The Glory of the Cross Tim Chester,2018-01-01 Daily readings from the Gospel of John to prepare your heart for Easter In many ways Easter is supposed to be the high point of the year for Christians where we remember the three days that changed history for ever But for many of us the day quickly comes and goes without us really feeling any different Yet for centuries Christians around the world have marked the season of Lent the forty days leading up to Easter as a way of reflecting on their need for forgiveness and anticipating Christ s work on the cross These daily readings present deep theology in a concise and understandable way allowing you to soak up the real meaning of Christ s death and resurrection Each week you ll read through one or two chapters of John s Gospel The Sunday reading provides an introduction to the passage as a whole while the rest of the week s reflections work through it in smaller sections A carefully selected prayer drawn from the rich work of writers throughout church history is included each day So this Lent prepare your heart with 47 days of short and stirring reflections from the Gospel of John THE POSITIVITY OF POSSIBILITIES: IN GOD'S HANDS PHYLLIS G. When I Survey the Wondrous Cross Patrick J. Ryan, 2003 The season of Lent the Church's spring begins the celebration of the dying and rising of Jesus a time of deep personal renewal only completed in the Easter season With the revival of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Lent returns to its original character as a time of formation for catechumens But the Sunday and daily liturgical readings for the season of Lent do more than prepare catechumens for the reception of Baptism at the Easter Vigil Even the long baptized can progress through the liturgical readings of this season into a deeper experience of their Baptism their death and rebirth in the Lord As in the early Church all of us can take the season of Lent and especially its forty weekdays of fasting as an opportunity to turn back to the Lord our God Patrick Ryan's reflections on the liturgical readings of the Lenten season arise not only from study of the scriptural passages involved but also from his extensive familiarity with the history of religion and his long experience of life in the Christian churches both of Africa and the United States From years of inter religious encounter he has come to a different sense of the Paschal mystery one enriched by a broad appreciation for the complexity of human longing religious and secular for the transcendent

Living Your Baptism in Lent Dennis Strach, 2022-03-03 During Lent the Church invites us to reflect on those times that we have turned away from God and consider how we can return to him in all we say and do Living Your Baptism in Lent

Weekly Reflections for Your Journey helps readers respond to this invitation by reflecting on their relationship with God Through the grace of our Baptism we have become sons and daughters of God As such we are strengthened by the Holy Spirit to reject sin and choose instead to follow God Each week readers consider this choice as they reflect on the questions asked before Baptism These questions or baptismal promises shape our understanding of what it means to live a Christian life They call us to become witnesses of our faith to others especially to those who are preparing to be baptized at the Easter Vigil Our Lenten journey leads us to the celebration of Easter where we renew our baptismal promises and rejoice in the salvation gained for us by Christ s Resurrection Each week s reflection ends with questions and Scripture passages to use in individual prayer A guide for leading small groups in these reflections is also included Overcome with Paschal Joy Mark G. Boyer,2016-06-30 The Lent Easter seasons cover one fourth of the year or 25 percent of the liturgical year One of the many things we do as Roman Catholics is sing Lenten and Easter hymns During Lent we express our sorrow for sin as we pray fast and give alms During Easter we shout Alleluias at the end of many hymns to express our praise of God for having raised Christ from the dead Thus those who observe Lent and Easter sing religious hymns written for each season The sounds of Lenten hymns in minor keys give way to Easter hymns in major ones This book presents an exercise for every day of Lent and Easter that combines the daily Scripture texts from the Lectionary for Mass with religious hymns sung during Lent and Easter It is designed to be used by individuals for private prayer or by families for public prayer A six part exercise is offered for every one of the 135 entries 1 the liturgical day 2 the daily Scripture texts 3 a verse from a traditional hymn 4 a reflection 5 a question for personal meditation and 6 a concluding prayer Journey to the Cross Myra B.
