Language As Symbolic Action Kenneth Burke,1966 From the Preface The title for this collection was the title of a course in literary criticism that I gave for many years at Bennington College And much of the material presented here was used in that course The title should serve well to convey the gist of these various pieces For all of them are explicitly concerned with the attempt to define and track down the implications of the term symbolic action and to show how the marvels of literature and language look when considered from that point of view Language as Symbolic Action Kenneth Burke,1966 Language as Symbolic Action Kenneth Burke,1968 Language as Symbolic Action Kenneth Burke, iconic American symbols tobacco farms are gradually disappearing It is difficult for many people to lament the loss of a crop that has come to symbolize addiction disease and corporate deception yet in Kentucky the plant has played an important role in economic development and prosperity Burley tobacco a light air cured variety used in cigarette production has long been the Commonwealth's largest cash crop and an important aspect of regional identity along with bourbon bluegrass music and Thoroughbred horses In Burley Kentucky Tobacco in a New Century Ann K Ferrell investigates the rapidly transforming process of raising and selling tobacco by chronicling her conversations with the farmers who know the crop best She demonstrates that although the 2004 buyout ending the federal tobacco program is commonly perceived to be the most significant change that growers have had to negotiate it is in reality only one new factor among many Burley reveals the tangible and intangible challenges tobacco farmers face today from the logistics of cultivation to the growing stigma against the crop Ferrell uses ethnography archival research and rhetorical analysis to tell the complex story of burley tobacco production in twenty first century Kentucky Not only does she give a voice to the farmers who persevere in this embattled industry but she also sheds light on their futures contesting the widely held assumption that they can easily replace the crop by diversifying their operations with alternative crops As tobacco fades from both the physical and economic landscapes this nuanced volume documents and explores the culture and practices of burley production today

Situating Composition

Ede, Lisa, 2004 Responding to a growing pedagogical paralysis in debates over the nature and status of composition studies as an academic discipline Lisa Ede offers a provocative inquiry into the politics of composition's place in the academy The result is a timely and engaging reflection on the rhetoric ideology and ethics of scholarship and instruction in composition studies today

Rhetoric and Ethics in the Cybernetic Age Jeff Pruchnic, 2013-08-15 It has become increasingly difficult to ignore the ways that the centrality of new media and technologies from the global networking of information systems and social media to new possibilities for altering human genetics seem to make obsolete our traditional ways of thinking about ethics and persuasive communication inherited from earlier humanist paradigms This book argues that rather than devoting our critical energies towards critiquing humanist touchstones we should instead examine the ways in which media and technologies have always worked as crucial cultural forces in shaping ethics and rhetoric Pruchnic combines this historical itinerary with critical interrogations of diverse cultural and technological sites the logic of video games and artificial intelligence the ethics of life extension in contemporary medicine the transition to computer automated trading in world stock markets the state of critical theory in the contemporary humanities along with innovative analyses of the works of such figures as the Greek Sophists Kenneth Burke Martin Heidegger Michel Foucault Friedrich Nietzsche and Gilles Deleuze This book argues that our best strategies for crafting persuasive communication and producing ethical relations between individuals will be those that creatively replicate and appropriate rather than resist the logics of dominant forms of media and technology

Zornberg, 2022-03-29 A masterly analysis of the Book of Leviticus the newest volume in the award winning series of commentaries on the Hebrew Bible by a celebrated biblical scholar keen on weaving together traditional Jewish exegesis psychoanalysis and postmodern criticism The New York Times Book Review The image of the Golden Calf haunts the commentaries that thread through Leviticus This catastrophic episode in which the Israelites freed from Egyptian slavery and forty days after their momentous encounter with God at Mount Sinai worship a pagan idol while Moses is receiving the Torah from God on the mountaintop gives the mostly legalistic text a unique depth and resonance According to midrashic tradition the post traumatic effects of the sin of the Golden Calf linger through the generations the sin to be paid off in small increments through time Post biblical perspectives view this as the diffusion of punishment as well as a way of addressing the on going phenomenon of idolatry itself These after effects of the Golden Calf incident are imaginatively explored in Avivah Zornberg's magnificent textual analysis She brings the rabbis of the Talmud medieval commentators Hasidic scholars philosophers psychoanalysts and literary masters from Aristotle and Rashi to the Baal Shem Tov Franz Rosenzweig Sigmund Freud and George Eliot into her pathbreaking discussion of the nature of reward and punishment good and evil Eros and Thanatos and humankind's intricate and ever fascinating encounter with the divine Kenneth Burke and His Circles Jack Selzer, Robert Wess, 2008-07-24 Kenneth Burke and His Circles consists of original papers focusing on the intellectual circles in which Burke participated during his long career Instead of concentrating on Burke himself as most recent scholarship has done this book considers Burke as one participant in a host of important overlapping intellectual movements that took place over the course of the twentieth century
