

The background of the book cover is a historical painting. It depicts a theatrical performance in a landscape. In the foreground, several figures are visible, including a woman in a black and white patterned dress and a man in a white and black patterned dress. In the middle ground, two men in white and red costumes are playing large, bag-like instruments. The background shows a landscape with trees, a body of water, and a small building. The overall style is that of a 17th or 18th-century painting.
