Mullen, 2012-07-12 With the weakening moral authority of the Catholic Church the boom ushered in by the Celtic Tiger and the slow but steady diminishment of the Troubles in the North Ireland has finally stepped out from the shadows of colonial oppression onto the world stage as a major cosmopolitan country Taking its title from a veiled reference to Roger Casement the humanitarian and Irish patriot hanged for treason in James Joyce's Ulysses The Poor Bugger's Tool demonstrates how the affective labor of Irish queer culture might contribute to a progressive new national image for the Republic and Northern Ireland Looking back to the first wave of Irish modernism in the works of Wilde Synge Casement and Joyce Patrick Mullen reveals how these authors deployed queer aesthetics to shape inclusive forms of national affiliation as well as to sharpen anti imperialist critiques In its second half the monograph turns its attention to Ireland's postmodernist boom in the works of Patrick McCabe Neil Jordan and Jamie O Neill With readings of The Butcher Boy Breakfast on Pluto and At Swim Two Boys Mullen shows that queer sensibilities and style remain key cultural resources for negotiating the political and economic realities of globalization at the turn of the twenty first century Buttressed by writings of theorists like Marx Foucault and Antonio Negri The Poor Bugger's Tool brings Irish literature into a fruitful dialog with gueer theory postcolonial studies the history of sexuality and modernist aesthetics The Touch of Sage Marcia Lynn McClure, 2010-05-27 Following the death of her parents Sage Willows had lovingly nurtured her younger sisters through childhood She loved her sisters She d seen each one married and was glad to see them settled and happy Furthermore she held no resentment at never having found a good man of her own to settle down with Yet regret is different than resentment and far more haunting Still Sage found as much joy as was allowed a lonely young woman in being proprietress of Willows Boardinghouse and in the companionship of the four beloved widow women boarding there Until that is the devilishly handsome Rebel Lee Mitchell appeared It seemed Reb Mitchel instantly and forever vanquished Sage s feigned contentment Dark mysterious and secretly wounded Reb Mitchell utterly captured Sage's lonely heart Nevertheless to Sage Williows the powerfully attractive cowboy admired and coveted by every female in his path seemed entirely unobtainable How could a weathered boardinghouse proprietress resigned to spinsterhood ever hope to hold the attention of such a man And knowing she couldn t would Sage Willows simply sink deeper into the bleak loneliness she d secreted for so long Romance Fiction Kristin Ramsdell, 2012-03-02 A comprehensive guide that defines the literature and the outlines the best selling genre of all time romance fiction More than 2 000 romances are published annually making it difficult for fans and the librarians who advise them to keep pace with new titles emerging authors and constant evolution of this dynamic genre Fortunately romance expert and librarian Kristin Ramsdell provides a definitive guide to this fiction genre that serves as an indispensible resource for those interested in it including fans searching for reading material as well as for library staff scholars and romance writers themselves. This title updates the last edition of Romance Fiction A Guide to the Genre published in 1999 While the emphasis is on newer titles many of the important older classics are retained keeping the focus of the book on the entire genre instead of only those titles published during the last decade Specific changes include new chapters on linked and continuing romances a new section on Chick Lit in the Contemporary Romance chapter an expansion of coverage on the alternative reality subset This is THE romance genre guide to have The Visions of Ransom Lake Marcia Lynn McClure, 2011-09 Youthful beauty naive innocence a romantic imagination thirsting for adventure an apt description of Vaden Valmont who would soon find the adventure and mystery she had always longed to experience in the form of a man A somber recluse Ransom Lake descended from his solitary concealment in the mountains wholly uninterested in people and their trivial affairs And somehow young Vaden managed to be ever in his way either by accident or because of her own unique ability to stumble into a quandary Yet the enigmatic Ransom Lake would involuntarily become Vaden's unwitting tutor Through him she would experience joy and passion the like even Vaden had never imagined Yes Vaden Valmont stepped innocently yet irrevocably into love with the secretive seemingly calloused manRansom Lake But there were other life lessons Ransom Lake would inadvertently teach her as well the darker side of life despair guilt heartache Would Ransom Lake be the means of Vaden s dreams come true Or the cause of her complete desolation A History of Nineteenth Century Literature (1780-1895) George Saintsbury, 1896 A History of Nineteenth Century Literature (1790-1895) George Saintsbury, 1895 Ford Madox Ford and Englishness ,2006-01-01 The controversial British writer Ford Madox Ford 1873 1939 is increasingly recognized as a major presence in early twentieth century literature International Ford Madox Ford Studies has been founded to reflect the recent resurgence of interest in him Each volume is based upon a particular theme or issue each will relate aspects of Ford's work life and contacts to broader concerns of his time Ford is best known for his fiction especially The Good Soldier long considered a modernist masterpiece and Parade s End which Anthony Burgess described as the finest novel about the First World War and Samuel Hynes has called the greatest war novel ever written by an Englishman These works together with his trilogy The Fifth Queen about Henry VIII and Katharine Howard are centrally concerned with the idea of Englishness All these and other works across Ford s prolific oeuvre are studied here Critics of Edwardian and Modernist literature have been increasingly turning to Ford's brilliant 1905 experiment in Impressionism The Soul of London as an exemplary text His trilogy England and the English of which this forms the first part provides a central reference point for this volume which presents Ford as a key contributor to Edwardian debates about the Condition of England His complex ironic attitude to Englishness makes his approach stand out from contemporary anxieties about race and degeneration and anticipate the recent reconsideration of Englishness in response to post colonialism multiculturalism globalization devolution and the expansion and development of the European Community Ford's apprehension of the major social transformations of his age lets us read him as a precursor to cultural studies He considered mass culture and its relation to literary traditions decades before writers like George Orwell the Leavises or Raymond Williams The present book initiates a substantial reassessment to be continued in future volumes in the series of Ford's responses to these cultural transformations his contacts with other writers and his phases of activity as an editor working to transform modern literature From another point of view the essays here also develop the project established in earlier volumes of reappraising Ford's engagement with the city history and modernity Romancing the Rogue Barbara Dawson Smith, 2000-09-15 When Michael Kenyon the Marguess of Stokeford finds his grandmother having her palm read by a gypsy beauty he s convinced that Vivien Thorne is a fortune hunter The Marguess is determined to expose her as a fraud and Vivien is equally determined to claim her rightful heritage Yet neither the spirited gypsy nor the notorious rogue foresee the white hot desire that turns their battle into a daring game where to surrender is unthinkable impossible and altogether irresistible The Bookman ,1897 Moon Awakening Lucy Monroe, 2007-02-06 Book One of the Children of the Moon paranormal series Emily Hamilton volunteers to marry a Scottish laird in order to save her younger sister But she can t save herself from being kidnapped by a werewolf clan and its wild hearted leader The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1868 The Cambridge History of American Literature William Peterfield Trent, John Erskine, Stuart Pratt Sherman, Carl Van Doren, 1917 Cambridge History of American Literature: Colonial and revolutionary literature.
