

The background of the cover is a detailed illustration of a stone statue in a forest. The statue is a classical-style male figure with a beard and long hair, wearing a red cloak. It is positioned on the right side, with its arms extended forward, holding two long, thin, sword-like objects that cross in the air. The statue appears to be made of a light-colored stone, possibly marble. The forest setting is dense with tall, slender tree trunks and thick, gnarled roots hanging down from above. The ground is covered with dry leaves and ferns. The overall tone is somewhat somber and mysterious.
