Behind Closed Doors Anna Katharine Green,2021-11-09 In Behind Closed Doors Anna Katharine Green weaves a compelling narrative that delves into the intricate dynamics of murder morality and the human psyche This 1910 novel showcases Green s hallmark style characterized by meticulous attention to detail and a suspenseful almost Gothic atmosphere Through a rich tapestry of dialogue and vivid characterizations the reader is drawn into a world where hidden motives and societal expectations collide thus reflecting the complexities of early 20th century American society particularly in relation to gender roles and social propriety Green often hailed as one of the pioneers of detective fiction brought her own life experiences and profound understanding of human behavior to this work Her background as a female author in a predominantly male literary space informed her nuanced perspectives on the female condition while her extensive exploration of criminal cases in her earlier works established her as a quintessential figure in shaping the mystery genre This contextual richness enhances the depth of Behind Closed Doors making it not just a story but an exploration of broader societal themes I highly recommend Behind Closed Doors to readers seeking a thriller that combines psychological depth with a keen social critique Green s narrative intricacies are sure to engage both fans of classic literature and those interested in the early evolution of detective storytelling

Trials of Reason David Wolfsdorf,2008-01-22 Scholarship on Plato s dialogues persistently divides its focus between the dramatic or literary and the philosophical or argumentative dimensions of the texts But this hermeneutic division of labor is na ve for Plato s arguments are embedded in dramatic dialogues and developed through complex largely informal exchanges between literary characters Consequently it is questionable how readers can even attribute arguments and theses to the author himself The answer to this question lies in transcending the scholarly divide and integrating the literary and philosophical dimensions of the texts This is the task of Trials of Reason The study focuses on a set of fourteen so called early dialogues beginning with a methodological framework that explains how to integrate the argumentation and the drama in these texts Unlike most canonical philosophical works the early dialogues do not merely express the results of the practice of philosophy Rather they dramatize philosophy as a kind of motivation the desire for knowledge of goodness They dramatize philosophy as a discursive practice motivated by this desire and ideally governed by reason And they dramatize the trials to which desire and reason are subject that is the difficulties of realizing philosophy as a form of motivation a practice and an epistemic achievement In short Trials of Reason argues that Plato s early dialogues are as much works of meta philosophy as philosophy itself

Cosmic Preeminence R L Coursey,2018-06-26 Many who correctly exalt the preeminence of Christ in their theology may yet oppose His preeminence with their priorities Our priorities reveal our portion and location does not change that portion For the psalmist declared the preeminence of Christ in both heaven and earth Whom have I in heaven but Thee and there is none upon earth that I desire besides Thee Ps 73 25 Whenever there are two things that are good the believer who has his priorities aligned with the kingdom never rejects the lesser but always prefers the better And when one of these is finite and the other infinite there must be no competition in his choice Since Christ is preeminent in creation cosmic preeminence must be infinitely higher in our affections than cosmic redemption The new view on heaven is popular because it legitimizes the priorities of a consumer culture by always emphasizing the latter while merely including the former While both are equally true they are not truly equal The priority of the beatific vision is evidenced by the superiority of its object Therefore we should always emphasize the former without failing to mention the latter Once creation and redemption are paired together in our priorities the preeminence of Christ slowly becomes less important and how to gain and or enjoy creation is always the primary emphasis both in this life and the next Like Christ we must differentiate between His kingdom and all those things that are merely added unto us in this life and on the future new earth With the Kingdom clearly in view we must prioritize that mandate Great Commission through which Christ has chosen to extend His kingdom and work of redemption in the world The Creation Mandate given before the Fall like all the commands is not redemptive in nature and the church is the only society of the redeemed Our new identity in Christ without eliminating infinitely supersedes our creation identity simply because Christ infinitely supersedes all creation in worth The problem with exchanging the Great Commission with the Cultural Mandate is that the present mission of Christ to build His church becomes secondary to His work of providence in culture the power of the gospel becomes secondary to the power of our example and moral influence on society and culture and the preeminence of Christ is no longer based on His person and work but on the success of our work among people We always proclaim what we are wrote Martyn Lloyd Jones by our priorities

Thrice-Greatest Hermes G. R. S. Mead,1906 This is the edition including all three books The so called Hermetic writings have been known to Christian writers for many centuries The early church Fathers Justin Martyr Tertullian Clement of Alexandria quote them in defense of Christianity Stobaeus collected fragments of them The Humanists knew and valued them They were studied in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and in modern times have again been diligently examined by many scholars G R S Mead has issued a translation of the whole body of extant literature with extended prolegomena commentary etc There is a wide difference of opinion as to the date at which this literature was produced Mead believes that some of the extant portions of it are at least as early as the earliest Christian writings while von Christ assigns them to the third Christian century and thinks that they show the influence of neo Platonism To affirm that they influenced New Testament usage would be hazardous but they perhaps throw some light on the direction in which thought was moving in New Testament times
