Goddess On The Rise Pilgrimage And Popular Religion In Vietnam:

Goddess on the Rise Philip Taylor, 2004-03-31 Since the early 1990s the shrine of Ba Chua Xu the Lady of the Realm has become the most visited religious site in southern Vietnam receiving more than a million visitors annually Mother benevolent creditor healer relationship advisor business consultant the Lady of the Realm is one of a group of goddesses whose shrines attract devotees from all corners of rural and urban society Goddess on the Rise follows these pilgrims pathways taking readers on a journey through a cultural landscape of popular rites beliefs and exegesis into a world where female deities reign supreme Philip Taylor s in depth study of pilgrimage introduces readers to the practical expectations passions and controversies that surround the goddesses bringing to life the effervescence creativity and flux of modern Vietnamese religion He offers important insights into people s everyday experience of the profound economic cultural and social transformations underway in this socialist country Possessed by the Spirits Karen Fjelstad, Nguyen Thi Hien, 2018-05-31 The essays in this volume examine the resurgence of the Mother Goddess religion among contemporary Vietnamese following the economic Renovation period in Vietnam Anthropologists explore the forces that compel individuals to become mediums and the social repercussions of their decisions and interactions The Flaming Womb Barbara Watson Andaya, 2006-07-31 The Princess of the Flaming Womb the Javanese legend that introduces this pioneering study symbolizes the many ambiguities attached to femaleness in Southeast Asian societies Yet despite these ambiguities the relatively egalitarian nature of male female relations in Southeast Asia is central to arguments claiming a coherent identity for the region This challenging work by senior scholar Barbara Watson Andaya considers such contradictions while offering a thought provoking view of Southeast Asian history that focuses on women s roles and perceptions Andaya explores the broad themes of the early modern era 1500 1800 the introduction of new religions major economic shifts changing patterns of state control the impact of elite lifestyles and behaviors drawing on an extraordinary range of sources and citing numerous examples from Thai Vietnamese Burmese Philippine and Malay societies In the process she provides a timely and innovative model for putting women back into world history Andaya approaches the problematic issue of Southeast Asia by considering ways in which topography helped describe a geo cultural zone and contributed to regional distinctiveness in gender construction She examines the degree to which world religions have been instrumental in re constructing conceptions of gender an issue especially pertinent to Southeast Asian societies because of the leading role so often played by women in indigenous ritual She also considers the effects of the expansion of long distance trade the incorporation of the region into a global trading network the beginnings of cash cropping and wage labor and the increase in slavery on the position of women Erudite nuanced and accessible The Flaming Womb makes a major contribution to a Southeast Asia history that is both regional and global in content and perspective The Buddha Side Alexander Soucy, 2012-07-31 The most common description of the supernatural landscape in Vietnam makes a distinction between Buddhist and non Buddhist sides The Buddha side ben phat

is the focus of this investigation into the intersection of gender power and religious praxis Employing an anthropological approach to Buddhist practice that takes into account modes of action that are not only socially constructed and contextual but also negotiated by the actors The Buddha Side uniquely explores how gender and age affect understandings of what it means to be a Buddhist In seeking to map out the ways and meanings of Buddhist engagement Alexander Soucy examines everything from the skeptical statements of young men and devotional performances of young women to the pilgrimages of older women and performances of orthodoxy used by older men to assert their position within the pagoda space Soucy draws on more than four years experience conducting ethnographic research in Hanoi to investigate how religious practice is grounded in the constitution and marking of social identity From this in depth view he describes the critical role of religion in shaping social contexts and inserting selves into them Religion can thus be described as a form of theatre one in which social identities youth old age masculinity femininity authority are constructed and displayed via religious practice A compelling look at the performative aspect of Buddhism in contemporary Vietnam The Buddha Side will be welcomed by anyone with an interest in Buddhism as it is practiced on the ground

Vietnam at War Mark Bradley, 2021-01-30 A penetrating history of how the Vietnamese people experienced the wars for their country From the independence struggles against the French in the 1940s and 50s to the fall of Saigon in 1975 Mark Philip Bradley paints a vivid picture of how Vietnamese people of all classes both north and south came to understand the thirty years of bloody warfare that unfolded around them and how they made sense of its aftermath Book jacket

Making Sense of the Vietnam Wars Mark Philip Bradley, Marilyn B. Young, 2008-04-30 The inaugural volume in the OUP National History center series Making Sense of the Vietnam Wars promises to be the most up to date book on the changing interpretations of the wars in Vietnam Marilyn Young and Mark Bradley have assembled a superb cast of eleven scholars and writers spanning the generations from those who were active during the Vietnam period through younger scholars who have been doing on the ground research in Vietnamese sources as well as uncovering new sources from the Soviet Union China Eastern Europe and Western Europe

