Introduction

The Last Virgin in Paradise is an enjoyable and fascinating comedy, which is very resourceful in the study of culture because it focuses on cultural aspects of small communities and ethnicities. In the comedy, there is an emphasis on adjustment of the play to match cultural beliefs of the target audience so that the comedy becomes relevant to the society.

This is clear because the play uses Hawaiian language and brings the people of the Pacific Island together. Moreover, the comedy employs political aspects in a comical manner and utilizes literary devices, which make the comedy very informative to the readers.

The comedy has a number of players like Temanu, Jean, Hina, and Helmut. Furthermore, the comedy presents societal challenges in terms of cultural practices and political identities. Therefore, the essay analyses the comedy, the Last Virgin in Paradise, using theories such as literary studies, feminism (gender and politics), and orientalism to present issues that relate to culture, politics, gender roles, stereotypes, and societal beliefs.

Orientalism Theory

Some of the themes that the theory highlights in the comedy, the Last Virgin in Paradise, include culture, education, authority, and social interactions. In the comedy, Helmut demonstrates how culture values education when he tells Temanu that he will take Hina to school and give her a good education.

The theme of education comes out when Temanu says, "I will send her to school and give her an education" (Hereniko and Teaiwa 16). Thus, through Helmut the play displays how society perceives education. In addition, the comedy also incorporates cultural aspects into the play.
