

“I have friends who are natives of the area and who have lived there all their lives. They also knew BA and his wife and were friendly with them. When I visited them toward the end of July, the topic of MM came up. What they had to say was “BA was afraid of the adult son of one of the town’s leading citizens.” My friends seemed to believe this fellow was somehow involved in MM’s disappearance. The only other identifying information they offered (and I didn’t probe) is that the fellow under discussion is the son or stepson of a woman attorney.”

The more I think about it, the more I lean toward this being who Conrad was implying they suspected, as opposed to RF.
