A Global Perspective of Social Justice Leadership for School Principals

Pamela S. Angelle, 2017-05-01 Within education there have been some notable attempts to frame social justice in ways that can help to explain and understand the practices of those working in schools especially school leaders The research contained in this book seeks to enhance our understanding of school leaders actions as they work to promote socially just practices and or outcomes in a range of different national contexts The unique nature of this research is that studies took place in numerous schools across the globe in a variety of contexts yet utilized the same research protocols This has allowed the researchers to draw conclusions at an international level about social justice decision making the supports and barriers brought on school leaders by national policy and mandates and the essential nature of context in the work of social justice leadership The audience will include scholars on a global scale given that cases in the book include authors and principals from around the world The book can also serve as a text for leadership preparation courses as well as courses in social justice research design and qualitative research methodologies Courses in human relations and communication can use the content as examples of the negotiations and challenges of teamwork in international settings A primary audience for the book is system school level leaders in contexts and communities throughout the world for understanding comparative leadership and social justice decision making Current principals will find the cases useful as reflexive tools for their own work Educational leaders educational reformers and policy makers will benefit from this book as they seek to understand the impact of their work and its influence on promoting equity in schools across the globe

Second International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, P. Hallinger, 2012-12-06 The first International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Leithwood et al was published in 1996 and quickly became something of a best seller for reference works within education Such success we suggest was at least partly due to the unprecedented global waves of concern for improving schools launched in the mid 1980 s combined with a widespread belief in leadership as the single most powerful contribution to such improvement The roots of this belief can be found in evidence produced by the early effective schools research although there is a romance with leadership as an explanation for success in many non school enterprises as well During the two year period during which this current handbook was being written activity in the realms of school leadership school improvement and leadership development gained further momentum The English government created its new National College of School Leadership and several Asian nations announced new initiatives in leadership selection preparation and development

Leading Schools in Challenging Times Bruce Anthony Jones, Anthony Rolle, 2016-03-01 Over the past 30 years our public school system has received an unprecedented amount of attention as this concerns methods of school reform and policy strategies for bringing about this reform During the 1980s the emphasis of school reform was on transparency through school community partnerships Business and philanthropy for example became involved with issues of schooling that was unheard of prior to this period The 1980s also gave rise to issues of school finance and student performance that went beyond traditional views that tended to focus on finance adequacy to views that focused more on school finance arrangements that would lead to actual equitable outcomes in student performance The 1990s witnessed the emergence of the comprehensive school reform movement whereby curriculum outsourcing occurred at rates that had never occurred before With this movement the role of teachers and school leaders in the creation of school curriculum diminished as school districts increasingly purchased vendor related curriculum packages which included teacher and leader training modules and methods of curriculum assessment On the heels of the increasing tendency of school districts to outsource school curriculum to curriculum vendors came a rise in demands for school accountability and school outcomes This was particularly evident with the passage of No Child Left Behind Act NCLB 2001 NCLB was also developed within a political context that called for demands in the academic improvement of schools and school districts that housed historically disenfranchised students These demands were particularly important as the nation experienced and continues to experience dramatic increases in student racial and ethnic diversity This volume entitled Leading Schools in Challenging Times Eye to the Future discusses varying types of school leadership in the context of key topics that have been at the center of on going school reform in the United States These topics include challenges opportunities and issues associated with our administrator and teacher leadership pipeline preparation and development leadership and school finance reform leadership and changing student and population demographics leadership and the role of community issues of leadership policy public accountability and school performance outcomes The authors also explicate these issues with a view to the future and the status of leadership in our public school system

Formation and Development for Catholic School Leaders: The principal as educational leader Maria J. Ciriello, 1998-04 Addresses seven competencies in leadership and nine in curriculum and instruction Includes more than 150 sources in the bibliography
