Question 1: Synthesis Essay

Directions: The following prompt is based on the accompanying sources.

This question requires you to synthesize a variety of sources into a coherent, well-written essay. Synthesis refers to combining the sources and your position to form a cohesive, supported argument and accurately citing sources. Your argument should be central; the sources should support this argument. Avoid merely summarizing sources.

Remember to attribute both direct and indirect citations.

Introduction

The concept of “home” is fundamental to our understanding of who we are, as individuals and as a society. Some argue that our physical location is what dictates “home,” and we should actively foster geographic continuity and a sense of “place.” Others argue that “home” is, rather, a state of mind, and that we are better served when we move and migrate to situations that are more advantageous to us and our families.

Assignment

Read the following sources (including the introductory information) carefully. Then, write an essay in which you develop a position on whether it is more advantageous (for the individual and/or the community) to physically relocate frequently or to remain for long periods in one place.

You may refer to the sources by their titles (Source A, Source B, etc.) or by the descriptions in parentheses.

Source A (Sanders)

Source B (Homeward)

Source C (The Great Migration Map)

Source D (Motley)

Source E (Rogers and Brooks)

Realities and Aspirations for Asian Youth Suzanne Naafs, Tracey Skelton, 2020-06-09. This comprehensive volume explores the remarkable expansion of higher education systems and institutions in Asia in recent decades alongside changing forms of consumerism, mobility, and global economic conditions. It demonstrates how recent changes in training, education, and employment have sparked new aspirations for possible and desirable livelihoods among the younger generation while also generating fresh problems and tensions. The authors in this volume critically interrogate the links between education and employment, normative understandings about youth and adulthood, as well as personal, national, and regional level aspirations for economic success. Comparative chapters on Cambodia, China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Japan, Laos, Nepal, Singapore, and Taiwan illustrate how young people are having to forge innovative pathways into the future while being confronted with ever-increasing insecurities. Offering important insights into the kinds of education and employment landscapes that Asian youth are navigating, reworking, or trying to avoid, this collection is an essential reference for students and scholars of Asian Studies, Cultural Anthropology, Development Studies, Human Geography, and Youth Studies. This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Children's Geographies.

The Politics of English Second Language Writing Assessment in Global Contexts Todd Ruecker, Deborah Crusan, 2018-04-17. Reflecting the internationalization of the field of second language writing, this book focuses on political aspects and pedagogical issues of writing instruction and testing in a global context. High-stakes assessment impacts the lives of second language L2 writers and their teachers around the world, be it the College English Test in China, Common Core-aligned assessments in the U.S., English proficiency tests in Poland, or the material conditions such as access to technology, training, and other resources affecting a classroom. With contributions from authors working in ten different countries in a variety of institutional contexts, the chapters examine the uses and abuses of various writing-related assessments and the policies that determine their form and use. Representing a diverse range of contexts, methods, and disciplines, the authors jointly call for more equitable testing systems that consider the socioeconomic, psychometric, affective, institutional, and needs of all students who strive to gain access to education and employment opportunities related to English language proficiency.
