How to Argue with a Cat Jay Heinrichs, 2018-06-19. Learn how to persuade cats, the world's most skeptical and cautious negotiators, with this primer on rhetoric and argument from the New York Times bestselling author of Thank You for Arguing. Cats are skilled manipulators who can talk you into just about anything without a single word, or maybe a meow or two. They can get you to drop whatever you're doing and play with them. They can make you serve their dinner way ahead of schedule. They can get you to sit down in an instant to provide a lap. On the other hand, try getting a cat to do what you want. While it's hard, persuading a cat is possible. And after that, persuading humans becomes a breeze, and that is what you will learn in this book. How to Argue with a Cat will teach you how to hold an intelligent conversation, one of the few things easier to do with a cat than a human. Argue logically, even if your opponent is furry and irrational. Hack up a fallacy, the hairball of logic. Make your body do the talking. Cats are very good at this. Master decorum, the art of fitting in with cats, venture capitalists, or humans. Learn the wisdom of predator timing to pounce at the right moment. Get someone to do something or stop doing it. Earn any creature's respect and loyalty.

Networking Arguments Rebecca Dingo,2012-04-22 Networking Arguments presents an original study on the use and misuse of global institutional rhetoric and the effects of these practices on women particularly in developing countries Using a feminist lens Rebecca Dingo views the complex networks that rhetoric flows through globally and nationally and how it s often reconfigured to work both for and against women and to maintain existing power structures To see how rhetorics travel Dingo deconstructs the central terminology employed by global institutions mainstreaming fitness and empowerment and shows how their meanings shift depending on the contexts in which they re used She studies programs by the World Bank the United Nations and the United States among others to view the original policies then follows the trail of their diffusion and manipulation and the ultimate consequences for individuals To analyze transnational rhetorical processes Dingo builds a theoretical framework by employing concepts of transcoding ideological traffic and interarticulation to uncover the intricacies of power relationships at work within networks She also views transnational capitalism neoliberal economics and neocolonial ideologies as primary determinants of policy and arguments over women's roles in the global economy
