Literary and Historical Essays (Classic Reprint) Thomas Davis, 2015-07-06 Excerpt from Literary and Historical Essays In this volume I have endeavoured to do for Thomas Davis what I once hoped to see him do for himself to gather together such of his historical and literary Miscellanies as were mainly devoted to the illustration of Ireland I have done so with care and reverence and I believe they will be found to make a rich and suggestive book and one with a true soul in it In selecting them I kept in view as I know he would have desired not fame for the dead but usefulness to the living I chose such as were most likely to awaken and instruct the People and contribute to the purpose for which Davis lived He has written nothing wanting vitality and power but those who have still to become familiar with his writings must not think they have materials for an estimate of him here He has done greater and more striking things This is but the reflection of one phase of his mind About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses
