Congress. House Select Committee on Emancipation and Colonization,1862 A history of emigration Stanley Currie Johnson,1966 Emigrants in Chains Peter Wilson Coldham,1992 In a story largely untold until now Peter Coldham s groundbreaking study demonstrates once and for all that the recruitment of labour for the American colonies was achieved in large measure through the emptying of English prisons workhouses brothels and houses of correction as felons rogues and social outcasts were transported fated to toil in the tobacco growing colonies of Virginia and Maryland Supported by a massive array of documentary evidence and first hand reports the author lays the focus on the emergence and use of transportation as a means of dealing with an unwanted population dwelling at length on the processes involved the men charged with the administration of the system of transportation or engaged in transportation as a business then proceeding with a fascinating look at the transportees themselves their lives and hapless careers and their reception in the colonies Few transportees contrived to return to their native country when their sentences expired and it must be assumed that most such involuntary emigrants were assimilated into colonial society Their untold story may lack the romance of the cavaliers of Virginia and Maryland the heroic ring of a dispossessed aristocracy but it has the stark accent of truth This is a story to challenge common perceptions and attitudes about the peopling of the American colonies     Results of Emancipation and the Immigration Scheme ,1848     Information Published by His Majesty's Commissioners for Emigration Great Britain Emigration Commission,2015-09-19 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant     Emigrants in Chains Peter Wilson Coldham,1992     Commissioners of Emigration, Laws of 1849 New York (State).
