Travis Warren Cooper, 2022-08-02 When it comes to evangelical Christianity the internet is both a refuge and a threat It hosts Zoom prayer groups and pornographic videos religious revolutions and silly cat videos Platforms such as social media podcasts blogs and digital Bibles all constitute new arenas for debate about social and religious boundaries theological and ecclesial orthodoxy and the internet's inherent danger and value In The Digital Evangelicals Travis Warren Cooper locates evangelicalism as a media event rather than as a coherent religious tradition by focusing on the intertwined narratives of evangelical Christianity and emerging digital culture in the United States He focuses on two dominant media traditions media sincerity immediate and direct interpersonal communication and media promiscuity communication with the primary goal of extending the Christian community regardless of physical distance Cooper whose work is informed by ethnographic fieldwork traces these conflicting paradigms from the Protestant Reformation through the rise of the digital and argues that the tension is culminating in a crisis of evangelical authority What counts as authentic interaction Who has authority over the circulation of information While many studies claim that technology influences religion The Digital Evangelicals reveals how Protestant metaphors and discourses shaped the emergence of the internet and explores what this relationship with global new media means for evangelicalism

glue of plant human relations is poesis meaning the creation of something new yet etymologically related to the poetic Beyond explorations of poesis the vegetal offers an epistemology of recursion that is relevant for understanding place based relationships Elizabeth Oriel presents vegetal influence in analytical and descriptive styles reflecting multispecies ethnography and other analytics brought to vegetal matters The Bible as Revelatory Word Robert Ignatius Letellier, 2016-08-17 Whether one approaches the Bible from a perspective of faith culture or literature the power of the writing the human situations language and genres that make up the Scriptures speak potently across the ages From whatever angle the texts have a revelatory power that shines a light on the human condition our sense of purpose place in the world and even our destiny Born out of the common reflection on the history of single nation with a sense of divine election the Bible has spoken and continues to speak to all people in various circumstances in words of such power that seem divinely inspired This volume provides an opportunity for studying those special areas of Scripture known as the Prophets and the Wisdom Books Isaiah Jeremiah Ezekiel and Daniel spoke to Ancient Israel from the situation of their national story shaped by the Covenant with God especially before during and after the sorrow of their Exile in Babylon 587 38 BC The Wisdom Books of the Bible reflect on the ontology of the human condition under any circumstance how to live wisely and sensibly by looking at the world of nature and the human heart to discern the purpose of life The approach adopted here building on a fundamental understanding of the Old Testament searches for deeper understanding of both approaches and genres This study enables a thematic overview of the subject a way into some of the critical issues endemic to grasping both traditions and by implication some of the fundamental approaches used in biblical scholarship This study encourages reading the texts themselves developing a sharper perception of language imagery genre and style The book thus provides an overall picture of the literary types employed locates the sacred books in a chronological and thematic context exploring the texts through the specific passages provided always looking to find the theological keys critical to understanding these particular books and their enduring message across the ages A particularly interesting aspect of this study is its collection of iconography offering a cross section of artistic responses to the power of the biblical discourse through the centuries While Gustave Doré's famous etchings form the axis of the centre folds many other painters are included from different periods

Once upon a time many years ago a man named Donald Mech courageously stepped into an exciting intriguing career the ancient art of beekeeping He actually made a living with honeybees Read the story of how Mech Apiaries honey traveled everywhere from Pike Place Market in Seattle all across the land And who could better tell this amazing story than his wife and helpmate of fifty five years Doris who was there through it all in real life by faith and a spin The Family Expositor; Or, A Paraphrase and Version of the New Testament Philip Doddridge,Job Orton,1831 Creation and New Creation Sean M McDonough,2016-04-01 In keeping with the Scriptural witness and the theological heritage this remarkable book examines the doctrine of creation alongside new creation The connection between the two creation and new creation has drawn renewed attention in the last several decades but the burden of Sean McDonough s argument is that this emphasis on creation and new creation has been a feature of the doctrine since the beginning whether in the eschatological reading of Genesis 1 that predominated at least until early modern times or the intertwining of the narratives of creation and redemption in thinkers from Irenaeus to Barth Whilst covering the traditional elements of the doctrine McDonough treats the important subject with a special emphasis on how these unfold in the story of what Gunton has called God s creation project

Forest Governance Jessica Stubenrauch,Felix Ekardt,Katharina Hagemann,Beatrice Garske,2022-04-22 This book analyses and develops overarching concepts for forest policy and forest governance and includes a detailed investigation into the historical discussion on forests It examines opportunities and limits for negative emissions in a sector that like peatlands appears significantly less ambivalent compared to highly technical large scale forms of climate geoengineering The analysis shows that the binding climate and biodiversity targets under international law are much more ambitious than most people assume Measured against that the volume critically reviews the potentials of afforestation and reforestation for climate mitigation which is often presented as the new saviour to fulfil the commitments of the Paris Agreement and to reach climate neutrality in the future It becomes clear that ultimately only biodiverse and thus resilient forests can function as a carbon sink in the long term The volume shows that the existing European and international forest governance approaches fail to comply with these targets and insights Furthermore the book develops a bundle of policy measures Quantity governance systems for livestock farming fossil fuels and similar drivers of deforestations represent the most important approach They are most effective when not directly targeting forests due to their heterogeneity but central damaging factors With regard to the dominant regulatory and subsidy based governance for forests we show that it remains necessary to supplement these quantity governance systems with certain easily graspable and thus controllable regulatory and subsidy regulations such as a regulatory protection of old growth forests with almost no exceptions extension of the livestock to land ratio established in organic farming to all farming far reaching restriction of bioenergy use to certain residues flanked by import bans and a national and international complete conversion of all agricultural and forest subsidies to public money for public services to promote nature conservation and afforestation in addition to the quantity control systems Lost in Transition Aaron D. Purcell, 2023-08-18

Discover how God worked through one woman's talents to turn her dreams into reality. Life has often been a series of hurdles and obstacles for Brenda Scott that could only be overcome with her unwavering faith and constant determination for continuous improvement. This self-taught artist found her way through many art mediums with no formal training but was instead empowered by many strong creative women along the way. Learn lessons of humility, gratitude, patience, and forgiveness as she takes us on a journey of her lifetime path of art and creativity. Discover how her goal to become a successful artist led to the biggest project of her life: renovating her old country Victorian home. It became a major undertaking that would test both her spirit and her resolve to see the process through to the very end. Savoring country life while taking on the challenges of that renovation taught her the beauty to be found in the ordinary everyday life all around her on the acreage. Through this endeavor, she began to realize that she was on a course that would determine who she was as an artist and that the real restoration project was within herself.

OR, A DISCOURSE CONCERNING THE HOLY SPIRIT John Flavel, 2016-07-27. A critical work into the working and theology of the most mysterious person of the holy Trinity, the Holy Spirit. Many times Christians recognize but do not focus on the Holy Spirit even though He is the most active person of the Godhead in our world today. This work goes to correct that and delves into Scripture to reveal to us how He works and what He is like so that we can properly revere Him as Almighty God.
