Aging in the New

Millennium Terry Tirrito, 2003 Due to advances in medical technology better health care and improvements in lifestyle habits the 21st century brings unprecedented changes in life expectancy and increased numbers of older adults globally As the elder population grows so does the knowledge of and interest in gerontology Gerontology constantly sees new developments in research the emergence of areas of study such as financial gerontology and elder ethics and the introduction of programmes and services for the aging This work explains the biology of aging along with the social and psychological implications of the process It looks at diseases and disorders affecting the aged as well as their treatment It reports on the demographics of older Americans the impact of changes in life expectancy worldwide theories regarding longevity and lifestyle attitudes of a younger population toward an aging one and public support programmes and services for older adults

Community Resources for Older Adults Robbyn R. Wacker, Karen A. Roberto, 2007-12-17 How have programs for older adults evolved Who uses these resources How are they delivered And what challenges do service providers face in meeting the needs of the aging baby boom generation Community Resources for Older Adults Programs and Services in an Era of Change Third Edition answers these and other critical questions by providing a theoretical framework for understanding the forces that shape older adults likelihood to seek assistance The Sociology of Education Jeanne Ballantine, Floyd M Hammack, 2015-07-22 A comprehensive and cross cultural look at the sociology of education The text integrates important and diverse topics in the field by showing how they are related The Sociology of Education A Systematic Analysis provides a sociological analysis of education using several theoretical approaches The authors include practical applications and current educational issues to discuss the structure and processes that make education systems work Learning Goals Upon completing this book readers should be able to Learn diverse theoretical approaches in the sociology of education Assess important current or emerging topics including higher education informal education climate and the hidden curriculum the school environment education around the world and educational movements and alternatives Understand how change takes place and what role sociologists play Become involved with educational systems where they can put to use the knowledge available in textbooks Handbook of Sociology of Aging Richard A. Settersten, Jr., Jacqueline L. Angel, 2011-05-11 The Handbook of Sociology of Aging is the most comprehensive engaging and up to date treatment of developments within the field over the past 30 years The volume represents an indispensable source of the freshest and highest standard scholarship for scholars policy makers and aging professionals alike The Handbook of Sociology of Aging contains 45 far reaching chapters authored by nearly 80 of the most renowned experts on the most pressing topics related to aging today With its recurring attention to the social forces that shape human aging and the social consequences and policy implications of it the contents will be of interest to everyone who cares about what aging means for individuals families and societies The chapters of the Handbook of Sociology of Aging illustrate the field s extraordinary breadth and depth which has never before been represented in a single volume Its contributions address topics that range from foundational matters such as classic and contemporary theories and methods to topics of longstanding and emergent interest such as social diversity and inequalities social relationships social institutions economies and governments social vulnerabilities public health and care arrangements The volume closes with a set of personal essays by senior scholars who share their experiences and hopes for the field and an essay by the editors that provides a roadmap for the decade ahead The Handbook of Sociology of Aging showcases the very best that sociology has to offer the study of human aging

An Evidence-based Approach to the Treatment and Care of the Older Adult with Cancer Diane G. Cope, Anne M. Reb, 2006 Description The book offers a comprehensive overview of the treatment and care of the older adult with cancer The evidence based practice approach is timely and provides the foundation for nursing practice that is the expected standard of care The use of the case study at the end of each chapter assists the reader in the synthesis and application of the information The book addresses every aspect of the care and treatment of not only the cancer patient but also the family The chapter on complementary therapy is a bonus Purpose The purpose is to focus on the unique aspects of treatment and care that the older adult with cancer requires Addressing the older adult with cancer is of paramount importance to not only the health of the individual but of the family community and society The book meets the author's objectives Audience This is written for all healthcare providers The authors have written a book that can be used by geriatric oncology nurses but it is appropriate for the multidisciplinary team that provides care to the older adult with cancer The authors have the professional background with applicable experience to edit this book Features This book covers more than the care and treatment of cancer in the older adult It provides necessary background information that demonstrates the impact of cancer on the older patient and their significant others The assessment information is useful for both experienced and novice nurses The use of chapter case studies enables healthcare providers to apply the chapter content The use of an evidence based practice approach to delivering healthcare is essential The information allows nurses to use the findings from reviewed research literature in providing the best care for their patients in an efficient manner that also considers patient preferences the risks and the benefits of treatment or lack thereof Assessment This book provides guidance to novice to expert nurses in the treatment and care of the older adult cancer patient using a holistic approach The chapters are well written by authors who are experts in their field The Cochrane Guidelines are considered the gold standard for evaluating research that impacts treatment selection and care of all patients Their use in the reference materials lends credibility to the information that is presented in the book Publisher Social Dynamics of the Life Course Walter R. Heinz, Victor W. Marshall, In the last two decades research on the life course has successfully combined and integrated different and rather isolated fields of social concerns such as the labor market family solidarity education employment retirement and social policy It has also developed a special focus on crucial problems of sociological research which includes the understanding of micro-macro phenomena the dynamics of social change and international comparisons Contributors to this volume take an international comparative approach in applying the life course theoretical framework to issues of work and career Life course research focuses on the relationship between institutions and individuals across the life span and illuminates the impact of modernization on the shaping of biographies Industrial service societies are characterized by historically new contingencies of living arrangements and biographies These contingencies differ according to the extent to which life course patterns are regulated by social institutions In the continental European context institutional frameworks continue to define the timing and sequencing of transitions across the life course In less regulated market societies like the United States and Great Britain biographies and living arrangements are shaped more by the interaction of markets social networks and individual decisions In active welfare states institutional resources and rules continue to mediate the effects of social change on the life course What the editors and contributors to this fine compendium anticipate is a change on the cultural level toward more equality This trend supports young people and women in particular in their expectations concerning an egalitarian relationship This expectation is not taken for granted from the point of view of the male partner but has to be negotiated in decisionmaking processes as an issue that concerns the couple as a unit Thus the way in which people interact is profoundly impacted by the values and goals of equity demands Walter R Heinz is professor of sociology and social psychology and director Graduate School of Social Sciences University of Bremen Victor W Marshall is professor of sociology and director of the Institute on Aging University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Carolina
