

"A parent's role in the education of a child is irreplaceable. As an educator, I must support Hispanic parents in the awesome responsibility of nurturing and guiding their children's academic development. The most practical support I can provide is region-wide programs that teach the concepts in this book. In DuPage we teach Hispanic parents to help their children achieve the American dream."

Reconceptualizing Literacy in the New Age of Multiculturalism and Pluralism Patricia Ruggiano Schmidt, Peter B. Mosenthal, 2001-07-01 This book offers a array of essays with challenging ideas and provoking new analyses of power asymmetries multiple epistemologies and vital concerns for the education of a different America the America of new immigrants people of color with other cultures languages and values The new American that many want to ignore and is becoming the only America This book also forces us to reflect on the educational challenges we must face especially in teacher education and the preparation of intellectual leaders None of the major agenda items associated with a new era of social justice can be either comprehended or accomplished without a profound understanding of multicultural literacy and of its relationship to ethnic racial cultural and linguistic diversity While in previous decades we used frequently a rhetoric of multiculturalism at a safe distance today we are living multiculturalism and practicing ethnic cultural and racial diversity in our daily lives as we seek a marriage partner a business associate a friend a church Most of all we must live multiculturalism as we go school and see children's faces There is no way to escape the reality of ethnic racial and linguistic diversity as it comes entangled with many other cultural and class differences between and within each group we encounter Suddenly an abrupt awakening for many mainstream educators what was peculiar of some areas in the Southwest has become common scenario in most metropolis and large cities The present volume brings us face to face with issues and challenges we can no longer sweep under the rug This outstanding volume lays down a solid general conceptual foundation that permits us to link our theoretical past with the post modern era It also provides a clear context for the discussion of contrasting notions of monocultural literacy and the relationship of literacy and power The volume goes on to deal with the relationship of literacy and culture actually to specific cultures especially African American At this point the discourse turns to strategies for incorporating minority perspectives into the literacy curriculum and including the home cultures of disenfranchised peoples The last section of the book offers help on the practical issues of teacher education for student populations often ignored and linkages between schools and homes in order to empower the disenfranchised and isolated

Mexican Immigrant Parents and the Education of Their Handicapped Children Annette Gault, 1989 IDRA Newsletter, 1994 Revisiting Education in the New Latino Diaspora Edmund Hamann, Stanton Wortham, Enrique G. Murillo, 2015-04-01

For most of US history most of America's Latino population has lived in nine states California Arizona New Mexico Colorado Texas Illinois Florida New Jersey and New York It follows that most education research that considered the experiences of Latino families with US schools came from these same states But in the last 30 years Latinos have been resettling across the US attending schools and creating new patterns of inter ethnic interaction in educational settings Much of this interaction with this New Latino Diaspora has been initially tentative and improvisational but too often it has left intact the patterns of lower educational success that have prevailed in the traditional Latino diaspora

Revisiting Education in the New Latino Diaspora is an extensive update with all new material of the groundbreaking volume Education in the New Latino Diaspora Ablex Publishing that these same editors produced in 2002 This volume consciously includes a number of junior scholars e g C Allen Lynn Soria Colomer Amanda Morales Rebecca Lowenhaupt Adam Sawyer and more established ones Frances Contreras Jason Irizarry Socorro Herrera Linda Harklau as it considers empirical cases from Washington State to Georgia from the Mid Atlantic to the Great Plains where rural suburban and urban communities start their second or third decades of responding to a previously unprecedented growth in newcomer Latino populations With excuses of surprise and improvisational strategies less persuasive as Latino newcomer populations become less new this volume considers the persistence the anomie and pragmatism of Latino newcomers on the one hand with the variously enlightened paternalistic dismissive and xenophobic responses of educators and education systems on the other With foci as personal as accounts of growing up as an adoptee in a mixed race family and the testimonio of a successful undocumented college graduate to the macro scale of examining state level education policies and with an age range from early childhood education to the university level this volume insists that the worlds of education research and migration studies can both gain from considering the educational responses in the last two decades to the newish Latino presence in the 41 U S states that have not long been the home to large well established Latino populations but that now enroll 2.5 million Latino students in K 12 alone

Timely and compelling Revisiting Education in the NLD offers new insight into the Latino Diaspora in the US just as the discussions regarding immigration policy bilingual education and immigrant rights are gaining steam Drawing from a variety of perspectives contributing authors interrogate the very concept of the diaspora The wide range of research in this volume thoughtfully illustrates the nuanced phenomena and provides rich descriptions of complex situations No longer a simple question of immigration the book considers language and legal status in schools international adoption teacher preparation and the relationships between established and relatively new Latino communities in a variety of contexts Comprised of rich thoughtful research Revisiting Education provides a fascinating window into the context of Latino reception nationwide Rebecca M Callahan Associate Professor University of Texas Austin As the leader of a 10 years and counting research study in Mexico that has identified and interviewed transnationally mobile students with prior experience in U S schools I can affirm that in addition to students with backgrounds in California Arizona Texas and Colorado migration links now join schools in Georgia Minnesota Oklahoma Alabama etc to schools in Mexico For that reason and many others I am excited to see this far ranging interdisciplinary new text that considers policy implementation through lenses as different as teacher preparation Latino adoption into culturally mixed families the fate of Latino newcomers in low density districts where there are few like them and the misuse of Spanish teachers as interpreters This is an relevant book for American educators and scholars but also for readers beyond U S borders Hamann Wortham Murillo and their contributors should be celebrated for this fine new collection Dr V ctor Z iga Dean of Research and Extension Universidad de Monterrey
