History Of The Muslim World A Since 126:

The Rise of Early Modern Science Toby E. Huff, 2017-06-06 Now in its third edition The Rise of Early Modern Science argues that to understand why modern science arose in the West it is essential to study not only the technical aspects of scientific thought but also the religious legal and institutional arrangements that either opened the doors for enquiry or restricted scientific investigations Toby E Huff explores how the newly invented universities of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and the European legal revolution created a neutral space that gave birth to the scientific revolution Including expanded comparative analysis of the European Islamic and Chinese legal systems Huff now responds to the debates of the last decade to explain why the Western world was set apart from other civilisations History of the Islamic Centre of Southern California 1950-1977 Mostafa Hashem Sherif, 2024-02-09 This book documents the history of the Muslim community in the United States and particularly in California and the foundation and evolution of the Southern California Islamic Center The associated digital archive was built in an ongoing project with the University of California Los Angeles This substantial work of social history analyses the Islamic Center's work from 1953 to 1977 as it tries to establish itself within the mosaic of Southern Californian society The work of the Islamic Centre has hardly been documented in the literature and the social history of the wider Muslim Community in the USA is arguably under researched This is a unique and important contribution of interest to historians social scientists and students of race and religion in America United States History - Part B , Islam and the Modern Age , 1989 Syriac Christianity under Late Sasanian and Early Islamic Rule G.J. Reinink, 2023-07-28 The articles in this volume are concerned with the literary responses of the Syriac communities in the Middle East to the drastic political changes of the 7th and 8th centuries in particular the Persian occupation of the eastern provinces of Byzantium under Khusrau II and the Islamic conquests and Umayyad rule Several studies discuss the influential Syriac works concerning Alexander the Great written shortly after AD 628 which present the Byzantine emperor Heraclius as a new Alexander attention is given to their polemical and propagandistic functions and to their influence on early apocalyptic texts which respond to the Arab conquests and Abd al Malik's religious propaganda at the end of the 7th century Other studies deal with the beginnings of Syriac apologetic literature in response to early Islam discussing texts of the first decades of the 8th century The remaining articles focus on the religious controversies in the East Syrian community in connection with the increasing political influence of the Syrian Orthodox in Persia by the end of the 6th and the beginning of the seventh century and the after effects of Syriac anti Islamic apologetics in a medieval encyclopedic text Living Knowledge in West African Islam Zachary Valentine Wright, 2015-02-04 Living Knowledge in West African Islam examines the actualization of religious identity in the community of Ibrahim Niassé d 1975 Senegal With millions of followers throughout Africa and the world the community arguably represents one of the twentieth century's most successful Islamic revivals Niassé's followers members of the Tij niyya Sufi order gave particular attention to the widespread transmission of the experiential knowledge ma rifa of God They also worked to articulate a global Islamic identity in the crucible of African decolonization The central argument of this book is that West African Sufism is legible only with an appreciation of centuries of Islamic knowledge specialization in the region Sufi masters and disciples reenacted and deepened preexisting teacher student relationships surrounding the learning of core Islamic disciplines such as the Qur n and jurisprudence Learning Islam meant the transformative inscription of sacred knowledge in the student s very being a disposition acquired in the master s exemplary physical presence Sufism did not undermine traditional Islamic orthodoxy the continued transmission of Sufi knowledge has in fact preserved and revived traditional Islamic learning in West Africa      Soup For The Qan Paul D. Buell,Eugene N.

Anderson,2013-10-28 First published in 2000 In the early 14th century a court nutritionist called Hu Sihui wrote his Yinshan Zhengyao a dietary and nutritional manual for the Chinese Mongol Empire Hu Sihui a man apparently with a Turkic linguistic background included recipes descriptions of food items and dietary medical lore including selections from ancient texts and thus reveals to us the full extent of an amazing cross cultural dietary here recipes can be found from as far as Arabia Iran India and elsewhere next to those of course from Mongolia and China Although the medical theories are largely Chinese they clearly show Near Eastern and Central Asian influence This long awaited expanded and revised edition of the much acclaimed A Soup for the Qan sheds yet new light on our knowledge of west Asian influence on China during the medieval period and on the Mongol Empire in general      A History of Physical Theories of Comets, From Aristotle to Whipple

