Understanding Contemporary Ethiopia Gérard

Prunier,Éloi Ficquet,2015 Seeks to dispel the myths and clichés surrounding contemporary perceptions of Ethiopia by providing a rare overview of the country's recent history politics and culture Explores the unique features of this often misrepresented country as it strives to make itself heard in the modern world Publisher description Shakin' Up Race and Gender Marta E. Sánchez,2009-07-21 The second phase of the civil rights movement 1965-1973 was a pivotal period in the development of ethnic groups in the United States In the years since then new generations have asked new questions to cast light on this watershed era No longer is it productive to consider only the differences between ethnic groups we must also study them in relation to one another and to U.S. mainstream society In Shakin' Up Race and Gender Marta E. Sánchez creates an intercultural frame to study the historical and cultural connections among Puerto Ricans African Americans and Chicanos as since the 1960s Her frame opens up the black-white binary that dominated the 1960s and 1970s It reveals the hidden yet real ties that connected ethnics of color and white ethnics in a shared intercultural history By using key literary works published during this time Sánchez reassesses and refutes the unflattering portrayals of ethnics by three leading intellectuals Octavio Paz Daniel Patrick Moynihan and Oscar Lewis who wrote about Chicanos African Americans and Puerto Ricans She links their implicit misogyny to the trope of La Malinche from Chicano culture and shows how specific characteristics of this trope enslavement alleged betrayal and cultural negotiation are also present in African American and Puerto Rican cultures Sánchez employs the trope to restore the agency denied to these groups Intercultural contact encounters between peoples of distinct ethnic groups is the theme of this book State institutions and leadership in Africa Irma Taddia,Tekeste

Negash,2018-02-01 The central theme of this book is the role of education in the formation of a political class during and after the European colonial period in Africa The volume focuses on the various actors that informed and were part of this process such as African intellectuals and political leaders colonial troops European missionaries and administrators At the same time the collection analyses the historical processes connected to the emergence and development of a new African leadership such as the creation of a colonial school system the transformation of urban spaces the development of new environmental policies and the processes of nation building after independence The volume is made up of twelve contributions four on Ethiopia two on Eritrea two on the Sudan one on Somaliland two on Tanzania and one on Ghana

The British Field Marshals, 1736-1997 T. A. Heathcote,2012-10-24 Whether any advantage or benefit will be drawn from the suspension or effective abolition of the rank of Field Marshal is debatable What is certain however is that Dr Tony Heathcote's idea of compiling a definitive biographical dictionary of holders of this illustrious rank since its introduction by George II in 1736 is opportune and inspired Those readers who anticipate a dry recitation of bare facts and statistics are in for a disappointment A reference work this may be but the author by dint of his depth of knowledge has created a shrewd and highly readable commentary as well As General Sir Charles Guthrie the first soldier to be denied promotion to Field

Marshal on appointment to Chief of Defense Staff observes in his Foreword this book embraces the history of the British Army over the last 250 300 years It covers not only the careers of key individuals but provides an understanding of their contribution to the successes and failures of our military past The diversity of personalities who have only the honor of wearing the coveted crossed batons in common is fascinating Alongside the household names of the great strategists and distinguished leaders lie little known and forgotten figures who gained their exalted rank by either luck accident of birth or diplomatic gesture The British Field Marshals merits a place on the bookshelf of any military historian but is likely to be found on his or her bedside table Whether or not the rank is ever resurrected as it has been in the past and as many will hope it will be again this delightful and useful book will remain the authoritative guide to all those who have held the highest military rank in the British Army Social Theory and Regional Studies in the Global Age Saïd Amir

Arjomand,2014-05-21 A pioneering approach to social theory that rectifies overreliance on Western historical experience of development and modernization In this pioneering volume leading international scholars argue for the development of a new approach to social theory that draws on regional studies for the conduct of comparative analysis in the global age Social Theory and Regional Studies in the Global Age moves beyond facile generalizations based on the historical experience of modernization in the West by highlighting differences rather than similarities and contrasts rather than commonalities and by examining civilizational processes and culturally specific developmental patterns distinctive of different world regions Essays combine comparative and historical sociology with civilizational analysis and the study of multiple and alternative modernities Different patterns of modernization are compared within the framework of global local compressed communication and interaction that results from globalization The introductory chapter puts the present effort in the context of the seminal work of three generations of comparative sociologists and what follows is a penetrating analysis of modernization and globality opening the way for rectifying the erasure of the historical experience of a very sizeable portion of humankind from the foundation of social theory My Life and Ethiopia's Progress Haile Selassie I (Emperor of Ethiopia),Wallis E. A. Budge,1997 Rastafari Reasoning and the RastaWoman Jeanne Christensen,2014-02-14

Rastafari Reasoning and the RastaWoman Gender Constructions in the Shaping of Rastafari Livity examines the complex ways that gender and race shaped a liberation movement propelled by the Caribbean evolution of an African spiritual ethos Jeanne Christensen proposes that Rastafari represents the most recent reworking of this spiritual ethos referred to as African religiosity The book contributes a new perspective to the literature on Rastafari and through a historical lens corrects the predominant static view of Rastafari women In certain Rastafari manifestations a growing livity developed by RastaMen eventually excluded women from an important ritual called Reasoning a conscious search for existential and ontological truth through self understanding performed in a group setting Restoring agency to the RastaWoman Christensen argues that RastaWomen intimately in touch with this spiritual ethos challenged oppressive structures within the movement itself They skirted official restrictions speaking out in public and written forums whenever such avenues presented themselves and searched for their own truth through conscious intentional self examination characteristic of the Reasoning ritual With its powerful theoretically informed narrative Rastafari Reasoning and the RastaWoman Gender Constructions in the Shaping of Rastafari Liverty will appeal to students and scholars interested in religious transformation resistance movements gender issues critical race studies and the history and culture of the English speaking Caribbean

The Missionary Factor in Ethiopia Getatchew Haile, Aasulv Lande, 1998 European not the least Scandinavian mission societies have played an important role in shaping modern Ethiopia and Eritrea In spite of this the long term impact on Ethiopian society by European missions has not yet received much attention The predominance of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church in society and nation makes Ethiopia an exception in the history of European missions and raises questions of an ecumenical character which need more attention Present tension in Ethiopia between Orthodox and Evangelicals and the tendency to identify Christian affiliation with ethnic identity contribute to make this an urgent matter The present volume presents the papers delivered at a symposium on these questions held at Lund University in August 1996 They include discussions on the justification of foreign missionary activity in a country already Christian the impact of the Catholic missionary enterprise of the 16th and 17th centuries the colonial context of late 19th century missionary activity the impact of the Europeans on social and intellectual developments the struggle of the Ethiopian Catholics for an Ethiopian identity in the face of latinization and colonial interests and the question of European influence on structure and leadership in the Evangelical Churches

The Top Books of the Year Haile Sellassie I The Formative Years 1892 1936 V 1 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Haile Sellassie I The Formative Years 1892 1936 V 1 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
