Last Horizons Directors Cut:

The Director'S Cut Erik L. Strandness,2014-03-13 Believer and unbeliever alike are subtly evangelized every day of their lives by the ambient glow of Gods cinematic masterpiece They sense something grand but are confused by the incoherent cultural edits scattered throughout the film The Good News is that the deleted scenes are not lost but can be found in our shared human experiences and once spliced back together reveal an epic of Biblical proportions The Directors Cut of the Greatest Story Ever Told Dr Erik Strandness takes a unique bottom up approach to apologetics by investigating experiences common to all people and concluding that they can only be adequately understood through a Biblical filter The goal is to empower lay Christians to condently share their faith in a concrete friendly real world context that effectively engages the day to day realities of their audience Dr Strandness writes in a clear engaging and witty style combining the thoughts of many great Christian thinkers with culturally relevant illustrations in order to make a solid real world case for the Christian worldview Once in a while someone manages to put ageless truth in such a fresh package that it cries out Read on Thats the way I felt when reviewing Erik Strandnesss book What a pleasure it is to read But its not just Eriks engaging word images that make it such a great read Its the profound and timely message he is communicating in such an intelligent and winsome way This is a book you will be telling others about Dr Christian Overman Director Worldview Matters biblicalworldview com Cult Sci-Fi Movies Ben Hudson,2024-06-10 Welcome to a world where reality and imagination collide where robots roam freely alongside humans and where spaceships travel through the vast expanse of the universe In this book we will explore the fascinating world of science fiction films delving into the futuristic worlds advanced technologies and otherworldly creatures that have captivated audiences for generations So sit back grab your popcorn and get ready to embark on a thrilling journey through the realms of science fiction cinema Fifty Filmmakers Andrew J.

Rausch,2015-03-21 This book is an extensive collection of original interviews with 50 noted filmmakers Conducted over a seven year period expressly for this project the interviews cover various aspects of film production biographical information and the interviewees favorite or most influential films Filmmakers interviewed include highly respected auteurs Richard Linklater Wim Wenders B movie greats Roger Corman Lloyd Kaufman and well renowned documentary directors D A Pennebaker Albert Maysles Each entry includes a brief biography and filmography while dozens of personal photographs promotional materials and film stills appear throughout the work From El Dorado to Lost Horizons Ken

Windrum,2019-03-25 The era known as the Hollywood Renaissance is celebrated as a time when revolutionary movies broke all the rules of the previous classical era as part of the ferment of the late 1960s and early 1970s Yet many films during this era did not overtly smash the system but provided more traditional entertainment based on popular genres for a wider audience than the youth culture who flocked to more transgressive fare Ken Windrum focuses on four genres of traditionalist movies big budget musicals war spectacles naughty sex comedies and Westerns From El Dorado to Lost Horizons shows how even seemingly innocuous family oriented films still participated in the progressive aspects of the time while also holding a conservative point of view Windrum analyzes representations of issues including gender roles marriage sexuality civil rights and Cold War foreign policy revealing how these films dealt with changing times and reflected both status quo positions and new attitudes He also examines how the movies continued or deviated from classical principles of structure and style Windrum provides a counter history of the Hollywood Renaissance by focusing on a group of important films that have nevertheless been neglected in scholarly accounts

Warning Shadows Gary Giddins, 2010-04-19 A brilliantly insightful and witty examination of beloved and little known films directors and stars by one of America's most esteemed critics In his illuminating new work Gary Giddins explores the evolution of film from the first moving pictures and peepshows to the digital era of DVDs and online video streaming New technologies have changed our experience of cinema forever we have peeled away from the crowded theater to be home alone with classic cinema Recounting the technological developments that films have undergone Warning Shadows travels through time and across genres to explore the impact of the industry's most famous classics and forgotten gems Essays such as Houdini Escapes From the Vaults Of the Past Edward G Robinson See and Prestige and Pretension Pride and Prejudice capture the wit and magic of classic cinema Each chapter ranging from the horror films of Hitchcock to the fantastical frames of Disney provides readers with engaging analyses of influential films and the directors and actors who made them possible

