God Sleeps In Rwanda A Journey Of Transformation:

God Sleeps in Rwanda Joseph Sebarenzi, 2009-09-08 Joseph Sebarenzi's parents seven siblings and countless other family members were among 800 000 Tutsi brutally murdered over the course of ninety days in 1994 by extremist Rwandan Hutu an efficiency that exceeded even that of the Nazi Holocaust His father sent him away to school in Congo as a teenager telling him If we are killed you will survive When Sebarenzi returned to Rwanda after the genocide he was elected speaker of parliament only to be forced into a daring escape again when he learned he was the target of an assassination plot Poetic and deeply moving God Sleeps in Rwanda shows us how the lessons of Rwanda can prevent future tragedies from happening all over the world Readers will be inspired by the eloquence and wisdom of a man who has every right to be bitter and hateful but chooses instead to live a life of love compassion and forgiveness

Ethnic Patriotism and the East African Revival

Derek R. Peterson, 2012-09-24 Ethnic Patriotism and the East African Revival shows how in the era of African political independence cosmopolitan Christian converts struggled with East Africa's patriots over the definition of culture and community The book traces the history of the East African Revival an evangelical movement that spread through much of eastern and central Africa Its converts offered a subversive reading of culture disavowing their compatriots and disregarding their obligations to kin They earned the ire of East Africa's patriots who worked to root people in place as inheritors of ancestral wisdom This book casts religious conversion in a new light not as an inward reorientation of belief but as a political action that opened up novel paths of self narration and unsettled the inventions of tradition

Navigating Cultural Memory

David Mwambari, 2023 A friend of mine asked me to accompany him to visit a young woman in her twenties named Kayitesi At the time in April 2007 Kayitesi lived in rural Kigali with two siblings Kayitesi's parents and many of her relatives were killed during the genocide perpetrated against the Tutsi in Rwanda in 1994 The genocide took place in the central and eastern African country of Rwanda when radical Hutu youth militias and Hutu political elites targeted and killed the Tutsi for about three months between April and July The Hutus and some foreigners who protected the Tutsi or opposed the genocidal violence were also killed

Reconciliation after Civil Wars

Paul Quigley, James Hawdon, 2018-10-03 How do former enemies reconcile after civil wars Do they ever really reconcile in any complete sense How is political reunification related to longer term cultural reintegration Bringing together experts on civil wars around the modern world the United States Spain Rwanda Colombia Russia and more this volume provides comparative and transnational analysis of the challenges that arise in the aftermath of civil war

Do Not Disturb Michela Wrong, 2021-03-30

A powerful investigation into a grisly political murder and the authoritarian regime behind it Do Not Disturb upends the narrative that Rwanda sold the world after one of the deadliest genocides of the twentieth century We think we know the story of Africa's Great Lakes region Following the Rwandan genocide an idealistic group of young rebels overthrew the brutal regime in Kigali ushering in an era of peace and stability that made Rwanda the donor darling of the West winning comparisons with Switzerland and Singapore But the truth was considerably more sinister Vividly sourcing her story with direct testimony from key participants Wrong uses the story of the murder of Patrick Karegeya once Rwanda's head of external intelligence and a quicksilver operator of supple charm to paint the portrait of a modern African dictatorship created in the chilling likeness of Paul Kagame the president who sanctioned his former friend's assassination

The Democratic Republic of Congo Michael Deibert, 2013-09-12 Over the past two decades the Democratic Republic of Congo has been at the centre of the deadliest series of conflicts since the Second World War and now hosts the largest United Nations peacekeeping mission in the world In this compelling book acclaimed journalist Michael Deibert paints a picture of a nation in flux inching towards peace but at the same time solidifying into another era of authoritarian rule under its enigmatic president Joseph Kabila Featuring a wealth of first hand interviews and secondary sources the narrative travels from war torn villages in the country's east to the chaotic pulsing capital of Kinshasa in order to bring us the voices of the Congolese from impoverished gold prospectors and market women to government officials as it explores the complicated political ethnic and economic geography of this tattered land A must read for anyone interested in contemporary Africa The Democratic Republic of Congo Between Hope and Despair sheds new light on this sprawling and often misunderstood country that has become iconic both for its great potential and dashed hopes

