Therapy Thieves

Francis A. Martin,2020-03-13 Why are we practicing counselors and psychotherapists committed to failure This is the question that has haunted Dr Francis Martin as he has cataloged well over 20 000 distinct psychotherapy approaches advertised on the websites of licensed mental health professionals No doubt some of these are harmful most of them ineffective and many simply made up but the sheer volume of such techniques and practices advertised by licensed professionals holding advanced degrees whose services are billed to clients and insurance companies calls the credibility of the entire mental health profession into question Based on significant original research that joins research from others this book describes a near universal crisis in mental health care and recommends ways to rescue the field from itself The crisis is caused by declining competence among counselors and psychotherapists who have failed to regulate themselves and who therefore deliver inadequate if not harmful services The book calls for major specific and urgently needed reforms

Transformational Learning Experiences

Michelle Kelley Shuler,Elizabeth Keller-Dupree,Katrina Cook,2016-12-01 Embarking on a journey to become a counselor does more than prepare a person for a new and rewarding career Relational training and life experiences all contribute to transformational encounters that change who the person is and who he or she will be as a future counselor Each counselor s journey is unique as is each counselor The authors presented here allowed themselves to be vulnerable as they shared their own unique journeys and experiences that led them to be the counselor they are today in the hopes that they may inspire others on their own unique journeys towards becoming a counselor who transforms lives Vygotsky at Work and Play Lois Holzman, 2016-12-14
