

Example 31 is a longer minor II-V-I line. This time the II and V are one bar each. E harmonic minor is the primary scale used for the II and V chords to create the interesting and almost "classical" tension.

Track 30

Example 31

Example 31 is a 16th-note line. The first system is over an $F#m7b5$ chord. The second system is over an $Emin7$ chord. The notation includes a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 4/4 time signature. The bass line consists of two staves with fret numbers written below the notes.

Example 31 is a long 16th-note line that is a "bag of tricks" when it comes to chromatics. Played over $A7$ or $Emin7$, the line has a very jazz/bop feel to it. The line in its entirety, makes a good chop builder but probably is a bit long to use in a solo. But there are several useful shorter ideas that can be extracted.

Track 31

Example 32

Example 32 is a 16th-note line. The notation includes a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a 4/4 time signature. The bass line consists of two staves with fret numbers written below the notes.
