Jewish Society in Poland Aleksander B. Skotnicki,2009 Hamtramck Haunts Charlotte L. Cavanary,2003-04-14 Hamtramck Haunts describes coming of age in a working class family of Polish immigrants bent on making a living in America Hamtramck was a bustling city of 50 000 in the 1930s completely surrounded by Detroit and still is The personal history gives a picture of neighborhood activities where the parish church and school preserved some of the culture of village life in eastern Europe and other community institutions aided in acculturation Coping with illness tragedy and heartbreak was not a deterrent to education a career and a fulfilling marriage Public History in Poland Joanna Wojdon,2021-11-29 This volume presents various aspects of public history practices in Poland alongside their historical development and theoretical reflections on public history Despite a long tradition and variety of forms of public history the very term public history or literally speaking history in the public sphere has been in use in Poland only since the 2010s This edited collection contains chapters that focus on numerous practices and media forms in public history including historical memory heritage tourism historical re enactments memes and graphic novels films archives archaeology and oral history As such the volume brings together the Polish experiences to wider international audiences and shares Polish controversies related to public history within the academic discourse beyond media news and politically engaged commentaries Furthermore it sheds crucial light on the developments of collective memory historical and political debates the history of Poland and East Central Europe and the politics of post World War Two and post communist societies Authored by a team of academic historians and practitioners from the field Public History in Poland is the perfect resource for students from a variety of disciplines including Public History Heritage Museum Studies Anthropology and Archaeology Janusz Korczak and Yitzhak Katzenelson Moshe Shner, 2020-12-07 The twentieth century left humanity in despair Two World Wars caused the death of more than seventy million people The Holocaust of the Jews and genocide against other groups left us the images of factories of death and names of unimaginable cruelty Humanity learned about its unlimited ability to inflict suffering and death Hell appeared as a human made reality Two educators the Polish Jewish educator and children's rights advocate Janusz Korczak murdered in Treblinka in 1942 and Yitzhak Katzenelson a Bible teacher dramatist and a poet murdered in Auschwitz in 1944 shared the same historical reality but responded in very different ways A comparative study of their legacies leads explores questions of identity leadership and the educators role in the face of totalitarianism terror and genocide The book may appeal to teachers in all disciplines who deal with their identity as educators and to historians and civic rights activists in any society culture or nationality The 23rd Psalm George Lucius Salton, 2002 For the next three years Luzek slaved and barely survived in ten concentration camps including Rzeszow Plaszow Flossenburg Colmar Sachsenhausen Braunschweig Ravensbruck and Wobbelin Cattle cars filled with skeletal men emptied into a train yard in Colmar France Luzek and the other prisoners marched under the whips and fists of SS guards But here unlike the taunts and rocks from villagers in Poland and Germany there was applause I could clearly hear the people calling Shame Shame Suddenly I realized that the people of Colmar were applauding us They were condemning the inhumanity of the Germans The Quantum of Damages in Bodily and Fatal Injury Cases Michael McGregor Corbett, J. J. Gauntlett, John Lindley Buchanan, 2001 Of interest or benefit to Legal practitioners Children Surviving Persecution Judith S. Kestenberg, Charlotte Kahn, 1998-10-23 This international study of children's experiences of organized persecution explores the Holocaust and its aftermath as prototypical social trauma Traumatized persons feelings of shame and guilt as well as a sense of being different may prevail and they may attribute great power to others seek safety in isolation or search for a rescuer Nevertheless as a group the child survivors of the Holocaust have achieved remarkable success as adults Drawing on the wealth of personal and interview information the contributors create a synthesis of personal history and psychological analysis Adult memories of traumatic childhood experiences are accompanied by discussions of their effects and by analysis of the various coping mechanisms used to establish a viable post war existence These accounts are distinguished by the fact that they are by and about individuals who grew up in undistinguished Christian and Jewish families not those of prominent figures or resistance fighters or rescuers All experienced unrest and many suffered trauma during the Nazi regime as a result of the war and during the post war turbulence An important collection for students and scholars of the Holocaust and for those professionals in a position to help surviving victims of other organized persecution civil violence strife and abuse The Happy Passion Anthony James, 2017-01-31 Jacob Bronowski 1908-1974 lived through what he described as the two great catastrophes of the twentieth century the