Lauchlin Of The Bad Heart:

Lauchlin Of The Bad Heart D. R. Macdonald, 2012-05-15 There was a time at 22 when Lauchlin MacLean was a promising welterweight and the Cape Breton gyms were full of fighters that was a time when his heart was strong and fit Maybe if he d become a ranked fighter he might have moved on clearly and fluidly with his life Maybe that might have swept him off this island of safety sanctuary and family roots that run as deep as the surrounding waters He might even have followed Morag to Boston Now in his fifties Lauchlin is disturbed from his life of what ifs by a growing attraction to a beautiful blind woman the wife of a friend Drawn to her first for friendship Lauchlin finds that Tena has awakened something buried deep within him But others in the tightly knit island community are watching and waiting Lauchlin unknowingly has become entangled in a sinister plot of revenge born in the dark forests that crowd the village Now he must make a choice to trust in a heart that he has ignored for a very long time With sharply realized characters lyrical pacing and haunting treatment of the Cape Breton landscape Lauchlin of the Bad Heart is sure to garner the critical acclaim that surrounded D R MacDonald s previous bestselling novel Cape Breton Road Once again he conjures a masterwork part love story part suspense tale and part quest for home and heart
