Transformation Christopher Dorn eloquently narrates the evolution that the celebration of the Lord's Supper has undergone in the Reformed Church in America RCA Building on the work of scholars who have chronicled this history in the period spanning the sixteenth through the nineteenth centuries Dorn extends the narrative into the twentieth century He shows how the liturgical and ecumenical movements in this century created a climate in the RCA for liturgical research and reform a climate that stimulated its leaders to reflect seriously on the formulation of its liturgy and their understanding of its use In the last two chapters he convincingly demonstrates how this process led to a reconception of the nature and meaning of the celebration of the Lord's Supper     Toward a Trinitarian Theology of Liturgical Participation R. Gabriel Pivarnik, 2013-01-01 Half a century after the Second Vatican Council called for the active participation of the laity in the liturgy a comprehensive theology of what liturgical participation actually means remains elusive While most sacramental studies have highlighted the role and action of Christ the conciliar reform and the theology that emanated from it call for a deeper trinitarian understanding of the liturgy and sacraments In this fascinating new work Gabriel Pivarnik identifies the major theological developments in the concept of active participation of the last century most notably in Mediator Dei and the Vatican II documents He also considers the reception of those developments Drawing especially on the work of Cipriano Vagaggini and Edward Kilmartin Pivarnik offers a lucid demonstration of how liturgical participation can be viewed in metaphysical soteriological and ecclesiological terms through the lens of a trinitarian narrative     Historical Dictionary of Catholicism William J.
