Hollywood Online Ian London,2024-03-07 Hollywood Online provides a historical account of motion picture websites from 1993 to 2008 and their marketing function as industrial advertisements for video and other media in the digital age The Blair Witch Project is the most important example of online film promotion in cinema history Over the last thirty years only a small number of major and independent distributors have converted internet created buzz into box office revenues with similar levels of success Yet readings of how the film's internet campaign broke new ground in the summer of 1999 tend to minimize overlook or ignore the significance of other online film promotions Similarly claims that Blair initiated a cycle of imitators have been repeated in film publications and academic studies for more than two decades This book challenges three major narratives in studies about online film marketing Hollywood's major studios and independents had no significant relationship to the internet in the 1990s online film promotions only took off after 1999 because of Blair and Hollywood cashed in by initiating a cycle of imitators and scaling up corporate activities online Hollywood Online tests these assumptions by exploring internet marketing up to and including the film's success online Pre Blair 1993-9 then by examining the period immediately after Blair Post Blair 2000-8 which broadly coincides with the rise and decline of DVD as well as the emergence of the social media sites MySpace Facebook and Twitter Books, Media and the Internet Shelley S. Peterson,Carol Jupiter,2009-10-09 As editors of Books Media and the Internet David Booth Carol Jupiter and Shelley S Peterson present the work of colleagues from the conference A Place for Children's Literature in the New Literacies

Classrooms April 2008 Within these pages teachers librarians and others concerned with literacy will find inspiration and strategies for melding technology and children s literature from practitioners who have found effective ways to engage young people with text both in print and on screen The contributors to this anthology include classroom teachers librarians university educators and journalists They speak not only to the technologically capable and media savvy teachers but also to the curious who seek starting points for using new technologies alongside traditional print media in their classrooms They show how multimedia and digital technologies expand our approaches to literacy education and how to extend and enrich our use of stories whatever the media with all ages Their articles cover a vast range of subjects arranged into 5 sections This book provides current information classroom examples and anecdotes as practical tools to help teachers use digital media and print texts to extend students learning The helpful Teaching Tools section at the end of the book explains how to use a variety of digital tools in the classroom

I Can Read It All by Myself Paul V. Allen,2021-05-28 In the late 1950s Ted Geisel took on the challenge of creating a book using only 250 unique first grade words something that aspiring readers would have both the ability and the desire to read The result was an unlikely children s classic The Cat in the Hat But Geisel didn t stop there Using The Cat in the Hat as a template he teamed with Helen Geisel and Phyllis Cerf to create Beginner Books a whole new category of readers that combined research based literacy practices with the logical insanity of Dr Seuss The books were an enormous success giving the world such authors and illustrators as P D Eastman Roy McKie and Stan and Jan Berenstain and beloved bestsellers such as Are You My Mother Go Dog Go Put Me in the Zoo and Green Eggs and Ham The story of Beginner Books and Ted Geisel s role as president policymaker and editor of the line for thirty years has been told briefly in various biographies of Dr Seuss but I Can Read It All by Myself The Beginner Books Story presents it in full detail for the first time Drawn from archival research and dozens of brand new interviews I Can Read It All by Myself explores the origins philosophies and operations of Beginner Books from The Cat in the Hat in 1957 to 2019 s A Skunk in My Bunk and reveals the often fascinating lives of the writers and illustrators who created them
