Supplement* John Crerar Library, 1917 A List of Books on the History of Science. Supplement, December, 1916 John Crerar Library, Aksel Gustav Salomon Josephson, 1917 Dante's Commedia Charles S. Singleton, 2019-12-01 Originally published in 1977 This book contains four essays by Professor Charles Singleton Allegory Symbolism The Pattern at the Center and The Substance of Things Seen These four essays treat four dimensions of meaning essential to understanding the substance and special texture of the poetry of the Divine Comedy One might speak of facets or aspects of meaning if such terms did not suggest surface reflections dependent on the way a work as a jewel is turned for inspection But for Singleton each dimension has a depth that reaches to the core and substance of Dante's poetry so they are in Singleton's view elements of its structure Periods of European Literature, 1907 From the Tree to the Labyrinth Umberto Eco, 2014-02-25 How we create and organize knowledge is the theme of this major achievement by Umberto Eco Demonstrating once again his inimitable ability to bridge ancient medieval and modern modes of thought he offers here a brilliant illustration of his longstanding argument that problems of interpretation can be solved only in historical context A History of Spain, 2 Ulick Ralph Burke, 1900 The Biography of "the Idea of Literature" Adrian Marino, 1996-01-01 A comprehensive examination of the meaning history and evolution of the basic notion of literature from antiquity to the seventeenth century The Reframing of Realism Hazel Gold, 1993 In the writing of Benito Pérez Galdós Spain's most prolific and innovative nineteenth century novelist Hazel Gold finds the act of framing insistently at work By exploring Galdós's methods of structuring and evaluating literary and historical experience Gold illuminates the novelist's art and uncovers the far reaching narratological social and epistemological implications of his framing strategies A close look at Galdós's novels reveals the artist at pains to contain and interpret what he perceived to be the distinctive and often disheartening experience of bourgeois liberalism of his day Looking beyond text to context Gold examines the ways in which Galdós's work itself has been framed by readers and critics in accordance with changing allegiances to contemporary literary theory and the canon The highly ambiguous status of the frame in Galdós's fiction confirms the author's own signal position as a writer poised at the limits between realism and modernity A Dream of Arcadia Lily Litvak, 2014-09-12 The dream of progress that animated many nineteenth century artistic and political movements gave way at the turn of the century to a dissatisfaction with the Industrial Civilization and a recurrent pessimism about a future dominated by mechanization Art

Nouveau which was both a style and a movement embodied this dissatisfaction marking the turn of the century period with an aesthetic that consciously set out to revolutionize literature the arts and society within the framework of a brutalizing wildly burgeoning Industrial Civilization Generally associated with northern European culture Art Nouveau also had a great impact in the south particularly in Spain A Dream of Arcadia is the first work to explore Spain's fertile and imaginative Art Nouveau Through the eyes of four major Spanish writers Lily Litvak views several different aspects of the turn of the century struggle against the advances of industrialism in Spain Her interpretation of the early works of Ramón del Valle Inclán Miguel de Unamuno José Martínez Ruiz Azorín and Pío Baroja exposes a longing for a preindustrial arcadia based on a return to nature the revival of handicrafts and medieval art an attraction to rural primitive societies and a revulsion against the modern city Set against the European literary and artistic background of the period her observations place the Spanish manifestations of Art Nouveau within the context of the better known northern phenomena Of particular interest is her discussion of the influences of John Ruskin William Morris and the Pre Raphaelites which demonstrates how the general European mood was articulated in Spain Litvak concludes that Valle Inclán Unamuno Azorín and Baroja must be considered as more than simply fin de siècle writers for they became part of a general movement generated by Art Nouveau that spans an entire century A Dream of Arcadia demonstrates that Art Nouveau was more than a flash on Europe's artistic horizon it is a philosophy with ramifications that have led to communes handcrafted articles and nomadic adolescents in search of truth