Rwanda Susan Thomson, 2018-01-01 A sobering study of the troubled African nation both pre and post genocide and its uncertain future The brutal civil war between Hutu and Tutsi factions in Rwanda ended in 1994 when the Rwandan Patriotic Front came to power and embarked on an ambitious social political and economic project to remake the devastated central east African nation Susan Thomson who witnessed the hostilities firsthand has written a provocative modern history of the country its rulers and its people covering the years prior to during and following the genocidal conflict Thomson's hard hitting analysis explores the key political events that led to the ascendance of the Rwandan Patriotic Front and its leader President Paul Kagame This important and controversial study examines the country's transition from war to reconciliation from the perspective of ordinary Rwandan citizens Tutsi and Hutu alike and raises serious questions about the stability of the current peace the methods and motivations of the ruling regime and its troubling ties to the past and the likelihood of a genocide free future

Historical Dictionary of Rwanda Aimable Twagilimana, 2015-11-06 Blessed with natural beauty and rich vegetation Rwanda is often called the land of a thousand hills le pays des mille collines a reference to its many lush and green rolling hills Moreover for many Rwandans at least in the past Rwanda in spite of its small size is vast in fact it means the universe This idyllic view however sharply contrasts with the sad history of ethnic strife that unfolded since the 1950s the 1959 Hutu Revolution followed by years of anti Tutsi pogroms undemocratic regimes the civil war of 1990 1994 and more significantly the April July 1994 genocide against the Tutsi and the killing of Hutu who opposed the killings The 1994 genocide against the Tutsi remains the most defining single event in contemporary Rwanda and many people in the world today know of this central African nation from the prism of extreme mass violence that sullied the end of the 20th century amid international indifference and has since haunted the world's conscience This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Rwanda contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Rwanda

Political Governance in

Post-Genocide Rwanda Filip Reyntjens, 2013-12-30 Analyses political governance in post genocide Rwanda focusing on the rise of the Rwandan Patriotic Front RPF In the aftermath of the 1994 Rwandan genocide the RPF has employed various means rigged elections elimination of opposition parties and civil society legislation outlawing dissenting opinions and terrorism to consolidate its position as the nation's ruling party Although Rwanda is considered successful for its technocratic governance societal reforms and economic development shows the regime's darker side of human rights abuses social engineering projects information management schemes and retributive justice system

Agricultural Reform in Rwanda Chris Huggins, 2017-10-15 International observers have lauded Rwanda as an example of an African country taking control of its own development trajectory and as a market friendly destination for investment A key component of this narrative has been an ambitious programme of agricultural reform involving private firms NGOs and international charities The Rwandan government claims these reforms have been a resounding success tripling crop yields and helping to combat hunger Chris Huggins argues however that Rwanda's liberal modernising image sits poorly with the regime's continuing authoritarian tendencies Featuring in depth case studies of the effects of agricultural reform in three different regions and drawing on hundreds of interviews Huggins shows that the much vaunted liberalization of agriculture has in fact depended on the coercion of Rwandan farmers and in many cases has had a detrimental impact on their livelihoods With the Kagame regime now coming under increasing international scrutiny this work provides a timely look at the impact of market friendly

