and Blue Economy Frameworks for Halal Industry Sustainability Monsuru Adekunle Salisu, Lukman Raimi, Nurudeen Babatunde Bamiro, Isa Olalekan Elegbede, 2025-05-06 This book serves as a valuable resource for economic policymakers economic analysts halal trainers halal stakeholders agribusiness advocates and halal industry consultants in the rapidly changing emerging green and blue economy The book explores the themes of green and blue economies for halal industry sustainability and business entrepreneurship as well as production and consumption ethics and impact investments in halal green and blue entrepreneurship and principles governing the innovation of production framework through integration of green and blue economy The green and blue economy frameworks can be applied to the Halal industry to enhance its sustainability and promote environmental and social responsibility This book presents the emerging blue and green economy to halal entrepreneurs as a complementary alternative model for enterprise development wealth creation employment creation responsible production and sustainable consumption and a catalyst for attaining sustainable development goals

Muslim Piety as Economy Johan Fischer, J  r  my Jammes, 2019-10-11 The first volume to explore Muslim piety as a form of economy this book examines specific forms of production trade regulation consumption entrepreneurship and science that condition and are themselves conditioned by Islamic values logics and politics With a focus on Southeast Asia as a site of significant and diverse integration of Islam and the economy as well as the incompatibilities that can occur between the two it reveals the production of a Muslim piety as an economy in its own right Interdisciplinary in nature and based on in depth empirical studies the book considers issues such as the Qur'anic prohibition of corruption and anti corruption reforms the emergence of the Islamic economy under colonialism halal or lawful production trade regulation and consumption modesty in Islamic fashion marketing communications and financialisation consumerism and housing As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and religious studies with interests in Islam and Southeast Asia Halal Food Febe Armanios, Bogac Ergene, 2018-04-02 An overview of the historical and legal roots of halal permissible and haram impermissible foods in the Islamic tradition and how these are viewed in societies today Strategic Islamic Marketing Baker Ahmad Alserhan, Veland Ramadani, Jusuf Zeqiri, Léo-Paul Dana, 2022-06-28 Marketing in the emerging Islamic markets is a challenging business function since international companies must contend with unfamiliar customs cultural differences and legal challenges This book provides marketers who want to reach this emerging and very lucrative consumer base with essential research based insights on these aspects and how to deal with them This book redefines marketing practice and conduct and challenges conventional marketing wisdom by introducing a religious based ethical framework to the practice of marketing The framework opens a whole new array of marketing opportunities and describes the behavior of the consumer community and companies using a different approach than conventional marketing thought Rethinking Halal, 2021-03-22 This book invites to rethink certain aspects of halal and in particular the issue of the halal market and halal certification in Muslim minority contexts Rather than limiting itself to elucidating the doctrinal traditions relating to halal haram or on the contrary focusing only on the external economic financial political or demographic factors that explain the changes taking place Rethinking Halal shows the need to underline the points of balance between the aspects of religious doctrine on the one hand and the economic or political contextual aspects on the other hand Through the study of various countries Rethinking Halal demonstrates that Islam underwent a process of positivisation that is a kind of reframing of its rules and principles through the lens of a characteristically modern standardising scientificising and systematising mind Contributors are Ayang Utriza Yakin Louis L on Christians Baudouin Dupret Jajat Burhanudin Syafiq Hasyim Zaynab El Bernoussi En Chieh Chao Rossella Bottoni Lauren Crossland Marr Konrad P dziwiatr Matteo Benussi Harun Sencal and Mehmet Asutay Islam, Standards, and Technoscience Johan Fischer, 2015-10-23 Halal literally permissible or lawful production trade and standards have become essential to state regulated Islam and to companies in contemporary Malaysia and Singapore giving these two countries a special position in the rapidly expanding global market for halal products in these nations state bodies certify halal products as well as spaces shops factories and restaurants and work processes and so consumers can find state halal certified products from Malaysia and Singapore in shops around the world Building on ethnographic material from Malaysia Singapore and Europe this book provides an exploration of the role of halal production trade and standards Fischer explains how the global markets for halal comprise divergent zones in which Islam markets regulatory institutions and technoscience interact and diverge Focusing on the bigger institutional picture that frames everyday halal consumption Fischer provides a multisited ethnography of the overlapping technologies and techniques of production trade and standards that together warrant a product as halal and thereby help to format the market Exploring global halal in networks training laboratories activism companies shops and restaurants this book will be an essential resource to scholars and students of social science interested in the global interface zones between religion standards and technoscience Food Values in Europe Valeria Siniscalchi,Krista Harper,2019-09-05 What can a focus on food projects in Europe tell us about contemporary social processes and cultural debates Valeria Siniscalchi and Krista Harper show how food becomes a marker of identity and resistance to social exclusion and how food values become tools for transforming power dynamics at the local level and beyond Through