Henry Hart Milman,2017-10-20 Excerpt from History of Latin Christianity Vol 4 of 9 Including That of the Popes to the Pontificate of Nicolas V The Papacy has still the more splendid part of its destiny to accomplish It has shown vital power enough to recover from its seemingly irreparable degradation It might have been supposed that a moral and religious depravation so profound would utterly have destroyed that reverence of opinion which was the one groundwork Of the Papal power The veil had been raised and Italy at least if not Europe had seen within it not a reflex of divine majesty and holiness but an idol not only hideous to the pure moral sentiment but contemptible for its weakness If centuries of sanctity had planted deeply in the heart of man his veneration for the successor of St Peter it would have been paralysed the world might expect and extinguished by more than a century Of odious and unchristian vices A spiritual succession must be broken and interrupted by such unspiritual inheritors Could the head of Christendom living in the most nihil christian wickedness perpetuate his descent and hand down the patrimony of power and authority with nothing of that piety and goodness which was at least one of his titles to that transcendent power About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work
