The John P. Branch Historical Papers of Randolph-Macon College, Vol. 5 (Classic Reprint) Randolph-Macon Historical Society, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from The John P. Branch Historical Papers of Randolph Macon College Vol 5 This brief biography of John Floyd one of Virginia's unique characters of the first half of the last century was made possible by the acquisition of his papers by the Library of Congress and by an opportunity to use his long forgotten diary His defense of the interests of the frontier his fight for the Oregon country his uncompromising stand for the state sovereignty theory of government his bitter hostility to the administration of Andrew Jackson and his part in the formation of the Whig party entitle him to a place among the statesmen and politicians of his day To his contemporaries he was a visionary known and ridiculed as Old Oregon Now he is honored as the Father of the Oregon Country his celebrated report of 1821 on our rights and interests in the Columbia Valley bearing the same relation to the occupation and settlement of that part of the United States as does Richard Hakluyt's famous Discourse on Western Planting to the founding of the English colonies in America Mr Floyd's Diary published herewith covers the period from March 1831 to February 1834 and is reproduced in full excepting only the daily comments of its author upon the weather and other commonplace subjects The parts here given cast some new light upon the purposes and methods of the opposition to Jackson and upon the social life and happenings of Washington in the Jacksonian period It is hoped that the lapse of time and the demands for a more scientific study of the past will be sufficient reasons for the publication of this source in the unexpurgated form in which it here appears About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the
