Transport Regulation Pablo Mendes de León,1992-06-17 This book assesses the present status of space activity regulation against the background of the progressive commercialization of outer space The basic legal framework for outer space activity was established during a time when space endeavour was still in its infancy a critical reassessment of its principles therefore forms the basis of this publication The outcome of this analysis the legal implications which result from applying it to practical space utilization yield an insight into the legal questions pertaining to space commercialization its practical implementation Commercial Utilization of Outer Space will be of great interest to academics practitioners in the field of space activities as well as to government policy makers in different sectors of space commercialization ranging from space transportation satellite communication remote sensing to space insurance manufacturing in outer space Wherever appropriate feasible practical aspects have been dealt with against the background of present day realities developments foreseen for the future Law and Religious Cultural Heritage in Europe Theodosios Tsivolas,2014-07-22 This book examines in detail both historical and current legal concepts of religious cultural heritage within the context of the European continent The latter group is primarily based on the variety of sacred cultural elements emanating from the different religious traditions of the peoples of Europe which are deemed worthy of protection and preservation due to their outstanding value in terms of their social cultural and religious significance In view of this the study provides evidence of the European States active involvement with their sacred cultural treasures on the basis of the political and legal foundations of neutrality and pluralism Furthermore the book analyzes all relevant international legislative instruments i e the plethora of EU EC and UNESCO norms as well as all major European legislative patterns in light of their significance for the aforementioned aspects of pluralism and neutrality The interdisciplinary references listed at the end of each chapter provide an additional incentive for further reading on the subject matter The most important finding to emerge from the study is that there is a shared legal ethos in Europe that imposes a duty of appropriate care concerning the vast variety of sacred cultural goods and the religious cultural heritage in general as an invaluable repository of European cultural capital It also considers the sui generis nature of this capital like any other type of asset it may deteriorate or fade over time necessitating investment in its preservation or refurbishment nevertheless like no other this particular capital maintains a distinct cultural value as it contains an additional characteristic of sacredness expressed in the form of its religious character the latter being analyzed as a triptych of religious memory religious aesthetics and religious beliefs Sustainable Communities in Europe William M Lafferty,2014-10-14 A presentation of detailed comparative research into the implementation in 11 European countries of Local Agenda 21 the action plan for sustainable development at community level Overviews of implementation in each country are accompanied by analysis of positive and negative changes as well as a comparative analysis with high academic and policy relevance Numerous practical examples are included of best cases and crucial barriers

Fundamental Rights in European Contract Law C. Mak, 2008-01-29 This book is the first major study to examine the following essential questions with detailed reference to actual judicial developments To what extent do fundamental rights affect contract law In which types of cases can fundamental rights be applied What does the explicit consideration of fundamental rights add to contract law adjudication The author approaches the analysis along two different avenues first a comparative overview of developments in case law and second a more general theoretical view on the interaction between fundamental rights and rules of contract law which is tested against examples from various legal systems The focus throughout is on developments in case law because the impact of fundamental rights in contract law has been felt on the level of dispute resolution rather than on the level of legislation Germany and the Netherlands are chosen because their judiciaries have been notable for their early and continuing attention to the theme and England and Italy for perspectives on developments under common law and civil law systems respectively For its reframing of old questions and its insightful delimitations of new ones this book offers a fresh and deeply informed new perspective on this important area of developing law The discussion moreover has received an additional impulse from the debate leading up to the recent agreement on a Reform Treaty regarding the institutional settlement of the Union which will give a legally binding status to the Nice Charter of Fundamental Rights For these reasons and others the book will be of great value to all interested parties in government business and legal practice

Judicial Review of Legislation Gerhard van der Schyff, 2010-06-16 Constitutionalism is the permanent quest to control state power of which the judicial review of legislation is a prime example Although the judicial review of legislation is increasingly common in modern societies it is not a finished project This device still raises questions as to whether judicial review is justified and how it may be structured Yet judicial review s justification and its scope are seldom addressed in the same study thereby making for an inconvenient divorce of these two related avenues of study To narrow the divide the object of this work is quite straightforward Namely is the idea of judicial review defensible and what influences its design and scope This book addresses these matters by comparing the judicial review of legislation in the United Kingdom the Human Rights Act of 1998 the Netherlands the Halsema Proposal of 2002 and the Constitution of South Africa of 1996 These systems present valuable material to study the issues raised by judicial review The Netherlands is of particular interest as its Constitution still prohibits the constitutional review of acts of parliament while allowing treaty review of such acts The Halsema Proposal wants to even out this difference by allowing the courts also to apply constitutional norms to legislation and not only to international norms The Human Rights Act and the South African Constitution also present interesting questions that will make their study worthwhile One can think of the issue of dialogue between the legislature and the judiciary This topic enjoys increased attention in the United Kingdom but is somewhat underexplored in South African thought on judicial review These and similar issues are studied in each of the three systems to not only gain a better understanding of the systems as such but also of judicial review in general The House of Orange in Revolution and War Jeroen Koch,Dik van der Meulen,Jeroen van Zanten,2022-06-06 An epic account of the House of Orange Nassau over one hundred and fifty years of European history Three rulers from the House of Orange Nassau reigned over the Netherlands from 1813 to 1890 King William I from 1813 to 1840 King William II from 1840 to 1849 and King William III from 1849 to 1890 Theirs is an epic tale of joy and tragedy progress and catastrophe disappointment and glory all set against the backdrop of a Europe plagued by war and revolution The House of Orange in Revolution and War relates one and a half centuries of House of Orange history in a gripping narrative leading the reader from the last stadholders of the Dutch Republic to the modern monarchy of the early twentieth century from the French Revolution and the Napoleonic wars to World War I and the European Revolutions that came after it From the Eye of the Storm B.W. Jongbloed,P.A. Maassen,G. Neave,1999-10-31 The essays collected here concern the institutional dimension of higher education policy centering on recent and forthcoming changes Some essays discuss the pressures to adopt a business model of operations and how the university has responded Others address the effects of competition for funding and students the academy s attempts to remain socially relevant and the impact of economic globalization Contributors include university professors and administrators other experts in education political scientists sociologists and economists Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Postliberal Constitutionalism Adam Sulikowski,2022-12-30 This book addresses recent changes in Central and Eastern Europe in order to critically consider the impact of illiberal conservatism on constitutionalism Right wing populism and the illiberal constitutionalism of Central and Eastern Europe have challenged both the dominant views of legal scholars and those elements of the legal mainstream that appeared to be firmly entrenched and resistant to change But as this book demonstrates in practical terms the anti liberal right has made use of critical methods that were originally conceived as tools for use in emancipatory and left wing action absorbing and utilizing a great many of the ideas associated with critical jurisprudential thought In short this book maintains conservative illiberalism has taken over the role that postmodernism could have played the role of a jester discourse relativizing the certainties and finality of liberal democracy As the book argues however what this connection reveals is the necessity of a legal and political response that does not simply and hysterically reaffirm the former liberal hegemony Rather drawing on Foucault and post Marxism it articulates a concept of agonistic democracy that aims to shift the center of gravity in constitutional discourse away from any naive liberal faith in the nonpolitical This book will appeal to constitutional lawyers as well as to legal and political theorists with interests in contemporary populism and liberal thought ICEHHA 2021 Sebastianus Menggo,Yohanes Servatius Lon,Fransiska Widyawati ,Ans.