rise of Hitler in 1933 and the dropping of the atomic bombs in 1945 and yet the keynote of his astonishingly rich and varied life and work was an enduring optimism Bronowski was a professional scientist scientific administrator poet philosopher dramatist and television and radio personality possessing an energy and versatility that make him a rare figure in our cultural history His final achievement the groundbreaking television series The Ascent of Man first shown in 1973 influenced and inspired millions of ordinary people by bringing an awareness of human evolution and the adventure of science into their homes Anthony James describes his own journeys to key locations in Bronowski's television series The Ascent of Man from Auschwitz a monument to human depravity that has haunted the conscience of contemporary society to Iceland where democracy in northern Europe was born more than a thousand years ago Bronowski would not have been surprised by our dilemmas today but he would have insisted that confidence in our ascent as a species is a far greater force than the cynical destructiveness of politicians Although human beings are inevitably fallible the pursuit of knowledge is in Bronowski's philosophy an adventure in his own words a happy passion

Aging Nationally in Contemporary Poland Jessica C. Robbins, 2020-12-18 Active aging programs that encourage older adults to practice health promoting behaviors are proliferating worldwide In Poland the meanings and ideals of these programs have become caught up in the sociocultural and political economic changes that have occurred during the lifetimes of the oldest generations most visibly the transition from socialism to capitalism Yet practices of active aging resonate with older forms of activity in late life in ways that exceed these narratives of progress Moreover some older Poles come to live valued meaningful lives in old age despite the threats to respect and dignity posed by illness and debility Through intimate portrayals of a wide range of experiences of aging in Poland Jessica C Robbins shows that everyday practices of remembering and relatedness shape how older Poles come to be seen by themselves and by others as living worthy valued lives

Museums, Migration and Identity in Europe Christopher Whitehead, Susannah Eckersley, Katherine Lloyd, Rhianon Mason, 2016-03-09 The imperatives surrounding museum representations of place have shifted from the late eighteenth century to today The political significance of place itself has changed and continues to change at all scales from local civic regional to national and supranational At the same time changes in population flows migration patterns and demographic movement now underscore both cultural and political practice be it in the accommodation of diversity in cultural and social policy scholarly explorations of hybridity or in state immigration controls This book investigates the historical and contemporary relationships between museums places and identities It brings together contributions from international scholars academics practitioners from museums and public institutions policymakers and representatives of associations and migrant communities to explore all these issues The Films of Krzysztof Kieslowski Joseph Kickasola, 2004-06-22 Perhaps the greatest European director of the last 30 years Krzysztof Kieslowski created a remarkable body of work in a relatively short period of time His films are loved around the world for their dramatic power and consummate artistry Kieslowski's cinematic style stands apart in several important respects his mastery of abstract imagery his innovative use of sound and his deliberate circumvention of standard cinematic codes Unlike many other art directors who often fail to rise above commentary on the medium itself Kieslowski uses these stylistic liberties to explore his philosophical concerns fate God suffering and love Through close analysis of films like The Decalogue The Double Life of Veronique Blue White and Red Joe Kickasola identifies the unique qualities and artistic legacy of this great director After Memory Matthias Schwartz, Nina Weller, Heike Winkel, 2021-06-08 Even seventy five years after the end of World War II the commemorative cultures surrounding the War and the Holocaust in Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe are anything but fixed The fierce debates on how to deal with the past among the newly constituted nation states in these regions have already received much attention by scholars in cultural and memory studies The present volume posits that literature as a medium can help us understand the shifting attitudes towards World War II and the Holocaust in post Communist Europe in recent years These shifts point to new commemorative cultures shaping up after memory Contemporary literary representations of World War II and the Holocaust in Eastern Europe do not merely extend or replace older practices of remembrance and testimony but reflect on these now defunct or superseded narratives New narratives of remembrance are conditioned by a fundamentally new social and political context one that emerged from the devaluation of socialist commemorative rituals and as a response to the loss of private and family memory narratives The volume offers insights into the diverse literatures of Eastern Europe and their ways of depicting the area's contested heritage
