Excerpt: HISTORY OF THE WACO BAPTIST ASSOCIATION From Its Organization In 1860 To The Year 1897 CHAPTER II FIRST HALF OF FIRST DECADE HISTORY FROM DATE OF ORGANIZATION TO CLOSE OF THE CIVIL WAR 1860 1864 The territory of Waco Association was originally part of the field of Trinity River Association and later of both Trinity River and Richland. Prior to the formation of the Waco Association the rich country of Falls and McLennan counties was but sparsely settled. It was the Texas frontier. Except in the Brazos bottom the lands were thought to be worthless save for grazing purposes. Wild beasts, long horn cattle and skulking Indians disputed every acre of the territory with the advancing tide of population. Here and there little settlements formed villages came into existence and the wild desert rapidly changed into fruitful fields of corn and broad snowy patches of cotton. With the first people came Baptists who organized themselves into churches at Waco, Marlin, Bosqueville, Bold Springs, Union Springs, White Rock, Blue Ridge, Cow Bayou, now Mooreville, Caddo and Perry, now Moody. Waco, Marlin, Bosque, now Bosqueville, Perry, Blue Ridge and Caddo previously held membership in Trinity River Association. Perry church withdrew from Trinity River in 1859 and united with Leon River. Afterwards went into the organization of McGregor Association. It did not unite with Waco Association till 1890. While Rock, Bold Springs and Union Springs were connected with Richland Association. At the meeting of Richland third session with Bold Springs church, October 15, 1860, the following was adopted: Whereas it is contemplated by some of the churches of this Association to enter into a new Association to be formed at Waco on Friday before the History of the Waco Baptist Association of Texas J. L. Walker, C. P. Lumpkin, 2013-05 History of the Waco Baptist Association of Texas By J. L. Walker and C. P. Lumpkin Introduction The Baptists have been negligent concerning their history. This is true not only with reference to important associational history but of historical events in the wider fields of denominational activity. In view of this widespread delinquency concerning this most important matter it is supremely gratifying to note the compilation of so valuable a work as brethren Walker and Lumpkin have given to the Baptists of Waco Association and the state at large. There are several points about the history of Waco Association worthy of special note. Great labor has been expended in gathering materials and most diligent research has been made to secure correct data of every church, preacher or leading worker within our bounds. The life sketches have been carefully prepared and are true records of the lives of the brethren whom we know and love so well. The work is a veritable picture album and the cuts presented would do credit to a book of much larger pretensions than the one before us. The organization of Waco Association was foundation work. The men who laid this foundation were among the greatest and wisest men our state has ever known. The constitution of the Association was at that

day unique and struck boldly into new thoughts and plans for the great world wide work of apostolic evangelization It was just such a constitution as was needed for the foundation of a great Association and that those who laid this Association builded well is evidenced in the fact that Waco Association is to day the leading Association of Texas in its contributions to missions in the compactness of its organization and in its supreme loyalty to the general organized work of the denomination The Articles of Faith are the most widely accepted compendium of Baptist principles known to me They were adopted by Waco Association before Pendleton s Manual was published and only one year after the publication of the first edition of Hiscox s Directory In some respects it is a more carefully worded document than is found in either Hiscox or Pendleton If I were asked to suggest a model declaration of Baptist principles I would not go further than the Articles of Faith of Waco Association Of course these Articles are popularly known as the New Hampshire confession Not only do I most heartily commend the work to all the churches of the Waco Association but bespeak for it state wide circulation It seems to me that it is rendering good service to our people to place such a history within their reach It will not only be useful to Waco Association but may be made very helpful to others and I indulge the hope that it may lead to the Windham Press is committed to bringing the lost cultural heritage of ages past into the 21st century through high quality reproductions of original classic printed works at affordable prices This book has been carefully crafted to utilize the original images of antique books rather than error prone OCR text This also preserves the work of the original typesetters of these classics unknown craftsmen who laid out the text often by hand of each and every page you will read Their subtle art involving judgment and interaction with the text is in many ways superior and more human than the mechanical methods utilized today and gave each book a unique hand crafted feel in its text that connected the reader organically to the art of bindery and book making We think these benefits are worth the occasional imperfection resulting from the age of these books at the time of scanning and their vintage feel provides a connection to the past that goes beyond the mere words of the text History of the Waco Baptist Association of Texas James Lafayette Walker,J P Lumpkin,2015-08-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant History of the Waco Baptist Association of Texas
