

The book cover features a vibrant, stylized illustration. At the top, a large, bright yellow sun is partially obscured by a colorful, abstract pattern of small squares and rectangles in shades of blue, purple, and green. Below the sun, a large, rolling green hill dominates the middle ground. On this hill, four children are depicted in various poses: one is sitting and reading a book, another is standing and looking towards the right, a third is lying on the grass and writing on a notepad, and a fourth is walking towards the right. The overall style is colorful and artistic, suggesting a focus on creativity and learning.

concepts while responding to a story's illustrations, theme, characters, and plot. The lessons also demonstrate how teachers can use children's literature to meet national standards in math, science, and social studies. Chapters 1 through 5 set the stage for using picture books, discussing the effective, imaginative integration of literature into the classroom. Teachers will learn to create an environment that ensures that when children and books come together, the experience is enjoyable and thought provoking. Chapters 6 through 9 provide individual lessons by grade level with detailed activities based on specific books.