Tofigh Heidarzadeh,2008-05-23 Although the development of ideas about the motion and trajectory of comets has been investigated piecemeal we lack a comprehensive and detailed survey of physical theories of comets The available works either illustrate relatively short periods in the history of physical cometology or portray a landscape view without adequate details The present study is an attempt to review with more details the major physical theories of comets in the past two millennia from Aristotle to Whipple My research however did not begin with antiquity The basic question from which this project originated was a simple inquiry about the cosmic identity of comets at the dawn of the astronomical revolution how did natural philosophers and astronomers define the nature and place of a new category of celestial objects comets after Brahe s estimation of cometary distances It was from this turning point in the history of cometary theories that I expanded my studies in both the pre modern and modern eras A study starting merely from Brahe and ending with Newton without covering classical and medieval thought about comets would be incomplete and leave the fascinating achievements of post Newtonian cometology unexplored      Islam, Science Fiction and Extraterrestrial Life Jörg Matthias Determann,2020-09-17 The Muslim world is not commonly associated with science fiction Religion and repression have often been blamed for a perceived lack of creativity imagination and future oriented thought However even the most authoritarian Muslim majority countries have produced highly imaginative accounts on one of the frontiers of knowledge astrobiology or the study of life in the universe This book argues that the Islamic tradition has been generally supportive of conceptions of extra terrestrial life and in this engaging account Jörg Matthias Determann provides a survey of Arabic Bengali Malay Persian Turkish and Urdu texts and films to show how scientists and artists in and from Muslim majority countries have been at the forefront of the exciting search Determann takes us to little known dimensions of Muslim culture and religion such as wildly popular adaptations of Star Wars and mysterious movements centred on UFOs Repression is shown to have helped science fiction more than hurt it with censorship encouraging authors to disguise criticism of contemporary politics by setting plots in future times and on distant planets The book will be insightful for anyone looking to explore the science culture and politics of the Muslim world and asks what the discovery of extra terrestrial life would mean for one of the greatest faiths Emerging Epistemologies

Ziauddin Sardar, 2022-07-18 Our established age old notions of knowledge have ceased to be meaningful in postnormal times What we define as true knowledge and the ways in which we create it have changed radically The emergence of Big Data and Artificial Intelligence as well as fake news alternative facts deep fake and post truth have changed the nature of knowledge production Established disciplines such as economics sociology anthropology political science have lost their significance Revengeful capitalism based on profit driven algorithms has not only led to environmental destruction but has also ruined our understanding of what actually constitutes knowledge In an era that defines societies by questions of knowledge it becomes necessary and urgent to ask how is knowledge produced how is it distributed and who decides what is true knowledge and what is not Emerging Epistemologies explores the changing nature of knowledge production and investigates how emerging epistemologies are transforming our perceptions of the present and the future The contributors to the volume examine digital landscapes zombie disciplines higher education the role of metaphysics and epistemological justice and argue that epistemology does not exist in a vacuum but is determined and embedded in the worldview and culture of society The chaos and contradiction that accompanies our increasingly complex world requires us to see through the smog of ignorance and seek new ways of thinking and creating knowledge that promotes sustainability diversity social justice and appreciates different ways of knowing being and doing The Legitimacy of Use of Force in Public and Islamic International Law

Mohammad Z. Sabuj, 2021-06-22 This book investigates the legitimacy deficits of two potentially conflicting legal systems namely Public and Islamic international law It discusses the challenges that Public international law is being presented within the context of its relationship with Islamic international law It explores how best to overcome these challenges through a comparative examination of state practices on the use of force It highlights the legal political legacies that evolved surrounding the claims of the legitimacy of use of force by armed non state actors states and regional organizations This book offers a critical analysis of these legacies in line with the Islamic Shari'a law United Nations Charter state practices and customs It concludes that the legitimacy question has reached a vantage point where it cannot be answered either by Islamic or Public international law as a mutually exclusive legal system Instead Public international law must take a coherent approach within the existing legal framework God's Shadow Alan Mikhail, 2020-08-18 An arresting New York Times Book Review revisionist history demonstrating how Islam and the Ottoman Empire made our modern world The history of the Ottoman Empire once the most powerful state on earth ruling over more territory and people than any other world power has for centuries been distorted misrepresented and suppressed in the West With this original and wide ranging Wall Street Journal global history Alan Mikhail vitally recasts the Ottoman conquest of the world through the dramatic biography of Sultan Selim I 1470 1520 Drawing on previously unexamined sources and upending prevailing shibboleths about Islamic history and jingoistic rise of the West theories Mikhail s game changing account radically transforms our understanding of the importance of Selim s Ottoman Empire in the annals of the modern world

Orthodox Christians and Islam in the Postmodern Age Andrew Sharp, 2012-06-27 The patristic ecclesiological and liturgical revival in the Orthodox Church has had a profound impact on world Orthodoxy and the ecumenical movement Orthodox leaders have also contributed to the movement s efforts in inter religious dialogue especially with Muslims Yet this book is the first comprehensive attempt to assess an Orthodox position on Islam It explains why despite being neighbors for centuries relations between Orthodox Christians and Muslims have become increasingly complex as internal and external forces challenge their ability to understand each other and live in peace It demonstrates how a growing number of Orthodox scholars and leaders have reframed the discussion on Islam while endorsing and participating in dialogue with Muslims It shows how a positive relationship with Muslims and Islam in a general sense is an essential aspect of Orthodox Christians historical past present identity and future aspirations

Religion, Culture, and International Conflict Michael Cromartie, 2005 As religiously grounded moral arguments have become ever more influential factors in the national debate particularly reinforced by recent presidential elections and the creation of the faith based initiative office in the White House journalists ignorance about theological convictions has often worked to distort the public discourse on important policy issues Since the Ethics and Public Policy Center through the generosity of the Pew Charitable Trusts has hosted six conferences for national journalists to help raise the level of their reporting by increasing their understanding of religion religious communities and the religious convictions that inform the political activity of devout believers This book contains the presentations and conversations that grew out of those conferences