the comparison of food centered movements across Europe the book explains how these forms of mobilization express ideologies as well as economic and political objectives The chapters use an ethnographic approach to focus on the transformation of values carried by individuals and groups in relation to food in Portugal Greece Latvia Moldova Denmark the UK Italy and France Contributors analyze food values as expressed in daily life and livelihoods through specific practices of production exchange and consumption Topics covered include Prague s urban agricultural scene the perception of poverty in Moldova shepherds protests in Sardinia and organic food cooperatives in Catalonia Potentials, Challenges and Prospects of Halal Tourism Development in Ethiopia Mohammed Jemal Ahmed,Atilla Akbaba,2023-02-24 This book explores the potential of halal tourism development and its implementation in Ethiopia The insights presented assist key stakeholders to make informed decisions concerning commercial strategy profitability and feasibility of halal tourism from the secular perspective This innovative book offers a unique contribution to halal tourism being the first of its kind to assess halal tourism development in developing countries It provides a clear understanding of what halal tourism means how it has evolved and the current status of the industry The book considers the prospects of halal tourism including the conceptual and practical challenges of halal tourism development The example of halal tourism in Ethiopia is explored to provide a lens through which deeper understandings can be drawn on where and how to develop halal tourism This book will be of interest to researchers students in the disciplines of tourism anthropology geography business administration and sociology It also provides useful insights for policy makers planners and professionals in the hospitality and tourism industry Digitalization in Halal Management Ahmad Rafiki,2023-11-14 The book emphasizes the digitalization process in halal management of products and industries which relate to the comparisons and cases in many countries viewed from an Islamic perspective It needs a new view of using information technology to achieve wider coverage of promoting halal products as well as to develop the halal industries A global perspective that consists of experiences from Muslim majority and minority countries will be presented in this book This topic is also associated with the concepts on Islamic business and management Islamic business not only focuses on finance banking but beyond that Islam teaches all people to do Shariah compliant transactions or business The book gives solutions to halal industry through digitalization Islam has many solutions to be offered and thus it is important to reveal and discuss the Islamic way of managing business including halal management The book also discusses the halal products and its certifications This book is intended for stakeholders of different industries from environmental to food in the need of digital tools and IT infrastructure Religion and the Morality of the Market Daromir Rudnyckyj,Filippo Osella,2017-03-30 This book focuses on how neoliberal market practices engender new forms of religiosity and how religiosity shapes economic actions Contemporary Muslim Travel Cultures C. Michael Hall,Siamak Seyfi,S. Mostafa Rasoolimanesh,2022-07-26 This timely volume brings together various issues in Muslim consumer cultures and provides a comprehensive account of Muslim tourism and tourist behaviour Islam is a major international religion and Muslims are a majority of the population in many countries in Asia the Middle East and North Africa The growth of a substantial middle class the development of Islamic consumer cultures rising Muslim market consumption in non Muslim majority destinations and the growing significance of intra Muslim traffic and rising outbound tourism expenditure in emerging Muslim markets have all contributed to substantial interest in Muslim tourism However travel by Muslims is about far more than the Hajj and Umrah as important as they are as acts of devotion Instead although often portrayed in the West as a monolithic religion Muslim travel and leisure behaviour is very diverse with different traditions and cultures leading to a range of expressions of tourism related consumption culture and practices Drawing on a range of empirical studies undertaken in different social and economic contexts and countries this book provides a well balanced portrayal of the Muslim tourism experience and practices This book makes a substantial contribution to an improved understanding of Muslim travel culture and will be required reading for anyone interested in this fast growing market Religious Economies in Secular Context Rano Turaeva,Michael Brose,2023-12-09 This edited collection is one of the few sociological and anthropological studies of Halal markets The chapters inquire into the legal and religious aspects of Halal markets in non Muslim contexts or the countries where the label Halal matters and is not taken for granted as it is the case in most of the Muslim world where it is an accepted norm In many countries Halal has become a type of brand used to market food and cosmetic products This is an effective marketing strategy because it appeals directly to Muslims but also increasingly to non Muslims who seek pure fresh products In this case Halal implies attributes similar to other brands where quality and purity is guaranteed such as Fair Trade Bio or organic in the US and Europe but with the additional appeal to prospective Muslim consumers that it satisfies Islamic norms The book consists of contributions on Halal economies in non Muslim societies dealing with such dilemmas as rational thinking and halal philosophy within various fields of halal economy such as regulation production marketing service delivery and consumption Piety, Politics, and Everyday Ethics in Southeast Asian Islam Robert Rozeznal,2018-12-27 This book explores the diversity and dynamism of Islam in Southeast Asia through the concept of adab or beautiful behavior Amid the complexity of Islamic civilization adab provides Muslims with a shared sense of