authoritarianism in contemporary Africa making essential reading for students and scholars of development in the fields of sociology anthropology political science and economics Requiem, Rwanda Laura Apol, 2015-02-01 A marvelous moving new collection of poems Requiem Rwanda has its roots in 2006 when Laura Apol made her first trip to Rwanda Apol's initial goal was to develop in conjunction with Rwandan and American colleagues a project using narrative writing to facilitate healing among young survivors of the 1994 genocide During the time she spent leading workshops Apol felt moved to write her own poems and after the writing for healing project ended she returned to Rwanda several times to continue her creative work The legacy of the genocide on the people on the land itself makes its presence felt in many of the poems The poems are also accounts of Apol's relationships with and understandings of people post genocide where their stories go how they reenter their lives and how a country that has been deeply wounded by its history continues on These poems don't shy away from exploring the complications of being a white woman a Westerner and a witness in this setting Apol relates her sense of compassion privilege horror guilt voyeurism obligation and love This new collection is a rich testimonial to the strength of a nation and its people The collection includes a closing essay Writer as a Witness Memory and Justice in Post-Genocide Rwanda Timothy Longman, 2017-07-13 A critical exploration of the steps taken to promote peace reconciliation and justice in post genocide Rwanda Trajectories of Authoritarianism in Rwanda Marie-Eve Desrosiers, 2023-01-19 Challenging assumptions regarding the strength and control of authoritarian governments in Rwanda in the decades before the 1994 genocide Marie Eve Desrosiers uses original archival data and interviews to highlight the complex relations between authorities opponents and society Through careful detailed analysis Desrosiers offers a nuanced assessment of the functions and evolution of authoritarianism over time demonstrating how the governments of Rwanda's first two post independence Republics 1962 1990 sought and often struggled to cement their rule Whilst the deeper lived realities of authoritarianism are generally neglected by multi cases comparisons at the heart of comparative authoritarian studies this illuminating survey highlights the essential yet subtle authoritarian strategies patterns and forms of decay that are too often overlooked when addressing authoritarian contexts Complexities and Dangers of Remembering and Forgetting in Rwanda Olivier Nyirubugara, 2013 Can a society a culture a country be trapped by its own memories The question is not easy to answer but it would not be a bad idea to cautiously say It depends This book is about one society Rwanda and its culture traditions identities and memories More specifically it discusses some of the ways in which ethnic identities and related memories constitute a deadly trap that needs to be torn apart if mass violence is to be eradicated in that country It looks into everyday cultural practices such as child naming and oral traditions myths and tales proverbs war poetry etc and into political practices that govern the ways in which citizens conceptualise the past Rwanda was engulfed in a bloody war from 1990 until 1994 the last episode of which was a genocide that claimed about a million lives amongst the Tutsi minority This book the first in the Memory Traps series provides a new understanding of how a seemingly quiet society can suddenly turn into a scene of the most horrible inter ethnic crimes It offers an analysis of the complexities and dangers resulting from the ways in which memories are managed both at a personal level and at a collective level The main point is that Rwandans have become hostages of their memories of the long gone and the recent past The book shows how these memories follow ethnic lines and lead to a state of cultural hypocrisy on the one hand and to permanent conflict either open and brutal or latent and beneath the surface on the other hand Written from a memory studies perspective and informed by critical theory philosophy literature oral history and psychology amongst others this book deals with some controversial subjects and deconstructs some of the received ideas about the recent and the long gone past of Rwanda About the author Olivier Nyirubugara is a lecturer of New Media and Online Journalism at the Erasmus School of History Culture and Communication Erasmus University Rotterdam In 2011 he completed a PhD in Media Studies at the University of Amsterdam with a dissertation entitled Surfing the Past Digital Learners in the History Class in which he empirically explored ways in which pupils use the Web to find historical information Nyirubugara has also been practicing journalism since 2002 and has been training and coaching journalists in mobile reporting in Africa since 2007 Language Policies in Education James W. Tollefson, 2012-10-02 How do language policies in schools create inequalities among learners How do policies marginalize some students while granting privilege to others How do language policies in education serve the interests of dominant groups within societies How can linguistic minorities further their interests through attempts to change language policies in schools This new edition of Language Policies in Education takes a fresh look at these enduring questions at the heart of fundamental debates about the role of schools in society the links between education and employment and conflicts between linguistic minorities and mainstream populations Reflecting developments in language policy since the publication of the first edition in 2002 all chapters are original and substantial contributions to the study of language policy and exemplify major theories and research methods in the field Chapter authors are major scholars in language policy and critical language studies The case studies international in scope present cutting edge analyses of important language policy debates in countries around the world The Palgrave Handbook of Democracy, Governance and Justice in Africa Aderomola Adeola, Makau W. Mutua, 2022-10-03 There is an emerging consensus that what is projected as democratic governance and justice in Africa requires a re calibration in particular in relation to the constitutive demos human rights the realisation of commitments at various governance levels and the convergence between these ideations The post colonial narrative on democracy has unveiled some crevices in rule of law political equality political participation political culture and freedom of the press Aside from the fact that these notions are threatened by some existing institutional structures these notions are increasingly being negotiated across political spaces Evident in the prevalent narrative is an imperative for Africa to assert its place on the global scene of democratic governance and justice However if this will be accomplished it is important to understand some of the issues that need to be worked through in this transition The Rwandan Genocide on Film Matthew

Edwards,2018-07-09 The Rwandan genocide was one of the most shameful events of the 20th century Many Westerners understanding of it is based upon the Oscar winning film Hotel Rwanda and the critically acclaimed Shooting Dogs Yet how accurately do these films depict events in Rwanda in 1994 Drawing on new scholarship this collection of essays explores a variety of feature films and documentaries about the genocide to understand its expression in both Western and Rwandan cinema Interviews with filmmakers are featured including journalist Steve Bradshaw BBC s Panorama director Nick Hughes 100 Days director Lee Isaac Chung Munyurangabo and Rwandan filmmakers Eric Kabera and Kivu Ruhorahoza The International Bank of Bob Bob Harris,2014-02-18 Describes the founding of the Kiva org micro loan portal and visits to the world regions where the organization s loans have enabled people and small businesses to revitalize Encyclopedia of Social Networks George A.
