Praise Be to You Pope Francis, 2015 The earth is the common home of humanity It is a gift from God Yet man s abuse of freedom threatens that home In his encyclical Praise Be to You Laudato Si Pope Francis challenges all people to praise God for his glorious creation and to work to safeguard her The encyclical letter takes its name from St Francis of Assisi s Canticle of the Creatures which depicts creation as a sister with whom we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us This sister Pope Francis declares now cries out to us because of the harm we have inflicted on her by our irresponsible use and abuse of the goods with which God has endowed her He calls for an integral ecology based on what Pope St John Paul called an ecological conversion a moral transformation linking the proper response to God for the gift of his creation to concern for justice especially for the poor He challenges people to understand ecology in terms of the right ordering of the fundamental relationships of the human person with God oneself other people and the rest of creation Francis examines such ecological concerns as pollution waste and what he calls the throwaway culture Climate he insists is a common good to be protected He explores the proper use of natural resources and notions such as sustainability from a Judeo Christian perspective The loss of biodiversity due to human activities decline in the quality of life for many people global inequality of resources as well as concerns over consumerism and excessive individualism also threaten the good order of creation writes Pope Francis While valuing technology and innovation he rejects efforts to repudiate the natural order including the moral law inscribed in human nature or to rely simply on science to solve ecological problems Moral and spiritual resources are crucial including openness to God s purpose for the world Expounding the biblical tradition regarding creation and redemption in Christ Francis stresses man s subordination to God s plan and the universal communion of all creation Dominion he maintains means responsible stewardship rather than exploitation He rejects treating creation as if it were divine and insists on the primacy of the human person in creation He also explores the roots of the ecological crisis in man s abuse of technology his self centeredness and the rise of practical relativism Without rejecting political changes he implores people to change their hearts and their ways of life Popes Benedict XVI St John Paul II and Blessed Paul VI addressed key themes regarding stewardship of God s creation and justice in the world But Pope Francis is the first to devote an entire encyclical to the subject

Praise Be to You - Laudato Si' Pope Francis, 2015-07-06 The earth is the common home of humanity It is a gift from God Yet man s abuse of freedom threatens that home In his encyclical Praise Be to You Laudato Si Pope Francis challenges all people to praise God for his glorious creation and to work to safeguard her The encyclical letter takes its name from St Francis of Assisi s Canticle of the Creatures which depicts creation as a sister with whom we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us This sister Pope Francis declares now cries out to us because of the harm we have inflicted on her by our irresponsible use and abuse of the goods with which God has endowed her He calls for an integral ecology based on what Pope St John Paul called an ecological conversion a moral transformation linking the proper response to God for the gift of his creation to concern for justice especially for the poor He challenges people to understand ecology in terms of the right ordering of the fundamental relationships of the human person with God oneself other people and the rest of creation Francis examines such ecological concerns as pollution waste and what he calls the throwaway culture Climate he insists is a common good to be protected He explores the proper use of natural resources and notions such as sustainability from a Judeo Christian perspective The loss of biodiversity due to human activities decline in the quality of life for many people global inequality of resources as well as concerns over consumerism and excessive individualism also threaten the good order of creation writes Pope Francis While valuing technology and innovation he rejects efforts to repudiate the natural order including the moral law inscribed in human nature or to rely simply on science to solve ecological problems Moral and spiritual resources are crucial including openness to God's purpose for the world Expounding the biblical tradition regarding creation and redemption in Christ Francis stresses man's subordination to God's plan and the universal communion of all creation Dominion he maintains means responsible stewardship rather than exploitation He rejects treating creation as if it were divine and insists on the primacy of the human person in creation He also explores the roots of the ecological crisis in man's abuse of technology his self-centeredness and the rise of practical relativism Without rejecting political changes he implores people to change their hearts and their ways of life Popes Benedict XVI St John Paul II and Blessed Paul VI addressed key themes regarding stewardship of God's creation and justice in the world But Pope Francis is the first to devote an entire encyclical to the subject On Care for Our Common Home Pope Francis, Catholic Church. Pope (2013- : Francis), 2015 This appeal from Pope Francis to all who inhabit this planet states that humans have made irresponsible use of the Earth that climate change affects most people living in poverty and that we must unite to protect the planet Ultimately Pope Francis challenges all people to praise and thank God for his glorious creation and to work together to safeguard her Laudato Si will make an impact politically as well as upon the major environmental and economic debates of our time Encyclical Letter Laudato Si' of the Holy Father Francis Pope Francis, 2015 Laudato Si' Catholic Church. Pope (2013- : Francis), Pope Francis, 2015 Addressed not only to Catholics but to every person living on this planet Pope Francis second encyclical is a challenging call for a bold cultural revolution in how we think about technological progress and economic growth The degradation of our environment he says is a symptom of deeper problems rapid change unsustainable overconsumption indifference to the poor and the decay of social values He offers a variety of solutions including a change in lifestyles away from extreme consumerism and towards a greater sense of social responsibility For Christians an ecological spirituality one that is grounded in the convictions of our faith is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience Drawing on the rich social teachings of the Church Laudato Si is a groundbreaking document that will be discussed and studied by both believers and non believers for years to come Study guide included for Reflection and Discussion Praise be to You Pope Francis, 2016 In his second encyclical Praise Be to You

Pope Francis addresses every person living on this planet inviting us to dialogue together about the urgent environmental challenges facing the earth our common home and how we can work together protect its fragile resources He challenges us to think of ecology not merely in terms of the environment Laudato Si --Praise Be to You Pope Francis,2015-06-27

Damage to nature goes against human dignity If I do something against part of nature I do something against humanity But at the same time we can say that if we do something against men we cannot say that we really love nature One of the most profound phrases in Pope Francis new encyclical is actually a question The Holy Father asks What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us to children who are now growing up Laudato Si' Catholic Church. Pope (2013- :

Francis),2015 On Care for Our Common Home ,2015 Pope Francis calls the Church and the world to acknowledge the urgency of our environmental challenges and join him in embarking on a new path Page 4 of cover Praise Be to You