The Encyclopedia of Epic Films Constantine Santas, James M. Wilson, Maria Colavito, Djoymi Baker, 2014-03-21 Soon after film came into existence the term epic was used to describe productions that were lengthy spectacular live with action and often filmed in exotic locales with large casts and staggering budgets The effort and extravagance needed to mount an epic film paid off handsomely at the box office for the genre became an immediate favorite with audiences Epic films survived the tribulations of two world wars and the Depression and have retained the basic characteristics of size and glamour for more than a hundred years Length was and still is one of the traits of the epic though monolithic three to four hour spectacles like Gone with the Wind 1939 and Lawrence of Arabia 1962 have been replaced today by such franchises as the Harry Potter films and the Lord of the Rings trilogy Although the form has evolved during many decades of existence its central elements have been retained refined and modernized to suit the tastes of every new generation The Encyclopedia of Epic Films identifies describes and analyzes those films that meet the criteria of the epic sweeping drama panoramic landscapes lengthy adventure sequences and in many cases casts of thousands This volume looks at the wide variety of epics produced over the last century from the silent spectacles of D W Griffith and biblical melodramas of Cecil B DeMille to the historical dramas of David Lean and rollercoaster thrillers of Steven Spielberg Each entry contains Major personnel behind the camera including directors and screenwriters Cast and character listings Plot summary Analysis Academy Award wins and nominations DVD and Blu ray availability Resources for further study This volume also includes appendixes of foreign epics superhero spectaculars and epics produced for television along with a list of all the directors in the book Despite a lack of overall critical recognition and respect as a genre the epic remains a favorite of audiences and this book pays homage to a form of mass entertainment that continues to fill movie theaters The Encyclopedia of Epic Films will be of interest to academics and scholars as well as any fan of films made on a grand scale Detours and Lost Highways Foster Hirsch,1999 Detours and Lost Highways begins with the Orson Welles film Touch of Evil 1958 which featured Welles both behind and in front of the camera That movie is often cited as the end of the line noir s rococo tombstone the film after which noir could no longer be made or at least could no longer be made in the same way It is my belief Hirsch writes that neo noir does exist and that noir is entitled to full generic status Over the past forty years since noir s often claimed expiration it has flourished under various labels Among the movies he discusses as evidence Chinatown 1974 Body Heat 1981 John Woo s Hong Kong blood ballets e g The Killer 1989 and the pulpy oeuvre of Quentin Tarantino Washington Post Book World Shangri-La Michael Buckley,2008-11-25 Appealing to the adventure traveler or armchair reader who simply wishes to browse and dream this guide promises to lead them into the glorious reality and breathtaking landscapes of the Himalayas Dictionary of Film Terms Frank Eugene Beaver,2006 Textbook

Gods and Pawns Kage Baker,2008-01-22 A collection of seven short stories set in the universe of the Company chronicles the history and adventures of the organization and its operatives including Mendoza Lewis and Joseph The Oil and Gas Journal ,1928 Translating Dissent Mona Baker,2015-10-30 Written by the winners of the Intratrans Linguists of the Year award for 2016 Discursive and non discursive interventions in the political arena are heavily mediated by various acts of translation that enable protest movements to connect across the globe Focusing on the Egyptian experience since 2011 this volume brings together a unique group of activists who are able to reflect on the complexities challenges and limitations of one or more forms of translation and its impact on their ability to interact with a variety of domestic and global audiences Drawing on a wide range of genres and modalities from documentary film and subtitling to oral narratives webcomics and street art the 18 essays reveal the dynamics and complexities of translation in protest movements across the world Each unique contribution demonstrates some aspect of the interdependence of these movements and their inevitable reliance on translation to create networks of solidarity The volume is framed by a substantial introduction by Mona Baker and includes an interview with Egyptian activist and film maker Philip Rizk With contributions by scholars and artists professionals and activists directly involved in the Egyptian revolution and other movements Translating Dissent will be of interest to students of translation intercultural studies and sociology as well as the reader interested in the study of social and political movements Online materials including links to relevant websites and videos are available at <http://www.routledge.com/cw/baker> Additional resources for Translation and Interpreting Studies are available on the Routledge Translation Studies Portal <http://www.routledge.com/textbooks/translationstudies> 1000 Facts about Horror Movies Vol. 3 James Egan,2018-06-08 In Prometheus Jesus Christ is an alien The first horror film to win an Oscar was Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde One of the main actors in

