research and writings this book takes you on an epic journey through the history of Indian Parallel Cinema 1968 1995 India the late 1960s Something was in the air A film manifesto penned by passionate cinephiles called for a new cinema An exciting generation of iconoclastic filmmakers were on the march the first to graduate from the newly incarnated Film and Television Institute of India seizing the moment to forge one of the first major post colonial film movements What emerged was an unprecedented level of creativity merging international influences with experimental indigenous styles and creating an aesthetic and thematic rupture and that ultimately led to new ways of making films But it is a story that has rarely been told inextricably absent from the parochial Euro centric and linear histories of film This is the story of Indian Parallel Cinema From auteurs like Mani Kaul and John Abraham to Smita Patil and Om Puri The Revolution of Indian Parallel Cinema in the Global South explores the origins evolution demise and legacy of a film movement that produced a pantheon of innovative filmmakers in excess of two hundred films and a distinctly regional identity in which film societies state funding and political insurgency were catalysts for a defiant radical dialogue much of it anti establishment that broke all the rules Most importantly this publication considers the ways in which Parallel Cinema narrated a new history from below using a range of case studies that includes Uski Roti Mirch Masala and Amma Ariyan The Literary Criterion ,2004 Sati Kamale S U Paniyadi,2018-12-01 This eponymous novel is centred on Kamale who is an embodiment of wifely virtue For fifteen long years Kamale lives the life of a widow to the outside world nurturing the hopes of reuniting with the husband one day Alone in the room each night she wears her marks of a married woman with the dagger gifted by Umesha next to her It could be seen as an exposition on the then existing indigenous discourse in India in the 19th century and early 20th century Kamale in her rigorous commitment and in retrieving her husband from death is fashioned after Savithri in an intertextual reference to Mahabharata s episode of Satyavan and Savithri The novel might look conservative for the present day reader but it is a representative literary work of the time when Paniyadi among many others wanted to regain the independent status of the Tulu language which had somehow slipped out of its pedestal Sati Kamale is a novel which seeks to pit a self conscious nation against colonial attacks in the form of modern education and several reformist projects that educated Indians had taken a fancy for S U Paniyady a strong nationalist himself makes no secret as to where his sympathies lie The chief protagonist of the novel is a woman who fiercely upholds wifely virtues even when she lives in a limbo of doubt that her husband could have been martyred She spurns the demand for remarriage and insists on remaining steadfastly devoted to the memory of her husband which finally helps her to recover him in the rarefied realm of the Himalayas much in the same way the legendary Sati Savitri won back the life of Satyavan Creation of this modern mythology serves a nationalist purpose of upholding the moral that our inner strength can alone protect us from infections from outside THE INDIAN LISTENER All India Radio (AIR),New Delhi ,1947-06-07 The Indian Listener fortnightly programme journal of AIR in English published by The Indian State Broadcasting Service Bombay started on 22 December 1935 and was the successor to the Indian Radio Times in english which was published beginning in July 16 of 1927 From 22 August 1937 onwards it was published by All India Radio New Delhi In 1950 it was turned into a weekly journal Later The Indian listener became Akashvani in January 5 1958 It was made a fortnightly again on July 1 1983 It used to serve the listener as a bradshaw of broadcasting and give listener the useful