Buddhism Confucianism tribal practices Hinduism Jainism and Zoroastrianism A selected general bibliography offers a listing of the most important print and electronic resources on the topic Ritual, Heritage and Identity Christiane

Brosius, Karin M. Polit, 2020-11-29 This book explores the importance of ritual and ritual theory to discourses of authenticity and originality thereby deepening our insight into concepts of cultural heritage identity and nation in a globalised world The volume is the first interdisciplinary attempt to understand the significance of rituals and related performative traditions in the creation of grounded cultural identities home and heritage as geographically experienceable locations It assembles perspectives from social and cultural anthropology performance studies education and arts that can deal with the politics of revitalisation and preservation of ritualised traditions While some chapters in this book emphasise on the ritualisation of cultural heritage by concentrating on power relations and politics as well as actual processes of identification especially for marginalised ethnic groups or migrant communities others explore how rituals as intangible heritage are strategically employed by different groups all over the world to make their claims public and to improve and negotiate their position on a local national or global platform This book recognises ritualised performances as transnational and cross cultural phenomena which are not only tied to and defined via national territories and identities but which also demand new theoretical and methodological approaches towards the discussion of rituals and heritage Getting Organized in Vietnam Ben J Tria

Kerkvliet, 2003-08-01 From the late 1950s in the north to the 1970s until the mid 1980s in the south there was little room or opportunity to form non state voluntary organizations and associations in Vietnam With few exceptions only those established by the Communist Party and other state agencies were permitted The picture has changed considerably since doi moi From proactive self help associations for the disabled to mass semi state or e non governmentale organizations the Vietnamese people are getting together to voice their collective and specific interests vis a vis the state The process of getting together voicing ideas acting in concert and attempting to influence policy in some cases is ongoing and in constant flux This book presents original case studies of the gamut of organizations in Vietnam today and analyses their relationships with umbrella state organizations which are themselves evolving Getting Organized in Vietnam also constitutes an enquiry into the term e civil societye itself The contributors examine current thinking about the nature of the state in Vietnam in particular Included here are the first attempts to provide a framework for assessing and categorizing the bewildering array of small organizations in Vietnam which ones are weakly connected to the state which ones are independent of the state but perhaps dependent on outside funding agencies This book is a must for scholars policymakers journalists and others interested in understanding political and social change in Vietnam and other transitional economies Market Frictions Kirsten W. Endres, 2019-06-06 Based on ethnographic research conducted over several years Market Frictions examines the tensions and frictions that emerge from the interaction of global market forces urban planning policies and small scale trading activities in the Vietnamese border city of L o Cai Here it is revealed how small scale traders and market vendors experience the marketplace reflect upon their trading activities and negotiate current state policies and regulations It shows how traditional Vietnamese marketplaces have continually been reshaped and adapted to meet the changing political economic circumstances and civilizational ideals of the time Religious Diversity in Asia Jørn Borup, Marianne Qvortrup Fibiger, Lene Kühle, 2019-10-01 The religious landscape in Asia has long been diverse with various forms of syncretic traditions and pragmatic practices continuously having been challenged by centrifugal forces of differentiation This anthology explores representations and managements of religious diversity in Japan China South Korea Vietnam the Philippines Indonesia Sri Lanka India and diaspora religions originating in these countries seen through the lenses of history identity state ritual and geography In addition to presenting empirical cases the chapters also address theoretical and methodological reflections using Asia as a laboratory for further comparative research of the relevance and use of religious diversity Contributors are Donald Baker Ugo Dessi Chung Van Hoang Ayelet Harel Shalev Noa Levy Gideon Elazar Santosh K Singh Yu Tao Ed Griffith Satoko Fujiwara Uwe Skoda Tudor Silva Martin Tsang Marianne Q Fibiger J rn Borup and Lene K hle Religious Diversity in Asia was made possible by a framework grant from the Danish Agency for Science Technology and Innovation allowing the grant holder J rn Borup and two colleagues Marianne Q Fibiger and Lene K hle to host a workshop at Aarhus University and to co arrange workshops in Delhi and Nagoya We would like to thank professors Arshad Alam and Michiaki Okuyama for hosting these latter workshops at Jawaharlal Nehru University and Nanzan University and we would like to thank Professor Chong Suh Kim for the invitation for J rn Borup to visit Seoul National University We would also like to extend our gratitude to all the scholars who participated in the workshops and to all the authors we subsequently invited to contribute to our endeavor to create this academically relevant volume Religious Commodifications in Asia Pattana Kitiarsa, 2007-11-09

