Handbook Of Islamic Marketing Elgar Original Reference:

Handbook of Islamic Marketing Özlem Sandıkcı, Gillian Rice, 2011-01-01 This is an especially timely publication given the current metamorphosis of politics in the Middle East and North Africa. Özlem Sandıkcı and Gillian Rice are to be congratulated for having sensed the need for a Handbook that will alert marketers to the vast market opportunities offered by Muslim consumers. It is essential to become attuned to the values and principles of Islamic cultures that will drive consumption product and service choices, brand preference and brand loyalty in coming years. The scholars who have contributed to this Handbook come from many different backgrounds to offer a kaleidoscope of research and recommendations on how best to serve this previously overlooked segment of consumers who make up a quarter of world markets. Lyn S. Amine, Saint Louis University, US. This ambitious and timely collection will be enormously valuable to readers in the practice and study of the growing field of Muslim marketing and branding. Essays range expertly across key sectors, notably finance, food and fashion, and territories of Muslim majority and minority population. Contributors elaborate the diversity of Muslim experiences, beliefs and practices that must be taken into account by marketing professionals seeking to exploit this newly recognized market. Academic authors provide helpful postscripts for marketers making clear the links between their nuanced historicized understanding of contemporary transnational, global and local forms of Muslim identity and practice. This book provides an essential guide to those who study and those who participate in Muslim branding and marketing. Reina Lewis, London College of Fashion, UK. The Handbook of Islamic Marketing provides state of the art scholarship on the intersection of Islam, consumption and marketing and lays out an agenda for future research. The topics covered by eminent contributors from around the world range from fashion and food consumption practices of Muslims to retailing, digital marketing, advertising, corporate social responsibility and nation branding in the context of Muslim marketplaces. The essays offer new insights into the relationship between morality, consumption and marketing practices and discuss the implications of politics and globalization for Islamic markets. This comprehensive Handbook provides an essential introduction to the newly emerging field of Islamic marketing. It is invaluable for researchers and students in international marketing who are interested in the intersection of Islam and marketing as well as those from anthropology and sociology studying Muslim consumers and businesses. The book also supplies vital knowledge for Muslim and non-Muslim business leaders generating commerce in Islamic communities.

The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism C. Michael Hall, Girish Prayag, 2019-05-20 The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism provides a greater understanding of the current debates associated with Islamic tourism and halal hospitality in the context of businesses, communities, destinations and the wider socio-political context. It therefore sheds substantial light on one of the most significant travel and consumer markets in the world today and the important role of religion in contemporary hospitality and tourism. The book examines halal hospitality and lodging, Islamic markets, product developments, heritage certification and emerging and future trends and issues It integrates case studies from a range of countries and destinations and in doing so emphasises the significant differences that exist with respect to regulating and commodifying halal as well as stressing that the Islamic market is not monolithic Written by highly regarded international academics it offers a range of perspectives and enables a comprehensive discussion of this integral part of Islam and contemporary society This handbook will be of significant interest to upper level students researchers and academics in the various disciplines of Tourism Hospitality Food Studies Marketing Religious Studies Geography Sociology and Islamic Studies

Handbook of Islamic Banking Kabir Hassan, Mervyn Lewis, 2009-01-01 The Handbook of Islamic Banking comprises 25 studies by leading international experts on Islamic banking and finance specially commissioned to analyse the various debates and the current state of play in the field From its origins thirty years ago Islamic banking has expanded rapidly to become a distinctive and fast growing segment of the international banking and capital markets Despite this expansion Islamic banking still remains poorly understood in many parts of the Muslim world and continues to be a mystery in much of the West This comprehensive Handbook provides a succinct analysis of the workings of Islamic banking and finance accessible to a wide range of readers At the same time it seeks to bring the current research agenda and the main issues on Islamic banking before a wider audience Islamic banking offers as an alternative to conventional interest based financing methods a wide variety of financial instruments and investment vehicles based on profit and loss sharing arrangements These are all explored in detail along with other subjects such as governance and risk management securities and investment structured financing accounting and regulation economic development and globalization M Kabir Hassan Mervyn Lewis and the other contributors have created an authoritative and original reference work which will contribute to a wider understanding of Islamic banking as well as provoking further discussion and research It will be invaluable to all scholars researchers and policymakers with an interest in this subject
