5th International Congress on , The International Politics of Fashion Andreas Behnke, 2016-07-07 This book seeks to address and fill a puzzling omission in contemporary critical IR scholarship Following on from the aesthetic turn in IR critical and postmodern IR has produced an impressive array of studies into movies literature music and art and the way these media produce mediate and represent international politics By contrast the proponents of the aesthetic turn have overlooked fashion as a source of knowledge about global politics Yet stories about the political role of fashion abound in the news media Margaret Thatcher used dress to define her political image and more recently the fascination with Michelle Obama Carla Bruni and other women in similar positions and the discussions about the appropriateness of their wardrobes regularly makes the news In Sudan a female writer and activist successfully challenged the government over her right to wear trousers in public and in Europe the debate on women's headscarves has politicised a garment item and turned it into a symbol of fundamentalism and oppression In response the contributors to this book investigate the politics of fashion from a variety of perspectives addressing theoretical as well as empirical issues establishing the critical study of fashion and its protagonists as a central contribution to the aesthetic turn in international politics The politics of fashion go beyond these examples of the uses and abuses of textiles and fabrics for political purposes extending into its very grammar and vocabulary This book will be a unique contribution to the field and will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations critical IR theory and popular culture and world politics

The International Workshop Conference Natalia Fefelova, 2013-11-15 The excellent results obtained from the realization of the two day meeting on Modern information and communication technologies in higher education new education programs with the pedagogic use of e learning and education improvement is for the University of Rome La Sapienza a great source of pride at international level Although being the Rector of one of the oldest universities in Europe the foundation of La Sapienza goes back to a papal bull of April 20 1303 I did not look for scientific legitimacy nor attract students resorting to the tradition and to the past On the contrary along with my closest collaborators the teaching and the administrative staff we have tried to move our University forward accepting all the challenges of the third millennium to scientific research and to high level training within the Italian education system Our motto after all is the future passed here Luigi Frati National Brands and Global Markets Nikolas Glover, David M. Higgins, 2023-02-02 Between Brexit efforts to Make America great again and ongoing appeals for patriotic consumption to boost economies the intersection between national identity marketing campaigns and consumer choices has been brought to the fore This book maps out this terrain and provides a framework for how research on Made in campaigns and programmes in individual countries can be placed into a broader historical context The book argues that the history of Made in can be used to shed light on society at large the actors that have promoted it the institutions that have regulated it and the cultural environments that have attributed it meaning At times Made in has been a basic descriptive trade mark while in other periods it has been a key component of carefully developed commercial brands and in yet other instances it has been used in attempts to forge and redefine national identities The book opens with an introduction to the three key factors which have featured prominently in Made in campaigns commercial logic national economic policy and its use as an instrument in political discourse and it provides an overview of the evolution of Made in from a marketing perspective This is followed by country specific discussions of Made in with case studies including countries in Western Europe the US Japan and the antipodes This book will be of significant interest to students and scholars of economic history business history and marketing Chapter 7 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Fashionable Encounters Tove Engelhardt Mathiassen, Marie-Louise Nosch, Maj Ringgaard, Kirsten Toftegaard, Mikkel Venborg Pederson, 2014-05-30 At the heart of this anthology lies the world of fashion a concept that pervades the realm of clothes and dress appearances and fashionable manners interior design ideas and attitudes Here sixteen papers focus on the Nordic world Denmark Norway Sweden Finland Iceland the Faroe Isles and Greenland within the time frame AD 1500 1850 This was a period of rapid and far reaching social political and economic change from feudal Europe through political revolution industrialisation development of international trade religious upheaval and technological innovation changes impacting on every aspect of life and reflected in equally rapid and widespread changes in fashion at all levels of society These papers present a broad image of the theme of fashion as a concept and as an empirical manifestation in the Nordic countries in early modernity exploring a variety of ways in which that world encountered fashionable impressions in clothing and related aspects of material culture from Europe the Russian Empire and far beyond The chapters range from object based studies to theory driven analysis Elite and sophisticated fashions the importation of luxuries and fashion garments christening and bridal wear silk knitted waistcoats woollen sweaters and the influence of the whaling trade on women s clothing are some of the diverse topics considered as well as religious influences on perceptions of luxury and aspects of the garment trade and merchant inventories