This book addresses the growing academic concerns of the market religion convergences in Asia Bringing together a group of leading scholars from Asia Europe Australia and North America it discusses multiple issues regarding religious commodifications and their consequences across Asia s diverse religious traditions Covering key issues in the anthropology and sociology of contemporary Asian religion it draws theoretical implications for the study of religions in the light of the shift of religious institutions from traditional religious beliefs to material prosperity The fact that religions compete with each other in a market of faiths is also at the core of the analysis The contributions show how ordinary people and religious institutions in Asia adjusted to and negotiated with the penetrative forces of a global market economy into the region s changing religio cultural landscapes An excellent contribution to the growing demands of ethnographically and theoretically updated interpretations of Asian religions Religious Commodifications in Asia will be of interest to scholars of Asian religion and new religious movements Traveling Spirits Gertrud Hüwelmeier, Kristine Krause, 2009-12-04 Maintaining and forging religious networks across borders have long been part of migrants activities However due to the wide availability of communication technologies and the reduced costs of transportation transnational social practices including religious activities have witnessed an enormous intensification in the last few decades around the world. Traveling Spirits seeks to understand these processes by investigating how religion goes global. How do religious agents create and maintain transborder connections? In what way are religious practices being transformed, reinforced, or newly invented when transported to different places around the world? How are power relations negotiated within transnational religious networks? How are processes of coming and going linked to religious practices and discourses? The book's contributors provide rich ethnographic case studies on mobile evangelists, moving spirit mediums, and traveling believers. They analyze the relationship between global, regional, national, local, and individual religious processes by centering on economic activities, media representations, or politics of emplacement. Grounded firmly in cross-cultural comparison, this book contributes significantly to the literature on globalization, migration, and transnational religion.

Gods, Heroes, and Ancestors Anh Q. Tran, 2018

Though a minority religion in Vietnam, Christianity has been a significant presence in the country since its arrival in the sixteenth century. Anh Q. Tran offers the first English translation of the recently discovered 1752 manuscript Tam Gi o Chu Vong. The Errors of the Three Religions, structured as a dialogue between a Christian priest and a Confucian scholar, this anonymously authored manuscript paints a rich picture of the three traditional Vietnamese religions: Confucianism, Buddhism, and Daoism. The work explains and evaluates several religious beliefs, customs, and rituals of eighteenth-century Vietnam, many of which are still in practice today. In addition, it contains a trove of information on the challenges and struggles that Vietnamese Christian converts had to face in following the new faith. Besides its great historical value for studies in Vietnamese religion, language, and culture, Gods, Heroes, and Ancestors raises complex issues concerning the encounter between Christianity and other religions, Christian missions, religious pluralism, and interreligious dialogue.

The Divine Eye and the Diaspora Janet Alison Hoskins, 2015-02-28

What is the relationship between syncretism and diaspora? Caodaism is a large but almost unknown new religion that provides answers to this question. Born in Vietnam during the struggles of decolonization, shattered and spatially dispersed by cold war conflicts, it is now reshaping the goals of its four million followers. Colorful and strikingly eclectic, its outrageous syncretism incorporates Chinese Buddhist and Western religions as well as world figures like Victor Hugo, Jeanne d'Arc, Vladimir Lenin, and in the USA, Joseph Smith, the founder of Mormonism. The book looks at the connections between the age of revelations (1925-1934) in French Indochina and the age of diaspora (1975-present) when many Caodai leaders and followers went into exile. Structured in paired biographies to trace relations between masters and disciples now separated by oceans, it focuses on five members of the founding generation and their followers or descendants in California, showing the continuing obligation to honor those who forged the initial vision to bring the gods of the East and West together. Diasporic congregations in California have interacted with New Age ideas and stereotypes of a Walt Disney fantasia of the East at the same time that temples in Vietnam have reopened their doors after decades of severe restrictions. Caodaism forces us to reconsider how anthropologists study religious mixtures in postcolonial settings Its dynamics challenge the unconscious Eurocentrism of our notions of how religions are bounded and conceptualized

