect intellectually and emotionally to the lives of readers throughout the challenging process of representing lived experiences Written as the story of a fictional workshop based on many similar sessions led by the authors it incorporates group discussions common questions and workshop handouts The book describes the history development and purposes of evocative storytelling provides detailed instruction on becoming a story writer and living a writing life examines fundamental ethical issues dilemmas and responsibilities illustrates ways

McKechnie, Paulette M. Rothbauer, 2018-03-01 Drawing on scholarly research findings this book presents a cogent case that librarians can use to work towards prioritization of reading in libraries and in schools Reading is more important than it has ever been recent research on reading such as PEW reports and Scholastic's Kids and Family Reading Report proves that fact This new edition of Reading Matters provides powerful evidence that can be used to justify the establishment maintenance and growth of pleasure reading collections both fiction and nonfiction and of readers advisory services The authors assert that reading should be woven into the majority of library activities reference collection building provision of leisure materials readers advisory services storytelling and story time programs adult literacy programs and more This edition also addresses emergent areas of interest such as e reading e writing and e publishing multiple literacies visual texts the ascendancy of young adult fiction and fan fiction A new chapter addresses special communities of YA readers The book will help library administrators and personnel convey the importance of reading to grant funding agencies stakeholders and the public at large LIS faculty who wish to establish and maintain courses in readers advisory will find it of particular interest Marthe's Search for Love Among Couples of Pine Trees. Hugo Van Bever, 2015-10-23 Mainly out of loneliness a messed up writer falls in love with Marthe his female main character and decides not to let her die as initially planned but to invite her into his life to help him write his next novel He also welcomes popular characters from other successful novels all experts in love In addition he summons Vivian a prostitute like Vivian from the movie Pretty Woman who is an expert in love for sale to spice up the story The characters and their writer embark on an erotic journey of sensuality sex and murder as the writer takes copious notes that turn into an unusual meta novel offering different vistas on life death murder and love The story ends in Vietnam at the lake of Dalat where according to an old legend pine trees formed intimate couples holding each other entwining their roots after a young couple committed suicide The legend renews itself at midnight the day the writer s group arrives Will they find love or will they seek death The Pleasures of Reading Catherine Sheldrick Ross, 2014-06-27 Based on years of ground breaking research this book supplies a look at the unique relationship between each text and the individual reader that results in a satisfying pleasurable and even life changing reading experience Following up on her critically acclaimed Reading Matters What the Research Reveals about Reading Libraries and Community Catherine Sheldrick Ross takes a new look at pleasure reading through 30 thought provoking essays based on themes arranged from A to Z In short lively chapters she discusses topics ranging from Alexia Bad Reading and Changing Lives to Romance Fiction Self help Titles Vampires and Year of Reading Drawing on her own research as well as other published sources Ross comments on the significance of each theme provides examples of the phenomenon and develops the topic chronologically through further examples or through reversals The essays are unified by an underlying theory of reading that views readers as sense makers actively engaged in reading themselves into the text and reading the texts back into their own lives It gives educators and librarians insights into their roles with readers and offers a message about the importance of pleasure reading A short list of resources for further reading is supplied with each topic The End of Diversity in Art Historical Writing James Elkins, 2020-12-07 The End of Diversity in Art Historical Writing is the most globally informed book on world art history drawing on research in 76 countries In addition some chapters have been crowd sourced posted on the internet for comments which have been incorporated into the text It covers the principal accounts of Eurocentrism center and margins circulations and atlases of art decolonial theory incommensurate cultures the origins and dissemination of the October model problems of access to resources models of multiple modernisms and the emergence of English as the de facto lingua franca of art writing The Story About the Story Vol. II David Foster Wallace, Zadie Smith, Margaret Atwood, Martin Amis, 2013-09-24 In the second volume of The Story about the Story editor J C Hallman continues to argue for an alternative to the staid five paragraph essay writing that has inoculated so many against the effects of good books Writers have long approached writing about reading from an intensely personal perspective Never before collected in a single volume these many essays demonstrate new possibilities for how to write about reading They offer lessons from a remarkable range of celebrated authors amounting to an invaluable course on how to both write and read Whether they discuss a staple of the canon Thomas Mann on Leo Tolstoy the merits of a contemporary Vivian Gornick on Grace Paley a pillar of genre writing Jane Tompkins on Louis L Amour or arguably the funniest man on the planet David Shields on Bill Murray these essays are by turns poignant smart suggestive intellectual humorous sassy scathing laudatory wistful and hopeful above all deeply engaged in a process of careful reading The essays in The Story about the Story Vol II dig deep into the past and aim toward a future where literature plays a profound role in how we think read live and write

The Rapids Sam Twyford-Moore, 2020-09-10 The Rapids is an exploration of manic depression also known as bipolar disorder With reflections on artists such as Carrie Fisher Kanye West Saul Bellow Paul Thomas Anderson and Spalding Gray Sam Twyford Moore takes readers on a literary and cultural tour of mania and what it means to live with a diagnosis of bipolarity in contemporary society He also looks at the condition in our digital world where someone s manic episode can unfold live in real time watched by millions His own story told unflinchingly is shocking and sometimes darkly comic It gives the book an edge that is not always comfortable but full of insight and empathy Smart lively and well researched The Rapids manages to be both a wild ride and introspective at once exploring a condition that touches thousands of people directly or The Phenomenology of Autobiography Arnaud Schmitt, 2017-05-08 Taking a fresh look at the state of indirectly autobiography as a genre The Phenomenology of Autobiography Making it Real takes a deep dive into the experience of the reader Dr Schmitt argues that current trends in the field of life writing have taken the focus away from the text and the initial purpose of autobiography as a means for the author to communicate with a reader and narrate an experience The study puts autobiography back into a communicational context and putting forth the notion that one of the reasons why life writing can so often be aesthetically unsatisfactory or difficult to distinguish from novels is because it should not be considered as a literary genre but as a modality with radically different rules and means of evaluation In other words not only is autobiography radically different from fiction due to its referentiality but first and foremost it should be read differently

White Bret Easton Ellis, 2019-04-16 White is Bret Easton Ellis's first work of nonfiction Already the bad boy of American literature from Less Than Zero to American Psycho Ellis has also earned the wrath of right thinking people everywhere with his provocations on social media and here he escalates his admonishment of received truths as expressed by today s version of the left Eschewing convention he embraces views that will make many in literary and media communities cringe as he takes aim at the relentless anti Trump fixation coastal elites corporate censorship Hollywood identity politics Generation Wuss woke cultural watchdogs the obfuscation of ideals once both cherished and clear and the fugue state of American democracy In a young century marked by hysterical correctness and obsessive fervency on both sides of an aisle that s taken on the scale of the Grand Canyon White is a clarion call for freedom of speech and artistic freedom The central tension in Ellis s art or his life for that matter is that while his aesthetic is the cool reserve of his native California detachment over ideology he can t stop generating heat He s hard wired to break furniture Karen Heller The Washington Post Sweating with rage humming with paranoia Anna Leszkiewicz The Guardian Snowflakes on both coasts in withdrawal from Rachel Maddow s nightly Kremlinology lesson can purchase a whole book to inspire paroxysms of rage a veritable thirst trap for the easily microaggressed It s all here Rants about Trump derangement syndrome MSNBC MeToo safe spaces Bari Weiss The New York Times Leipsic Edition of the Life and Letters of Lord Macaulay George Otto Trevelyan, 1877 Leipsic Edition of the Life and Letters of Lord Macaulay Sir George Otto Trevelyan (bart.),1884
