the Hajj from a gay perspective written by a man with a deep knowledge of Islamic history This pilgrimage is the centerpiece of his book and he recounts it with courage and fierce emotion The Guardian This is the Islam you've never been allowed to see Daringly reported from its frontlines and forbidden to most of humanity for centuries The Hajj pilgrimage is a journey every Muslim is commanded by God to go on at least once in a lifetime if they are able and like millions Parvez Sharma believes his spiritual salvation lies at Islam's ground zero Mecca But unlike the journeys of his fellow Muslims the consequences of his own could be deadly In A Sinner in Mecca author filmmaker and 2018 Guggenheim Fellow Parvez chronicles his pilgrimage as a very openly gay Muslim to Saudi Arabia where Islam's heart beats and where being true to himself is punishable by death Risking his life Parvez embarks on a Jihad of the self filming his experience along the way Already under fire for his documentary A Jihad for Love which looks at the coexistence of Islam and homosexuality he would undoubtedly face savage punishment if exposed from being thrown off a cliff to public beheading Parvez's odyssey is at once audacious global and remarkable He meets everyone from extremists to explorers of the spiritual kind and the world they open up is frightening yet breathtaking In Mecca Parvez comes out to a pilgrim who then asks him why he would want to be part of something that wants no part of him This book is his answer to this question and many more Parvez provides an unflinching look at our troubling unfolding history including Hizbullah ISIS Trump the race wars an embattled Europe and more He offers real solutions borne of his efforts to get his hands dirty to find them This is a lived history and its author is no armchair theorist Following the New York Times Critics Pick hit documentary of the same title A Sinner in Mecca unflinchingly showcases parts of the dangerous ideology that governs today's ISIS and how much it has in common with Saudi Arabia's sacred yet treacherous dogma Wahhabi Islam A Sinner in Mecca is simultaneously one man's personal odyssey as well as a groundbreaking provocative revelation of a clandestine world and its fastest growing and most contested religion

Hajj Ali Shariati, 2019-07-28 The complete translation of Ali Shariati's famous work on Hajj This work is different from any other book on hajj in that it is not a treatise on the hajj but a reflection on Hajj by one of the most important Islamic thinkers on what the hajj means Ali Shariati provides a chronological narration on the meaning and significance of the rituals performed during Hajj Excerpts P 14 15 Sarah the wife of Ibrahim had a black maid Ethiopian called Hajar She was extremely poor and humbled to the degree that Sarah did not object to her becoming a bed mate of her husband Ibrahim in order to bear him a child Here was a woman who was not honored enough to become a second wife to Ibrahim yet Allah connected the symbol of Hajar's skirt to His symbol Kaaba The skirt of Hajar was the area in which Ismail was raised The house of Hajar is there Her grave is near the third column of Kaaba What a surprise since no one not even prophets is supposed to be buried in mosques but in this case the house of a black maid is located next to Allah's house Hajar the mother of Ismail is buried there Kaaba extends toward her grave As a result Allah's house is directed toward her skirt There is a narrow passage between the wall Hajar's skirt and Kaaba When circumambulating around Kaaba Allah commanded that you must go around the wall not through the passage otherwise your Hajj will not be accepted Those who believe in monotheism and those who have accepted Allah's invitation to go to Hajj must touch this skirt when circumambulating the Kaaba The grave of a black African maid and a good mother is now a part of Kaaba it will be circumambulated by man forever Allah the Almighty in His great and glorious Divinity is all alone by Himself He needs nobody and nothing Nevertheless among all His countless and eternal creatures He has chosen one mankind the noblest of them From among all humanity a woman From among all women a slave And from among all slaves a black maid The weakest and most humiliated one of His creatures was given a place at His side and a room in His house He has come to her house and become her neighbor and roommate So now there are two Allah and Hajar under the ceiling of this house

Alsultan, Pedram Saeid, 2016-08-25 Saudi Arabia and Iran have established themselves as the two regional heavyweights in one of the world's most tumultuous but critically significant regions The two countries compete on many fronts including regional politics oil prices and for leadership of the Islamic world a competition with undeniable repercussions for the Greater Middle East and for the world Some observers have gone so far as to claim that virtually everything that happens in this area of the world can be viewed as part of the Saudi Iranian power struggle With increasing importance of the region as the dominant supplier of world energy and the birthplace of Islamic militant groups the consequences of not understanding Saudi Iranian rivalry in the region have never been more serious A range of internal and external explanatory factors explains the ups and downs of Saudi Iranian relations since the 1990s This book captures this complexity by drawing on multicausal explanations through multiple levels of interdisciplinary analysis This is the first book on the subject that is co-authored by one author from Saudi Arabia and one from Iran This collaboration allowed the authors to make the best use of Persian and Arabic sources generating a locally meaningful account of the two countries relationship As Iranian and Saudi nationals they encountered less difficulty in gaining access to research participants building rapport and conducting interviews with Iranian and Saudi scholars and informants

Bringing Ritual to Mind Robert N. McCauley, E. Thomas Lawson, 2002-08-15 Bringing Ritual to Mind explores the cognitive and psychological foundations of religious ritual systems Participants must recall their rituals well enough to ensure a sense of continuity across performances and those rituals must motivate them to transmit and re-perform them Most religious rituals the world over exploit either high performance frequency or extraordinary emotional stimulation but not both to enhance their recollection the availability of literacy has little impact on this But why do some rituals exploit the first of these variables while others exploit the second McCauley and Lawson advance the ritual form hypothesis arguing that participants' cognitive representations of ritual form explain why Reviewing evidence from cognitive developmental and social psychology and from cultural anthropology and the history of religions they utilize dynamical systems tools to explain the recurrent evolutionary trajectories religions exhibit