sacred history identity and morality In the context of Islamic ethics adab defines the rules of personal and public etiquette good manners proper conduct civility and humaneness Featuring the interdisciplinary research of nine prominent scholars of Islam the book offers new perspectives on adab s multiple meanings and myriad applications for Muslim communities in Malaysia and Indonesia The chapters examine a wide range of texts spotlighting the writings of prominent Muslim thinkers and contexts focusing on the everyday experiences of lay Muslims Drawing on a variety of theoretical and methodological lenses the essays reveal how beautiful behavior impacts local institutions cultural practices and religious imaginations via politics and law spirituality and piety ethics and experience With its careful textual analysis detailed case studies and attention to historical continuities and disjunctures Piety Politics and Everyday Ethics in Southeast Asian Islam is essential reading for students and scholars interested in global Islam and the lived local dynamics of Muslim Southeast Asia The Emergence Of Global Halal Business 2nd Edition (UiTM Press) Sharifah Zannierah Syed Marzuki,Wan Kalthom Yahya,2020-11-25 Offers a new dimension to the halal industry as the chapters cover various aspects from marketing food tourism economics internal marketing corporate governance accounting hospitality to halal certification that deal with complying to the halal standard Interesting fact on Islamic dietary laws amalgamates the business practices in the hospitality sector with Muslim religious needs As such Islamic principles must be adhered at all times as far as halal business is concerned This book focuses Islamic interdisciplinary and will appeal to students academician researchers and halal industry practitioners

Shame, Modesty, and Honor in Islam Ayang Utriza Yakin,Adis Duderija,An Van Raemdonck,2023-12-28 With a particular emphasis on definitions continuities and change this edited volume examines the historical role and function of haya or feelings of shame modesty and honor in Islamic theology and law and explores contemporary Muslims engagements with the concept The book explores various conceptions of haya and the practices associated with the concept in both Muslim majority and minority contexts The empirically rich contributions reveal how haya is socially constructed in varying social and cultural environments across the globe From medieval Islam to the modern day this book demonstrates the importance of haya and its temporal and spatial transformations The Halal Food Handbook Yunes Ramadan Al-Teinaz,Stuart

Spear,Ibrahim H. A. Abd El-Rahim,2020-01-08 A unique handbook providing a set of good practice standards for both producers and consumers of Halal food This accessible authoritative book covers all aspects of Halal from its origins through to how we expect Halal to develop in the coming years It explains what Halal is where it came from how it is practiced and by whom In addition to putting Halal in a religious and cultural context the book provides practical standards for those working in the Halal trade It explains why there are so many different interpretations of Halal and why this needs to be resolved if international trade is to be developed Each chapter in The Halal Food Handbook is written by leading experts in their particular field of study The first one discusses how regulatory bodies have failed to stem the miss selling and adulteration of

Halal foods The next chapters cover the slaughter process and issues around good practice The book then looks at regulators covering Sharia law UK national laws and the EU and outlines the legal framework for enforcing the law It also compares and contrasts different types of religious slaughter for faith foods examines attempts to set an international standard for trade and discusses pork adulteration in Halal foods The final chapter covers other aspects of Halal including cosmetics tourism lifestyle and banking and finishes with a look at what the future holds for Halal Written and edited by leading international experts in Halal who are backed by the Muslim Council of Britain Presents a set of good practice standards for both producers and consumers of Halal food Covers the complexity of the political legal and practical dimensions of Halal food production The Halal Food Handbook will appeal to a wide audience including abattoirs manufacturers retailers regulators academics public bodies catering for Muslims and the broader Muslim community Food Beyond Terroir Anna Colquhoun, Katharina Graf, 2025-10-01 From winemaking in occupied territories to fishing in polluted seas home cooking in refugee communities and vegan cheesemaking this collection explores the complex ways taste and place intersect with political ecological social and economic issues Through diverse ethnographic case studies leading food scholars examine the meaning and making of place and taste In doing so the book challenges terroir inspired notions of a fixed taste of place and pushes the boundaries of what we think we know about taste place relations The New Politics of Numbers Andrea Mennicken, Robert Salais, 2021-10-11 This open access book offers unique insight into how and where ideas and instruments of quantification have been adopted and how they have come to matter Rather than asking what quantification is New Politics of Numbers explores what quantification does its manifold consequences in multiple domains It scrutinizes the power of numbers in terms of the changing relations between numbers and democracy the politics of evidence and dreams and schemes of bettering society The book engages Foucault inspired studies of quantification and the economics of convention in a critical dialogue In so doing it provides a rich account of the plurality of possible ways in which numbers have come to govern highlighting not only their disciplinary effects but also the collective mobilization capacities quantification can offer This book will be invaluable reading for academics and graduate students in a wide variety of disciplines as well as policymakers interested in the opportunities and pitfalls of governance by numbers