The Penguin History of Modern Vietnam Christopher Goscha, 2016-06-30 WINNER OF THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION S JOHN K FAIRBANK PRIZE SHORTLISTED FOR THE CUNDHILL HISTORY PRIZE 2017 This is the finest single volume history of Vietnam in English It challenges myths and raises questions about the socialist republic s political future Guardian Powerful and compelling Vietnam will be of growing importance in the twenty first century world particularly as China and the US rethink their roles in Asia Christopher Goscha s book is a brilliant account of that country s history Rana Mitter A vigorous eye opening account of a country of great importance to the world past and future Kirkus Reviews Over the centuries the Vietnamese have been both colonizers themselves and the victims of colonization by others Their country expanded shrunk split and sometimes disappeared often under circumstances far beyond their control Despite these often overwhelming pressures Vietnam has survived as one of Asia s most striking and complex cultures As more and more visitors come to this extraordinary country there has been for some years a need for a major history a book which allows the outsider to understand the many layers left by earlier emperors rebels priests and colonizers Christopher Goscha s new work amply fills this role Drawing on a lifetime of thinking about Indo China he has created a narrative which is consistently seen from inside Vietnam but never loses sight of the connections to the outside As wave after wave of invaders whether Chinese French Japanese or American have been ultimately expelled we see the terrible cost to the Vietnamese themselves Vietnam s role in one of the Cold War s longest conflicts has meant that its past has been endlessly abused for propaganda purposes and it is perhaps only now that the events which created the modern state can be seen from a truly historical perspective Christopher Goscha draws on the latest research and discoveries in Vietnamese French and English His book is a major achievement describing both the grand narrative of Vietnam s story but also the byways curiosities differences cultures and peoples that have done so much over the centuries to define the many versions of Vietnam

Gender, Household and State in Post-Revolutionary Vietnam Jayne Werner, 2009-01-21 Examining gender in post revolutionary Vietnam focusing in particular on gender relations in both the family and state since the onset of economic reform in 1986 this book argues that as in the socialist era current gender relations bear the imprint of state gender policies and discourses

Scattered and Gathered Michael L. Budde, 2017-09-15 This volume takes its title from the first century Christian catechism called the Didache Even as this broken bread was scattered over the hills gathered together and became one so let Your Church be gathered together from the ends of the earth For Christians today these words remain relevant in an era of massive human movements voluntary and coerced hybrid identities and wide ranging cultural interactions How do modern Christians live as both a scattered and gathered people How do they live out the tension between ecclesial universality catholicity and particularity distinctive ways of being church in a given culture and context Do Christians today constitute a diaspora a people dispersed across borders and cultures that nonetheless maintains a sense of commonality and mission Scattered and Gathered Catholics in Diaspora explores these questions through the work of fourteen scholars in different fields and from different corners of the world Whether through reflections on Zimbabweans in Britain Levantines in North America or the remote island people of Chiloe now living in other parts of Chile they guide readers along the winding road of insights and challenges facing many of today's Christians How Heaven Works Christopher Hartney,2024-10-21 In 1948 Vietnam's great 20th Century mystic Ph m C ng T c 1890 1959 began a series of sermons making Caodaism's claims to universal salvation the clearest In only two decades Caodaism had stamped its fast growing presence on the nation With potent creative and poetic skill Ph m C ng T c invited his co religionists to take a shamanic journey with him to examine the heavens and literally see how they would be saved The 35 sermons translated here are provided with a commentary and extensive introduction by Hartney How Heaven Works is a fascinating insight into the deep connection between shamanic atmosphere literature and Modern syncretic concepts of salvation Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Vietnam Jonathan D. London,2022-07-29 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Vietnam is a comprehensive resource exploring social political economic and cultural aspects of Vietnam one of contemporary Asia's most dynamic but least understood countries Following an introduction that highlights major changes that have unfolded in Vietnam over the past three decades the volume is organized into four thematic parts Politics and Society Economy and Society Social Life and Institutions Cultures in Motion Part I addresses key aspects of Vietnam's politics from the role of the Communist Party of Vietnam in shaping the country's institutional evolution to continuity and change in patterns of socio political organization political expression state repression diplomatic relations and human rights Part II assesses the transformation of Vietnam's economy addressing patterns of economic growth investment and trade the role of the state in the economy and other economic aspects of social life Parts III and IV examine developments across a variety of social and cultural fields through chapters on themes including welfare inequality social policy urbanization the environment and society gender ethnicity the family cuisine art mass media and the politics of remembrance Featuring 38 essays by leading Vietnam scholars from around the world this book provides a cutting edge analysis of Vietnam's transformation and changing engagement with the world It is an invaluable interdisciplinary reference work that will be of interest to students and academics of Southeast Asian studies as well as policymakers analysts and anyone wishing to learn more about contemporary Vietnam