Alien3 is a murderer The Sunken Place in Get Out is meant to represent how minorities rights are ignored by society None of the cast of Scream correctly guessed who the killer was The killer in Halloween was meant to wear a clown mask Brad Pitt hated working on Interview with the Vampire so much he tried to quit One of the actors to audition for Gremlins didn't get cast because he was too good The death scenes in Cannibal Holocaust are so realistic the director was arrested for murder

The World of Scary Video Games Bernard Perron, 2018-05-31 As for film and literature the horror genre has been very popular in the video game The World of Scary Video Games provides a comprehensive overview of the videoludic horror dealing with the games labelled as survival horror as well as the mainstream and independent works associated with the genre It examines the ways in which video games have elicited horror terror and fear since Haunted House 1981 Bernard Perron combines an historical account with a theoretical approach in order to offer a broad history of the genre outline its formal singularities and explore its principal issues It studies the most important games and game series from Haunted House 1981 to Alone in the Dark 1992 Resident Evil 1996 present Silent Hill 1999 present Fatal Frame 2001 present Dead Space 2008 2013 Amnesia the Dark Descent 2010 and The Evil Within 2014 Accessibly written The World of Scary Video Games helps the reader to trace the history of an important genre of the video game Rungs on a Ladder Christopher Neame, 2003-06-24 Rungs on a Ladder looks at part of the movie industry from a unique perspective Christopher Neame son of director Ronald started his career in the early 1960s at the very bottom but determinedly made his way to the top Neame fondly recalls his learning years at Bray Studios and beyond Simply and often amusingly he recounts his days with Hammer Films and observes many of the characters both in front of and behind the camera names synonymous with those classic tales of Gothic horror director Terrence Fisher producers Anthony Hinds Michael Carreras and Anthony Nelson Keys screenwriter producer Jimmy Sangster and of course Peter Cushing and Christopher Lee Along the way he encounters those less obviously connected to Hammer like Joan Fontaine Joseph Cotten Norman Lloyd and Bette Davis Never the one to reserve his critical eye for others alone Neame willingly says mea culpa when deserved The book begins with his rude awakening to the string and sealing wax world of Dracula Prince of Darkness and follows his journey through sixteen subsequent productions including three Frankensteins The Devil Rides Out which American distributors thought was going to be a Western and a couple of Mummy films Neame also shares stories of his participation in non genre ventures like Quatermass and the Pit The Anniversary Demons of the Mind and Fear in the Night Includes 16 pages of photos It Came From Outer Space

Wearing an RAF Blazer! Martin Mobberley, 2013-07-23 To British television viewers the name Patrick Moore has been synonymous with Astronomy and Space Travel since he first appeared on The Sky at Night in 1957 To amateur astronomers he has been a source of inspiration joy humour and even an eccentric role model since that time Most people know that his 55 years of presenting The Sky at Night is a world record but what was he really like in person What did he do away from the TV cameras in his observatory and within the British Astronomical Association the organisation that inspired him as a youngster Also precisely what did he do during the War Years a subject that has always been shrouded in mystery Martin Mobberley a friend of Patrick Moore s for 30 years and a former President of the British Astronomical Association has spent ten years exhaustively researching Patrick s real life away from the TV cameras His childhood RAF service tireless voluntary work for astronomy and charity and his endless book writing are all examined in detail His astronomical observations are also examined in unprecedented detail along with the battles he fought along the way and his hatred of bureaucracy and political correctness No fan of Sir Patrick Moore can possibly live without this work on their bookshelf Annual Report [of the Director] Geological Survey (U.S.),1891 Annual Report of the Director of Mines and Government Geologist South Australia. Department of Mines,1913 Films by Genre Daniel López,1993 Since the early days of cinema there has been an insatiable demand for new product As the number of movies increased many began to resemble each other and fall into certain types of genres Critics filmmakers and audiences have classified films into groupings for critical appraisal easy identification of the subject or a quick clue to the film s nature From abstract through erotic from new Chinese cinema or zombie films 775 genres are included in this comprehensive reference work Each entry includes a brief description of the category the subgenres or related types of films and a list of movies that best exemplify the genre showing original title or titles nationality 73 countries are represented year of production additional titles working title re release title translation etc and director or filmmaker Hollywood Worldviews Brian Godawa,2002-01-01 Award winning screenwriter Brian Godawa guides you through the place of redemption in film the tricks screenwriters use to communicate their messages and the mental and spiritual discipline required for watching movies
